

death of one of our respected Deacons, Mr. Robert Moore—and Mr. Andrew Chisholm, one of the Trustees for the Cemetery.

In regard to the income and expenditure of the congregation, we have to report that the same are in a satisfactory condition; the books of the Treasurer have been audited and found correct, and an abstract of the receipts and disbursements for the year is annexed to this Report; and it is evident, were it not for the amount paid towards the building of the Manse that a large balance would be at the credit of the congregation.

THE MANSE.

Your Committee have to report that the Manse has been finished, and is now occupied by our beloved Pastor, and we are glad to state that he is quite satisfied with it and finds it a comfortable home. The Manse, outhouses and fences, cost $4673.67. Of this amount there is still due to the bank $2500, and in order that this amount may be paid off at once, and thus avoid a further mortgage on the church property, it is recommended that a subscription list be opened immediately to liquidate this debt, as your committee are satisfied that the required amount will be subscribed and paid in a very short time.

The old manse has been removed, and its removal has added considerably to the appearance of the church. The ground on which it stood will require to be sodded
