A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM. This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really ounderstand. It is simply weakness—a break-down, as a fawere, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same; the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of i.fe. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour—general contents.

VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that as night succeeds the day this may be of more certainly secured by a course of
