

that you drew the rest of your stipend from Government.

Par.—Not at all. I, and the great bulk of the Clergy in the Diocese, are supported by the bounty of one of the great Missionary Societies of the Church of England—the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, which (with the other great Society in England, the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge,) has cherished the Church in these Colonies from the very beginning.

Parish.—It's a great pity all this is not better known among the country folks. But surely these Societies, if they knew how badly the people in the back settlements were off, would not refuse to help them.

Par.—They are well aware of the spiritual destitution which exists, for our Bishop is in continual communication with them; but though they are very willing (as their deeds show) to supply our wants as far as they are able, yet there are many reasons which prevent
