NEWSPAPER MAN IN CUSTODY ON MURDER CHARGE

Row Over Wife of Man Who Is Slain Ends
Fatally

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Gerald Dwyer, 30 years old, formerly a native of Springfield, Mass., and until last June copy editor on a Washington newspaper, is held without bail for a hearing on October 14 on a first degree murder charge for the fatal shooting of Joseph Ruffner, also a copy editor, in the lobby of Ruffner's home at 209 West 87th street.

OUTCOME OF JOKE.

Before his arraignment, Dwyer was alleged to have made a confession to Assistant District Attorney Pasco, in which he declared that the shooting was the outcome of a practical joke Ruffner and the latter's wife, Mrs. Gwendolyn Ruffner, played on him in the early part of the summer when both men were employed on a Washington newspaper.

Dwyer said that he had received a telephone message at the newspaper office from a woman, inviting him to meet her at a Washington restaurant. When he called there, he said, he found Ruffner and a woman, whom Ruffner later introduced as his wife. Several other friends had been let in on the joke and laughed heartily when Ruffner told him that the woman who had done the telephoning was Mrs. Ruffner.

The prisoner said that in the early part of June he came to the city and was accompanied by Mrs. Ruffner. He had then made a trip to Canada, Portland, Maine, and Boston, but Mrs. Ruffner, in a statement at the present trial, denied that she had accompanied Dwyer here or that she went to Canada with him. She also denied that she ever had been on friendly terms with Dwyer.

FIRE FIVE SHOTS.

Mr. Pasco said that Dwyer admitted that he had fired five shots at Ruffner, after an altercation in the lobby of the apartment house in which the Ruffners lived, when Dwyer attempted to brush past Ruffner and visit the Ruffner home. Dwyer had previously called Mrs. Ruffner on the telephone, the police were told. The police said that Dwyer was intoxicated when he was captured while running away after the shooting.

Dwyer obtained employment on the Brooklyn Eagle last August, Ruffner, a short time before, had come here with his wife and had obtained employment on the Bronx Home News. The men had been close friends when they were employed on the Washington Post.

EFFORT IS MADE FOR PEACE IN BALKANS

Mussolini Discusses Political Economic Matters With Bulgarian Minister

ROME, Oct. 7.—Premier Mussolini and Foreign Minister Borsoi of Bulgaria yesterday had a long interview in which they discussed political and economic matters of interest to their respective countries.

The official visit here of Foreign Minister Borsoi is interpreted by the press as indicating the intention of Italy to contribute to the equilibrium of the Balkans in order to preserve peace there, regarded as a highly important factor for European peace.

While Italy is strengthening her relations with Bulgaria, she also maintains the best relations with Yugoslavia, Rumania and Greece, the press points out.

King Victor Emmanuel has appointed Count Bonin Longare, Senator Scialoja and Senator Mangiagalli ministers of state.

Saint John R.C.N.V.R. Begins Season Drill

The Saint John Company of the R.C.N.V.R. held its first drill of the season last night with a fair number of men, and is looking forward to a year of good work and continued progress.

Among the activities of the season, basketball and bowling are expected to have a prominent place and teams are to be formed on the next drill night, Wednesday of next week.

In the absence of Lieut. Paul B. Cross, who is on cruise on the Capeston, Paymaster Sub-Lieutenant F. P. Coombs was in command last night and he addressed the men on the subject of the etiquette of uniforms and the proper care of uniforms.

SEVEN NEW MARKS MADE YESTERDAY

Ruth Accounted For Six at Game
in St. Louis Before Huge
Throng

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—Seven new world's series records were put on the books by statisticians who found that going as tough in yesterday's game as did the Cardinal pitching corps.

Babe Ruth personally accounted for six of the new marks, as follows:

- 1.—Most homers for one game, 9; breaking former mark of 2, held jointly by Harry Hooper of Red Sox, Benney Kauff of Giants, and Ruth.
- 2.—Most homers, total series, 7; breaking old record of 6, set by Goose Goslin in 1924 and 1925. Ruth hit one home in 1921 and three in 1923.
- 3.—Most total bases in one game, 12; breaking mark of 9 set by Hooper in 1915.
- 4.—Most extra bases, one game, 9; breaking former record of 6, held jointly by Ruth, Kauff and Hooper.
- 5.—Most runs, one game, four, breaking record first made by Mike Donlin with Giants in 1905 and equalled by many others.
- 6.—Most extra bases, total series, 27; breaking Ruth's own previous mark of 18.

The seventh and final record for one club's total bases in a single game was set by the Yankees, whose 14 hits totaled for 28 bases, eclipsing the mark of 27 made by the Giants in 1921.

