LOCAL NEWS

THE ONAWA WRECK. H. C. Grout, general superintendent of the C. P. R. New Brunswick district, left last night for Augusta, Me., to attend a hearing by the Public Utilities Commission of Maine into the recent train wreck at Onawa.

SERIOUS CASE. Beside some postponed cases being resumed in the police court this morning, two cases for the afternoon were taken up. A man was charged with committing rape. The case was tried and disposed of in camera and no information was given out. The accused was arrested by Sergeant Power and Detective Donahue.

BRICKLAYERS WAGES. It was announced by a prominent member of the Bricklayers' Union today that the union has not discussed the matter of increased wages, and that there could be no action along that line without three months notice to employers of intention to apply for increase. It had been published that the union had unanimously decided on an increase from 90c. to $1 an hour, effective on May 1. He said that was not true.

PRENTICE BOYS' OFFICERS. At a regular meeting of the King Edward Lodge, No. 29, held in their hall, West St. John, last evening, the following officers were installed by the district deputy grand master, L. E. Robinson: Master, A. L. Belyea; D. master, C. Price; recording secretary, E. C. Clark; financial secretary, H. Sellen; treasurer, W. J. Smith; D. of C., Wm. Belyea; inner guard, H. A. Adams; outside guard, Chas. Dykeman; lecturer, J. Fillmore; assistant lecturer, W. Davis; standing committee, W. J. McLeod, E. McLeod, Gordon, S. Sewell, H. Lowe; trustees, C. Price, A. Belyea and E. O. Duffee; pianist, Wm. Davis. A very enjoyable evening was spent with music and refreshments. The lodge starts on the year 1920 in good circumstances.

THE GIN BOTTLE SURVIVED TO BE COURT EVIDENCE

Thrown Fifty Feet But Remains Intact—More Liquor Cases Today.

Edward Gorman, arrested last night about 11:15 by Inspectors McAinch, Merryfield and Kerr, in Sheffield street, was charged with having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling. When being arrested, it was said, he threw a bottle of gin about fifty feet away, but did not break it, so with the material evidence confronting him he pleaded guilty and is said to have privately told the inspectors who supplied him with the liquor. As a result of this information, an investigation is being made on another liquor case which will likely arise. The accused was remanded.

One man charged with drunkenness also pleaded guilty and gave the inspectors the necessary information for the apprehension of the seller. He was also remanded.

The case against Thomas Petrie, on suspicion of breaking and entering the store of Sidney Isaacs, Mill street, and also with stealing a camera, valued at $18, the property of H. J. Graham, Salvation Army Military Hostel, Prince William street, was resumed. Mr. Graham identified the camera as his. Joseph Gilbert, who keeps a second-hand store at 24 Mill street, told of having an entry in his book dated Dec. 21, which states that Thomas Petrie, Salvation Army Military Hostel, Prince William street, sold a camera bearing the same number as the article produced in court. He identified the accused. Detective Biddiscombe said that he secured the camera. The case was postponed.

A case against Thomas Grant, charged with stealing moccasins from the store of Max Sheeter, was again postponed.

A case against George Drew, on suspicion of breaking and entering the store of Sidney Isaacs, Mill street, was also postponed.

MARINE NOTES

The S. S. Monensio Primo arrived off the island last night from Louisburg. She is consigned to J. T. Knight & Co. The cargo of the schooner Two Sisters, which grounded near Quaco recently and was floated and towed to St. Martins, is being salvaged. So far as is known all of the cargo will be saved. It is not known just how badly the schooner is damaged.

The Royal Mail Steam Packet liner Chignecto sailed this morning for Halifax en route to Bermuda and the British West Indies. She had a large general cargo. More cargo and passengers will be taken on in Halifax. The S. S. Aspen docked at McLeod's wharf this morning and will begin taking on cargo.

The C. P. O. S. liner Empress of France is expected to arrive here tomorrow night or Thursday from Liverpool with a large passenger list and some general cargo and mails.

The C. P. O. S. liner Grampian is due here about the end of the week. She is coming from Havre and has 1106 Chinese on board.

The S. S. George, which arrived here a couple of days ago and anchored outside the island, will be towed into port this afternoon and will anchor in the stream, where she will discharge ballast.

ALL CIVIL CASES ON DOCKET OF CIRCUIT COURT

Raymond vs. Thomas to Be Taken Up Tomorrow — Malicious Prosecution is Alleged.

Eleven cases were entered upon the docket of the January sitting of the Circuit Court which opened this morning at eleven o'clock in the court room in Germain street, with His Honor Judge Germain presiding. Seven are jury cases and four non-jury. Aside from the roll-call of the jury, and the entering of the docket noting further was done this morning the court adjourning until 10 a. m. tomorrow when the case of Raymond vs. Thomas will be proceeded with. This is a case arising out of the arrest of Mrs. Kenneth Raymond some time ago on a charge laid by the firm of F. S. Thomas and the defendant in that instance has now become plaintiff with a charge of malicious prosecution against Mr. Thomas.

In the case of the King vs. Samuel Melnick, a recognisance had been taken by the defendant for his appearance at this session of the circuit court. D. Mullin, K. C., asked for his discharge as he has been informed by Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., that it was not the intention of the crown to proceed further. The matter was set for tomorrow morning.

It is interesting to note that there are no criminal cases to be tried at this sitting of the court, all those on the docket being civil suits. The docket is as follows:—Raymond vs. Thomas, D. Mullin, K. C.; Mahoney vs. Rubin, J. A. Barry. This case was set over until the next session.

Harris vs. Garson, R. A. Davidson, Fletcher vs. Wetmore, G. H. V. Belyea, Worden vs. Worden, G. H. V. Belyea, Driscoll vs. Pugsley, J. F. H. Teed, Boyle vs. Killam, J. A. Barry.

Non-jury. Wheaton vs. Sheffield Coal Co., F. R. Taylor, K. C.; Bradbury vs. Waterbury, M. B. Innes, Smith vs. Tennant, E. P. Raymond, Anderson vs. Burley, D. Mullin, K. C.

Those summoned for the petit jury were:—Herbert B. Belyea, James G. Cooper, Charles T. Jones, Robert Caples, Frederick H. Johnston, John F. Callinan (sick), Robert H. Foster, Fred W. McAlary, Frank B. D. Hopkins, William S. Clark (sick), Joseph W. Doody, William A. George, H. McLaughlin, William P. Harrington, Harold A. Allison (absent), Wellington H. Dunham (absent), John A. Kennedy, Henry B. Coleman, George O. Fowler, Patrick J. Reardon and Stephen S. McAvity.

BORN IN ST. JOHN

Wm. A. Nelson Passes Away in Bangor.

(Bangor Commercial.) This William A. Nelson, for twenty years an Associated Press operator with the Bangor Daily News and for four years up to his illness a year ago, traveling freight agent for the Bangor & Aroostook railroad, died in St. Barnabas Hospital, Woodstock, Saturday morning.

Mr. Nelson was born in June, 1862, in St. John, N. B. He came to Bangor forty years ago, and with the late W. L. Miller, of the firm of Rice & Miller, Union street, was one of the first telegraph office here, then in charge of the late Charles H. Bliss, as an operator.

Mr. Nelson worked for the Western Union telegraph company and then went to the Bangor Whig and Commercial as Associated Press operator when it was located on the site now occupied by the Eastern Trust & Banking Company, later transferring to the Bangor Daily News as Associated Press operator. He was there for about twenty years, leaving five years ago to take up his duties as traveling freight agent for the Bangor & Aroostook railroad until a year ago, when he slipped on the ice at Fort Kent and broke one of the vertebrae of his spine.

Mr. Nelson was a devoted family man, but his summer had so far recovered that he was able to take up his duties with the B. & A., being obliged, however, after two months to give them up on account of a relapse, and at Thanksgiving time he was taken to Portland for treatment.

Mr. Nelson was liked by a host of friends, popular everywhere with his brothers in the telegraph profession and with newspaper men with whom he was associated. He was of an unusually genial disposition and his death means loss to many. He was an expert operator, always reliable and it is said that he never made a mistake in his work because of illness. He received treatment at hospitals in New York and his case had been in the hands of the best physicians in the country, at various periods of treatment.

Mr. Nelson is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary A. Nelson, a daughter, Marion, wife of Dr. H. C. MacMahon, of Brewer; a grandson, George MacMahon, jr.; his father, James Nelson, of Petticoke, N. B., and three sisters, Miss Eva of Petticoke, Miss Annie of Bangor, and Mrs. Ada Edmunds of Bangor, and a brother, J. Walter of Harford, Conn.
