SAINTS ARE SWAMPED BY UNIVERSITY SCHOOLS

U.T.S. Will Now Meet Hamilton Collegiate for the Group

University Schools will meet Hamilton Collegiate in home-and-home games for their group title, and the right to enter the junior O.R.F.U. semi-finals.

U. T. S. earned this right by downing St. Michael's College, 22 to 2, yesterday. The group games were held up by the "flu" epidemic, and the Toronto teams agreed to play a sudden-death game.

St. Michaels were a little the better on the line, but didn't have a kicker. Munro and Harris played brilliant football for their work that U.T.S. were returned victors.

Central Y. hold a chalk talk at 6.30 tonight in Geo. Goulding's office. They play Beaches Satunday at U.C.C., starting at 3 p.m. The following player are asked to attend tonight: Conacher Cauff, Laurie, Secord, Munro, Burch Sullivan, Young, Hyland, Britnell, Drum mond, Snider, Applegath, Aggett, Montague, Schatz, Yates, Burt, McFetridge Pallettier, Wren, Everist, Burt, Smith. MAY HAVE SENIOR SERIES IN THE NORTHERN LEAGU

Listowel, Ont., Nov. 5.—Secretary B. L. H. Bamford of the Northern Hockey League announced today that his amateur association will again hold a competition for junior teams only this complex season, unless there are sufficient assurances that it would be wise to introduce the senior series.

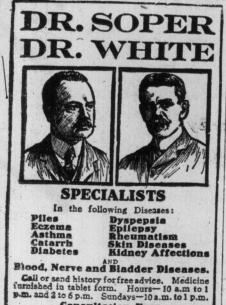

The senior competition was suspended at last year's annual meeting as a war measure, but with the propability of peace by the time the hockey season begins, it makes a senior competition again likely.

peace by the time the hockey season begins, it makes a senior competition again likely.

Nominations for office, as well as amendments to the constitution and rules, must be made to the secretary one week before the date of the annual meeting, which will be held this year at Palmerston, on Tuesday, Dec. 10.

The NH,L. was founded in the year 1301, and has stfadily grown in strength and popularity since. The league reached its height in 1914, and, like many sporting organizations, has suffered thru the effects of the world's conflict. It, however, braved the worst, and it is fully expected that pre-war conditions will prevail with peace restored.

Stratford won the junior title for the past two seasons, and from indications would immediately impress the enthusiasts with the fact that they are out to win ft for the third consecutive time.