HALIGONIAN AND BLUENOSE ENTER

First Race For Nova Scotia
Schooner Championship on
Oct. 16

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 7.—The Bluenose, champion fishing schooner of the North Atlantic, and the new and untried Haligonian will race off Halifax this month, for the championship of the Nova Scotia fleet of salt tankers.

The winner of the series will be decided in the best two out of three races.

The first race will be sailed, conditions permitting, on Saturday, Oct. 16, and the other two races of the series (if two are necessary to decide) will be sailed on Monday and Tuesday, the 18th and 19th.

Arrangements for the race were completed in Lunenburg yesterday afternoon at a meeting attended by representatives of the two vessels and members of the board of trustees of the Nova Scotia Fishermen's Trophy.

There was some discussion of the question of the revival of the regular international race to be sailed by the winners of the Halifax and Gloucester series, and it is possible that such a race will be arranged.

The Haligonian was to have competed in the open races off Gloucester beginning next Monday, but owing to the impossibility of getting her ready in time, her entry had to be cancelled.

German U-Boats Used In "Mare Nostrum"

Two captured German submarines, which under the German flag carried the numbers U-63 and U-64, participated in the filming of Rex Ingram's production of "Mare Nostrum" (Our Sea) for Metro-Goldwyn, which is to have its first showing at the Imperial Theatre next Monday.

These U-boats, 180 feet long and carrying a crew of 40 men, have been in the active French service since the end of the war, and the French authorities granted Ingram special permission to use them in manoeuvres before the camera for "Mare Nostrum."

They made a special trip from their Mediterranean base at Toulon to Nice, where many scenes of the famous Blasco Ibanez story were filmed. The boats were part of Germany's "terror fleet" during the war. Alice Terry and Antonio Moreno have the leading parts in "Mare Nostrum."

Local Scorer Asked To Trace Relatives

The widespread appeal of the modern press was rather convincingly demonstrated to a Saint John citizen this week when he received a request to trace missing relatives after his name had appeared in the sport pages of a Boston newspaper. A Malcolm MacGowan, local baseball expert, sent in his selection for an all-star team this year and one of the Boston newspapers gave him a considerable prominence. A few days ago, he received word from a Miss Elizabeth F. Ryan, Pittsfield, Mass., saying she had noticed his article and wanted to know if he could secure any information for her regarding James Delay and family, relatives with whom she had been out of contact for some time. Mr. MacGowan is already on the trail of information required.

WEDDINGS

Roberts-McMillan

A pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 29, at 5 o'clock in Knox Presbyterian church, when Rev. W. Lawrence Newton united in marriage Miss Annie Kathleen McMillan, eldest daughter of Mrs. William Cawley of Campbellton, and William P. Roberts, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Roberts, formerly of Wolverhampton, England, and now of Saint John. The bride, who was given in marriage by Roy Mason of this city, looked charming in a gown of white flowered silk rayon crepe trimmed with white silk crepe de chine and lace, wearing a large hat to match, white kid shoes and white stockings and gloves to correspond. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas, and maiden hair fern with streamers of white ribbon. She was attended by Miss Mary Roberts, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid, attired in powder blue crepe de chine trimmed with grey, and a blue felt hat to match. L. R. Mason of McAdam Junction was groomsmen. As the bride party entered the church the Mendelssohn wedding march was played and during the signing of the register Miss A. K. Wilson, organist, played "The Voice That Breathed Of Eden" and "Be-cause" and then closed the wedding march from Lohengrin. A dainty wedding supper was served at the home of Mrs. John Threl, 87 St. Patrick street, who was assisted in serving by Mrs. James Armstrong and Mrs. Clifford Mason. Many nice gifts were received. That from the bridegroom was a silver pin set with sapphires, that to the organist a silver brooch. Many friends will wish Mr. and Mrs. Roberts happiness. They will reside in Saint John. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were L. R. Mason of McAdam Junction and Mrs. James Armstrong.

Townsend-Martin
A wedding of much interest to friends in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia took place on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, pastor of the United Baptist church, when Miss Eileen Martin, of Egan, Albert Co., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Martin, became the bride of Thatcher L. Townsend, son of Chester and the late Mrs. Townsend, formerly of Milford, now of Madison, Me. The bride was becomingly attired in a chiffon dress over blue cut velvet, grey shoes and stockings and grey hat, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Mrs. Harry Smith, sister of the bride, and Mr. Smith, of Dorchester, N. B., were the witnesses at the signing of the register. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the Admiral Beatty Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend and later will visit relatives in Fairville, after which they will continue their wedding trip to New York and Washington, D. C., then going to Asheville, N. C., where they will reside during the winter. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a substantial check. Mr. Townsend is an accountant for the United States Government with headquarters in Washington.

