Peters Ham Sandwich, under the remainder of the week, being presented three times each day, matiness at 2:15 and evenings at 7 and 9 o'clock. Henry B. Walthall, the little colonel of "The Birth of a Nation" is the star and is surrounded by a brilliant cast of players, "The Confession" is a picturization of Hal Reid's stage play "To Serve the Cross." The screen version is a vigorous story of absorbing power in eight soul-string reels that will indorsed by the Catholic National Board of Censors. It has been recommended to the world by Cardinals Mercier, Gibbons and O'Connell, and to Canada especially by Father O'Rourke of the archbishop's palace, the Knights of Columbus and the majority of the priesthood. Added features on the program include a Snub Pollard comedy, the Pathe News and Review and Topics of the Day. Slightly increased prices will prevail during the engagement. Seats for evening performance reserved.

Three hundred attended it. Hyatt came second with 150, and the military outing drew 190. A full list of sports was run off with great interest. After races, ball games were played, most of which were betten the men and the women.

Bakers' Picnic.

At the bakers' picnic, B. Brighton, in a short speech, referred to the days 35 years ago, when bakers worked four-teen and sixteen hours a day, compared to the eight-hour day in force at present. He said: "The cause of the shorter hours was organizing and pulling to-

The most entertaining program which the Allen has yet shown this summer is the excellent double feature bill shown today, tomorrow and Wednesday. Gloria Swanson, exotic, beautiful and star supreme, with Lew Cody, Elliott Dexter and Theodore Roberts are presented in Cecil B. De Mille's brilliant and lavish film spectacle. "Don's Change Your Husband." Noted for his exceptionally beautiful and artistic productions, for the strength of his stories, and for the selection of his casts, Cecil B. De Mille has placed himself in the foremost ranks of productions, which is a romance of wealthy domestic circles. The gowns alone in the picture are well worth seeing.

Presented on the same double program will be Will Rogers' new comedy drama. "Jes Call Me Jim," in which he is supported again by that beautiful lady of the screen, Irene Rich. Will Rogers. ne comedian whose humor is en-different from all others, whose pictures can be relied upon to provide new thrills and new situations, new laughs, a new heart interest, Rogers has reached the pinacle of his success in "Jes: Call Me Jim," a tale of the lumber camps.

Service Ceases Temporarily During Latter Part of Sunday Evening.

Breaking of a span wire on the London and Port Stanley Railway at 9 o'clock on Sunday night caused a threehour tie-up on the line.

The first real trouble occurred when northbound train, crowded with passengers, struck the hanging wire near Phillip street. As a result of the collision, the glass in the front of the first coach was smashed. A short circuit followed, which was the cause of fire breaking out on the roofs of the second and third coaches. The damage done to these cars was not serious, how-

The result of the train coming into contact with the wire was to put the lights out on various sections of the line, and to cause a number of cars to cease operation temporarily. "THE CONFESSION" HAS APPROVAL OF PRIESTS

Film Showing at Grand This Week Presented Specially on Saturday. A special presentation of "The Confession," the blg feature photoplay shown at the Grand all this week, was given Saturday morning before the Roman Catholic clergy of the city, press representatives and others. While the picture is not a sectarian or propaganda film, it is unique in that it is the first photoplay ever indorsed by the Catholic Board of Censorship, and the local property who witnessed the contractive of priests who witnessed the production Saturday morning expressed very high approval of it. The story is one of ine-ternational interest, the scene being laid partly in the state of Montana and partly in the province of Alberta. The graphic realism of the picture and the intensity of its thrills at times tax almost unbearably the nerves of the spectator who lets himself forget for a spectator who lets himself forget for a moment that it is only a picture after all. The leading part is taken by Henry B. Walthall, who was the little colonel in "The Birth of a Nation" and the supporting cast is comprised of all-star players.

The plot has to do with the severe testing of a Roman Catholic priest; who H. A. Panet and Mrs. Panet. Mrs.
Panet gave out the prizes for the short events. The elopement race was without a doubt the most keenly contested event of the day. Major Lawless and Miss Kennedy were the winners. At the supper table the "bride" cut the cake. After refreshments were served, the ladies and the men indulged in a game of ball. The ladies were victorious. Following are the race results:
