Caer Howell Lawn Bowlers

Hold 80th Annual Banquet

TORONTO'S OLDEST CLUB HELD ANNUAL BANQUET

Caer Howell Bowlers Enjoy Evening Around the Board at Hotel Imperial.

Toronto's oldest club held its annual reunion last night in the Hotel Imperial, in Adelaide street. About 80 guests sat around the board and enjoyed a splendid menu, served up in his best style by Mine Host W. H. Heppler.

The event was the eightieth annual banquet of the Caer Howell Lawn Bowling Club. The success of the dinner proved the value of a good, energetic and nopular president.

Among the speakers, special mention should be made of the fine and scholarly address by Very Rev. Dean Harris in replying to the tost of "Our Dominion." Mr. Wm. Shaver, an old and well-known member, rendered a few songs in his usual good style, also Mr. McLeod was great in his splendid rendering of several songs. Mr. Jas. G. Cane and Dr. Smuck gave splendid speeches in replying to the toasts of "The Empire" and "Our Boys in Khakl," proposed by Dr. Orr, president, in his usual graceful style.

The officers of the Caer Howell Club are as follows: Hon. presidents, L. J. Cosgrave, W. H. Price, M.L.A.; president, Dr. Rowland B. Orr; vice-president, J. M. Radford; hon. secretary, W. J. Thomson; hon. life members, Sir John Willison, L. L. Anthes, E. W. B. Snider and E. C. Davies.

BRANTFORD, Jan. 28.—Manager F. Gould of the local intermediate team says there is no truth in the story from Hamilton that Brantford suggested that the liton that Brantford suggested that the soldiers drop out, so that Brantford and Paris could tie up the district. Brantford never put up any such proposition. As a matter of fact, Lieut Sippi wanted the soldiers to drop out, but at a meeting of the team's executive it was decided to finish the schedule. Brantford went down to Hamilton on Wednesday to play on their merits and to win by no unfair means.

AURA LEE MAKE THE GROUP HONORS SURE

Trounce Newmarket Juniors in Convincing Fashion at the Arena.

Aura Lee practically made the group henors sure by trouncing their most serious opponents soundly at the Arena last night. After the first period Aura Lee simply walked away from Newmarket, and the final was 13 to 2.

Aura Lee started off like a bad team. They bunched in centre Ice, passed poorly and were only half-hear ed in their checking. They reversed their tactics after the first rest and showed the fans just how good they were. Only one goal was scored in the first round. It was 7 to 0 at the end of the second period, and Aura Lee got 6 and Newmarket 2 in the closing 20 minutes.

Humphrey, Little and Wright showed some beautiful combination in the second and third periods, and this, coupled with their speed and back-checking, had the Newmarket team dazzled. Sheldon was the best man on the ice. He rushed strongly and played a grand defensive game.

Secretary Schlegel notified the O.H.A. today that the Preston club had decided to default the remainder of their O.H.A. senior games in group No. 3. MANY BALL TEAMS MADE BY ONE MAN

CHICAGO. Jan. 27.—Roger Bresnahan was officially notified yesterday that he is no longer manager of the Cubs. Rajah has had a hunch that something like that would happen, but he wanted to be certain about it, so he stuffed his two-year contract in his best/suit of clothes, meandered over to the new Cub offiges in the Otis Building, ready to talk business with President Weeghman. In due time he was admitted, passing Joe Tinker on his way.

The conference must have been to the point, for Roger did not remain long with President Weeghman and the other stockholders. When he emerged his face was flushed and there was something like the fight-to-a-finish air about him. "Yes, I was told that I am no longer manager of the Cubs, and that means that my contract has been broken," said Bresnahan. "I consider that my contract calls for managership of the Cubs and, naturally, I am looking for satisfaction. The fact that I was assured that my pay cheques for the next two years will appear regularly does not clear the atmosphere. I think I am entitled to damages aside from the regular salary."

"Roger is all right." was President Weeghman's explanation of the meeting, "and I believe, when he thinks it over, that we will have no trouble in agreeing. I told him that his cheque would be forthcoming the first and fifteenth of every month, and that should satisfy him. I explained to him that I was going to have Joe Tinker as manager, and that I couldn't very well have two. Now, I can't do more than to pay him." Alexander and the Phillies as the 1915 combination.