O'Sullivan-Burns
In St. Dunstan's church, Fredericton, yesterday morning, Rev. F. L. Carney, with nuptial mass united in marriage Miss Agnes W. Burns, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Burns, and Joseph Thomas O'Sullivan, of Saint John, who is C. P. R. station agent at Aroostook Junction.

Burt-Ilvino
In Bangor recently Miss Pearl Ilvino of that city, and David Howard Burt, of Centerville, N. B., were married by Rev. G. T. Bolster. Miss Doris Ilvino, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and the groomsmen was Dodd Tweddle of Edmundston, formerly of Saint John. Mr. and Mrs. Burt will reside in Allston, Mass.

Trites-O'Brien
MONCTON, Oct. 6.—A quiet wedding took place at the parsonage of the Holy Trinity church, Sunday, Oct. 6, at 3 p.m., when Harry L. son of Mr. and Mrs. George Trites, of Pointe-aux-Lacs, was united in marriage to Ethel E. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander O'Brien, of Salisbury.

Burpee-Phillips
FRIDERICTON, Oct. 6.—A fashionable wedding took place this evening at 6:15 at Wilmet United church, when Miss Grace Phillips, daughter of Mrs. R. H. Phillips, of this city, became the bride of C. Miles Burpee, of Onondaga, N. Y., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Burpee, of Edmundston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. H. Holmes in the presence of a congregation which filled the church.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, R. Darrell Phillips, of Toronto. The bridesmaid was Miss Isabel Babitt of this city, and groomsmen were Bernard H. Hagerman, of Toronto, and Mrs. George W. Currie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Currie, of Saint John, was flower girl.

French Aviator Delays
Flight Across Atlantic

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Paul Tarsoux, French aviator, will not attempt to fly across the Atlantic in a Bernard monoplane, for at least eight months, and possibly longer. Delay in construction of the plane and the influence of bad weather, is the cause of the postponement of the flight.

Curley Fights
Publisher in Boston Street

Former Mayor Knocks F. W.
Enwright Into the Gutter

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—Noonday crowds in State Street witnessed a short but spirited fist fight between former Mayor James M. Curley, now president of the Hibernia Savings Bank, and Frederick W. Enwright, publisher of a chain of Massachusetts newspapers. The fight occurred in front of the old State House.

Both issued public statements after the encounter, each charging the other with precipitating the fight. Mr. Curley declared that Mr. Enwright struck him first, after he had warned the publisher to cease printing "untrue stories" about him, while Mr. Enwright announced that the first he knew of Mr. Curley's presence was when the former Mayor attacked him from the rear.

Mr. Curley, in his statement, said he met Mr. Enwright on the street and warned him to cease printing stories about him in "The Boston Telegraph" and to keep Mrs. Curley's name out of the newspaper. He said he told Mr. Enwright that a story in "The Telegraph" to the effect that he had settled a lawsuit brought by a firm of brokers by paying them $35,000 was "absolutely untrue."

"He is evidently a very nervous man," said the ex-Mayor, "for he struck me on the cheek."

Mr. Curley said he struck back in self-defense and knocked Mr. Enwright into the gutter, "where he lay like a dog." He said he then returned to his office in the Hibernia Savings Bank.

Mr. Enwright, on the other hand, said the first he knew of the affair was when he was "struck an awful wallop on the back of the neck. He said he then 'took a pass at him and hit him in the eye,' after which, he said, he was knocked down by a kick from behind. The crowd then interfered, halting the fight, he said.

He said Mr. Curley accused him of trying to ruin him politically and of trying to injure him and his family. "He seemed to be incensed about the story in today's paper," the publisher said.

No application for a warrant was made by either party.

PAN-EUROPEAN MEET
CLOSES IN HARMONY

German and French Students
Pass Resolution Urging Economic Unity

VIENNA, Oct. 7.—French and German students solemnly embraced one another yesterday at the closing of the first congress of the Pan-European Union.

During the closing session the union adopted a resolution asking the League of Nations to study the limitation of customs duties and to tighten the economic ties of European countries, including the economic union of certain groups of states as a transitory measure. The resolution said that the stabilization of all currencies should be the basis of such a scheme.

Another resolution expressed the wish that Britain and Russia would collaborate closely with Pan-European union within the League of Nations upon the basis of a general system of Locarno treaties.

Mrs. William Grey and daughter, Betty, of Moncton, are visiting friends in the city.
