DECLARES ONLY ORDERS TO MONCTON WERE TO AWAIT WORD OF CONFERENCE HERE

President of M. P. B. Promises Statement in Reply to Charges Made by A. W. Covey About Annual Meeting in Amherst

STIRLING THREATENS TO RESIGN

Big Stir Caused in Local Amateur Circles Over Postponement—J. C. Chesley Says He Will Have Further Details for Sporting Public Over M. P. B. Annual

A FLAT denial that he was in any way responsible for the cancellation of Monday afternoon's game here between Moncton and the Water Department was made over the long distance telephone this morning to The Times-Star by S. F. Doyle, president of the Maritime Provinces branch of the A. A. U. of C. Mr. Doyle had been asked for his views by telegraph yesterday but did not reply and this morning efforts to get his version of the affair over the telephone were successful.

The postponement of this game, after it had been advertised extensively in good faith by The Telegraph-Journal on Monday morning without the newspaper being given a chance to inform the sporting public of the change, has caused the biggest stir in years in amateur circles here and has drawn from W. E. Stirling, New Brunswick vice-president, a statement that he will resign unless given full control.

It also roused the ire of A. W. Covey, president of the local City League, who makes grave charges regarding the annual meeting of the M. P. B. in Amherst, where, he says, two professionals sat as delegates.

President Doyle has promised a reply for tomorrow on these matters.

In conversation this morning, President Doyle confirms statements of Mr. Stirling and Mr. Covey that he told the Moncton people to await word from him. "When I reached Moncton," says Mr. Doyle, "I was waited on by Messrs. Blakeney and Gillespie, who told me that Moncton was not going to meet two Saint John teams in a play-off. They referred to the Martello's case. Although I had told Mr. Stirling he was in charge in New Brunswick, I felt this matter was important enough to again confer personally with him with the result I told the Moncton people to wait until they heard from me. I did not tell them that the game was cancelled."

"I came to Saint John and finally reached the decision that the St. John's were eligible and that Martello's must be ruled out. I then notified Moncton and later received word from them that they could not come. How can I be held responsible for this when I distinctly told Moncton to wait word from me. I never told them that the game was cancelled."

Mr. Doyle was told of the demand being made for an investigation under oath of the M. P. B. annual in Amherst and also of the serious charges by Mr. Covey that two professionals, McCarthy and Mooney, sat in as delegates at the annual and voted on matters of interest to amateur clubs. Mr. Doyle reserved comment on this until he had read the entire text of this demand and will immediately make a reply to same in Wednesday's Telegraph-Journal," was Mr. Doyle's answer to this.

COVEY'S VERSION
Mr. Covey's version agrees with Mr. Doyle's but the local man takes the stand he had no right to interfere and that his interference originated all the trouble as Moncton would have been here had Mr. Doyle not told them to wait word from here. Mr. Stirling

Telegraph-Journal Demands Inquiry, Under Oath, Of M. P. B. Annual

THE TELEGRAPH-JOURNAL demands in the interest of clean amateur sport in the Maritime Provinces a complete and thorough investigation into the annual meeting held in August in Amherst. This paper takes this stand, not with the idea of hurting the M. P. B. but with the view to cleaning up the present impossible situation that exists in amateur circles here. Insofar as Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island is concerned, that is a matter for the affiliated clubs there to decide for themselves but The Telegraph-Journal makes this appeal to amateur clubs in New Brunswick to prevent a recurrence of such situations as arose here yesterday when a championship game, advertised and advertised in good faith by this paper, is called off through interference by the president of the M. P. B., S. F. Doyle.

At the annual meeting in Amherst last August, The Telegraph-Journal is informed by A. W. Covey, member of the national registration committee, that two professionals sat in as delegates at this meeting and voted on matters of interest to amateurs. These representatives are Messrs. McCarthy and Mooney, both from Cape Breton. The first-named was ruled out of the annual meeting in 1921 and Mooney a few years later. Mooney was granted amateur status in 1921 and Mooney a few years later. Mooney was granted a card by A. C. Mills in 1923 but on September 6 and 7, 1924, played with a professional outfit in Halifax and was again suspended. McCarthy's application was turned down at the last annual meeting. Mooney's was never filed.