Detroit never would have been a contender for the 1915 flag if it hadn't been for Ty Cobb. Nor would Detroit ever have had even a fighting chance in any of the past six or seven years without the amazing Georgian. The Phillies would have been lucky to finish in the first division in 1915 if they hadn't had Alexander. When Matty was in the hey-day of his career he was the Giant team. He kept them in the fight and often put them ahead, with his peerless pitching.

Ed Walsh was the White Sox team in the days when the "hitless wonders" breezed thru the world's championship. Minus Walsh, the Sox wouldn't have finished one-two-three. Smoky Joe Wood carried the Red Sox to the American League pennant, and then to the world's championship, in 1912. Without him the Sox never would have been in the battle.

HOW GREAT WAR AFFECTS THE BREEDING INDUSTRY Corner Church and Colborne

Stud Fees Generally Drop for Racing Sires, Also Price of Horses.

Stud fees as well as prices for race horses have been cut all to pieces in Bingland by the effects of the war. Even the leading sires are affected. When yearlings were selling up to $30,000 apiece as at the Doncaster sales in the year before the war broke out, stud fees went to unheard of heights. Last year they were lower, and now that racing is sucpended at all important courses, excepting Newmarket, the owners of thorobred stallions have made further concessions to breeders for the season of 1916.—

cessions to breeders for the season of 1916.—
William the Third, whose offspring won more than $340,000 in four years, commanded a fee of $2000 in 1915. For the coming season his fee will be $1250. He is a son of the great St. Simon. Cicero, one of the leading stres of the last few years, and a son of Cyllene, is standing at $750, while last year his fee was $1500.

Spearmint, the Derby winner of 1906, by Carbine, son of Musket, has dropped from $1500 to $1000. He is one of the most successful sires of the day.

Santoi, another of the great sires, that had fifteen winners out in 1914, had a full book at $1000 in 1915. His fee this year is $500.

year is $500.

Many other prominent horses, as popular as ever in the estimation of British breeders, are advertised in the Racing Calendar at correspondingly reduced stud fees. Among the few exceptions are Chaucer, son of St. Simon, and Swynford, by John o' Gaunt. Their owner announces that the books of both horses are already full for 1916 at $1000 and $1500 respectively; the same fees as last year.

That breeding has been about as hard hit in France as in England is shown by the fact that Sundridge will stand this year at $1450 in the Villebon stud, near Paris. When he got the colt that sold as a yearling for $6600 at Durland's Riding Academy a few weeks ago Charence H. Mackey had to pay $2000 to mate his mare Spectrum with the great son of Amphion, and this was the fee last year.

As showing the extreme point to which stud fees had advanced in England before racing was suspended, it is worthy of note that two untried horses last year fore racing was suspended, it is worthy of note that two untried horses last year stood at $2000. These were Tracery, by Rock Sand, and Prince Palatine, by Persimmon. Both were fashionably bred and great race horses, but neither won the Derby, and neither had yet shown his class as a sire.

That stud fees were excessive and sometimes out of reason has long been maintained by many turfmen in England. But they were based on supply amd demand, and when a colt went to the stud with the critics calling him the best race horse in England, there were usually so many wealthy amateurs eager to breed to him that he could command almost any fee his fortunate owner was minded to ask.

Famcy prices paid for yearlings were largely responsible for high stud fees. When breeders can look forward to selling 321 yearlings at an average of $3445, as

In this unexampled sale of yearlings, there were fifty-four for which their breeders realized more than $5000 each. These brought a total of $665,750, or an average of $10,476. Nine head by Desmond made an average of $19,970; four by Roi Herode, $10,750; three by William the Third, $11,325; the same number by Spearmint, $14,165, and the trio by Symington, $21,165. The high-priced youngsters were nearly all rather poor investments for the buyers. An examination of the records for 1914 shows that only eleven of the fifty-four won races, and Lady Josephine alone won more than $1000. This daughter of Sundridge and Americus Girl was four times first, with earnings of $18,130. She cost her owner, W. M. Savill, $3500 under the hammer. The total earnings of the other ten winners were $8730. What the fifty-four colts and fillies, costing $665,750 as yearlings, earned as three-year-olds cannot be computed until the spring edition of Ruff's Guide to the Turf comes out, but the amount is known to be trifling as compared with the cost of the horses.
