

CHRISTMAS MUSIC IN CITY CHURCHES

Music in Keeping With Season Heard at Several Sunday Services.

Services in many of the city churches yesterday carried with them the glad tidings and spirit of Christmas. Decorations were also in keeping with the occasion. The music was particularly beautiful and set a new high mark for excellence. At Trinity the annual carol service was held. Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong conducted the service and J. S. Ford, organist and choir director, looked after the music. The soloists were Miss Louise Knight and E. C. Lawrence. Special music was also rendered in St. John's (Stone) church by the organist, J. F. Browne.

In Centenary a solo was sung by Mrs. L. M. Curran with Miss Alice Hea at the organ. The choir at Queen Square gave many beautiful selections under the direction of Mrs. Blair McLean. The soloists were Mrs. C. R. Mersereau, Newton Rogers, Miss Daisy Stephenson, William McGowan and Mrs. F. G. Spencer. At Portland Methodist the soloist was Miss Hazel Megarity.

At the Central Baptist the cantata, "Shepherds of Bethlehem," was sung. At Germain street the cantata, "King of Kings and Lord of Lords," was sung. Mrs. H. H. MacMichael was violin soloist and the vocal solos were sung by Miss Prescott and J. Stewart Smith.

At the Main street Baptist the evening service was entirely musical, the soloists being Miss Ethel Parlee, Miss Jessie Jamieson, Bayard Stillwell and J. Percy Cruikshank.

In the Carleton Methodist church on Sunday the music was specially fine. F. J. Punter, as choir leader, directed the music. Amongst those who had solo parts were Mrs. D. Brunstrom, Mrs. E. F. Bissett, Mrs. J. H. Shonyo, Mrs. George Barrett and F. J. Punter.

In Waterloo street Baptist church yesterday the music was of a specially high order and there were carols and choruses appropriate to the season. Mrs. G. Allan was the soloist, Mrs. Fred Potter, the choir leader and Miss Phyllis MacGowan was at the organ. For the theme of his morning sermon Rev. J. A. Swetnam, the pastor, took "Christmas Bells." Four members were received into church fellowship at the close of the evening service.

DANIEL'S CLOSE WEDNESDAY ALSO

In accordance with the traditional custom of London House, the store will be closed both Christmas Day and Wednesday, or Boxing Day, as it is known in England, and there considered the biggest holiday of the year.

This custom affords an extra holiday to the staff after the Christmas rush.

Big Concert-Smoker.

Commercial Travellers Concert-Smoker, Friday evening, Dec. 28, at 8 o'clock in the Assembly Hall of the Telephone Building, 26 Prince William street. Excellent musical programme—refreshments and address by the Hon. P. J. Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick.

THE CHRISTMAS VACATION

The Christmas vacation is at hand, and the question will be "Where do we go from here?" The first and obvious answer is, of course—Home. But just because it is winter is no reason why you should not make a holiday out of your vacation. No longer are holidays confined to the summer months; nowadays people travel almost as much for pleasure in winter as in summer, and in equal comfort. And there is just as much variety, for while some prefer the keen cold snap of our Canadian winters and their glorious winter sports, others incline to the warm and sunny climes of the South. And while some like to spend their Christmas at home, others will be found that like to spend it away from home. If your home is somewhere along the line of the Canadian Pacific, it is already an old friend. You know that it has the best service in Canada. It's the greatest habit one can acquire—to always travel Canadian Pacific.

FIDO HAD A CONSCIENCE.

Grimby, Eng.—A joint of beef fell to the ground in front of a butcher shop here. A passing dog stopped, looked around shyly and trotted to the door to make sure the coast was clear. Then he returned to the meat. Evidently, he surveyed it. There was an obvious struggle between instinct and training. But finally, with great effort, poor Fido shook off the voice of the tempter and trotted sadly away.