No professional can hold office in an amateur club but when professionals sit in and vote on matters of interest to amateurs at THE ANNUAL MEETING, it is time to call a halt.

Did President Doyle know that these men had never been reinstated at the annual meeting? If he did, he was derelict in his duty in allowing them to vote. If he did not know of it, it was his business to know. And how about previous years? This paper has no evidence beyond what is said but it is reliably informed that proxies were used at this meeting THAT WERE NOT AUTHORIZED BEFORE THE MEETING and that among the clubs involved were TWO SAINT JOHN CLUBS. Is this the kind of talk that the M. P. B. desires about its annual meetings? If so, it is not time that a complete realignment is made. If it does not desire such action, it will grant a request for an inquiry under oath to say that such talk is absolutely false and untrue. Would it not be in the interests of amateur sport in the Maritimes to see that this is done?

Such a condition of affairs must strike the average onlooker as peculiar to say the least. A. W. Covey, a vice-president of the Canadian Union, charges that a "certain clique" is out to favor professionalism in the M. P. B. and that the attempt is being made to "take over" the M. P. B. by the down under that charge? It is up to President Doyle and his executive to say the charge is false or true. Which course does the executive prefer—silence on this charge which means that it is true, or a complete vindication that the M. P. B. is not charged with professionalism? Only an inquiry under oath can definitely establish such facts.

Prior to the annual meeting of the M. P. B. there was some agitation in New Brunswick for a complete breakdown from the other two provinces with the right being given to New Brunswick to govern itself in sport matters. It came to a vote at a meeting here and half the clubs wanted one thing and half the other.

Here is how they voted at that meeting:
In favor of a separate branch—St. John's, 2; Water Department, 2; Martello's, 1; Y. M. C. A., 3; Wanderers, 2; East Saint John, 2; Trojans, 2; Saint John's, 2; St. Peter's, 2; Y. M. H. A., 1; U. N. B., (Frederickton), 1; Woodstock, 1; St. Stephen, 1.
Against—M. A. A. A., Moncton, 3; C. C. J. A., Moncton, 3; C. N. R., Moncton, 3; Atlantic, Moncton, 3; South End, Saint John, 2; St. John's, 2; Baptist, Saint John, 2; Saint John Hockey Club, 2; St. Peter's, 1; Devon, 1; Sackville, 3.

What are the clubs who favored a separate branch on the grounds of advancement of amateur sport a few months ago now going to do in the face of what the talk is regarding the M. P. B. annual?

One of 115 clubs affiliated with the M. P. B., according to the minutes of their meeting, only 29 were represented. One-sixth speak for the entire body. Is that a healthy condition of affairs?

In view of these circumstances, an investigation under oath is the only course consistent in maintaining the integrity and future of amateur athletics in New Brunswick.

Plans For Regatta On Saturday Being Formed

D. J. Carr, chairman of the program committee for the regatta to be held on Courtenay Bay at 2:30 o'clock next Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Saint John Rowing Club, has received a telegram from Halifax saying that the four-oared crew from the M. C. club and O'Connell, three eights from the M. C. club and O'Connell, would come to Saint John for the races if they received their expenses.

A meeting of the club will be held in the office of Thomas Nagle this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when chairman of different committees will report and the matter of bringing the Halifax oarsmen here will be decided on. While there are about six rowing clubs in Halifax and Dartmouth they finished the rowing season with the Maritime championships held recently but every effort will be made to give the local oarsmen outside competition on Saturday.

Trains and Drives Her Own

YES, folks, this is a girl, even if she doesn't look like one. She is Miss Helen Davis of Vacaville, Calif., who has been wild about horses since she knew what one was. Today she is one of the very few, if not the only, girl racehorse trainer and driver in the country. At any rate she's the youngest—only 18.

Miss Davis' favorite horse is Lady Belle D and most every day finds her and Lady Belle D taking a few jaunts around the oval (as depicted in above layout). The other scene shows Miss Davis and her "pal" just after a strenuous workout.

The youthful trainer and driver has entered Lady Belle D in the 21st race at the California State Fair to be held at Sacramento Sept. 8.
