Columbia Lad was a short-priced favorite at 6—5, and the public went to him at those figures, but the shrewd owner of Inspector Purvis got enough on his colt to make his winnings amount to several thousand rlunks. When it came to the race thru the stretch it was between the favorite and the Orpen colt, and they had a ding-dong finish all thru, bumping each other at every stride, but it was on account of the lightweight boys not being able to keep the colts straight rather than any intentional fouling. Inspector Purvis finished first by a narrow margin over Columbia Lad, with the latter safely in front of Maxton, who was third. #### GLARET

Rarely shall you find a claret so rich and delicate, yet light of body and fine of flavor. S & S Claret is the perfection of true clarets.

SAUTERNE

Typical of the peculiar this S & S Sauterne, with its dry, appetitemaking taste, its delicious after-tang, - a wine for the discriminating.

BURGUNDY

Luscious, - - - 'tis the one word that befits this S & S Burgundy, sound, well-matured, enticing in bouquet, tonic indeed. Even in France they praise it as a fine vintage.

Your dealer can supply these really excellent wines, -- ask for S&S -- look for the name on the label, as thus:
