STEAMERS COLLIDE AT MOSS GLEN WHARF

Prospective Passengers Knocked Into Water by Race Between Premier and Hampton—Later Aground, But Come off All Right

Passengers on the steamers Premier and Hampton had a few exciting moments at Moss Glen this morning. Both vessels were making for the wharf there, and the Premier had the right of way. The Hampton, however, took the inside berth in an effort to cut out the Premier. The latter touched the wharf first, but was then collared by the Hampton. A man who was on the wharf stepped on board the Premier when she touched the wharf but as she was quickly pushed away he went over backwards into the water. The Premier kept on going, and he was left to be fished out by other men on the wharf. A passenger on the Premier who threw a rope and began paying it out discovered that it was not fast and it went overboard. The Hampton meantime had touched bottom as a result of her movements, but came off all right. The man who went overboard was smoking, and after he had escaped from his perils the pipe was still firmly held in his teeth. If the race between the steamers was to get that passenger, the Hampton got him. But some of the passengers were somewhat frightened by the encounter.

IDENTIFY MAN KILLED ON I. C. R. AT MONCTON

Gave His Name to Boarding House Keeper as Allen McCullum of Bangor—Two Thefts Reported—Moose Destroying Crops

Moncton, Aug 7.—(Special)—The victim of the unfortunate accident Thursday morning on the I. C. R., has at last been identified by a boarding house keeper, named O'Brien. Deceased was at his home about a week ago and gave his name as Allen McCullum, Bangor, Maine. The body was buried here today. E. C. Stevens, a gold watch, a suit of clothes, two top shirts, and a raincoat. Sgt. Atkins, accompanied by a squad of policemen, raided a house on Steadman street at three o'clock yesterday morning. The police arrested one woman and three men. They will be charged with being inmates of a disorderly house. George Street reported to Chief Rideout yesterday some one had entered his house the evening before and stolen a gold watch, a suit of clothes, two top shirts, and a raincoat. The police say they are going to put a stop to thieving and expect to make an arrest in the case today. Herbert Chapman, of Scotch Settlement, about twelve miles from the city, reported to Chief Rideout Saturday that a moose was destroying his crops, and he asked the chief for a permit to shoot the animal. The chief referred him to the game warden. Chapman states that the moose has destroyed half of his crop and he would like to save what is left.

SEVERAL CASES IN POLICE COURT

Charge of Illegal Liquor Selling Against Sheffield Street Woman—$20 Fine for Assaulting Father—S. K. Cohen in Court

In the police court this morning Gilbert Lanchner, William Doherty, Charles Keams and Wilfrid Pagen were each fined $8 or 2 months in jail on the charge of drunkenness and Leonard Campbell was reprimanded on the same charge. Charles McKinon was fined a like amount for drunkenness and was also fined $20 or two months in jail for assaulting his father in the street. Samuel K. Cohen was before the court charged with keeping a cow on his premises in Summer street and also for not having proper sanitary conveniences in his factory in Dock street. Factory inspector Kennedy gave evidence on the latter charge and the matter was allowed to stand over until Wednesday morning.

James Kennedy, a resident of Summer street gave evidence about the cow. Cohen denied that the animal was not properly kept and promised the court that he would have a veterinary examine the animal to see whether it was sick or not. The board of health officials will also make an examination of the premises and report whether they are in a sanitary condition or not. The case will be resumed on Wednesday.

The case of Jeremiah Daley, charged with stealing $10 from Andrew Hinzburg, a Russian, will be continued tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Robert Butler, a driver for the Canadian Express Co., was in court to answer to the charge of furious driving in Princess street on Friday. He denied the charge and the matter was allowed to stand over until tomorrow.

Margaret Hodges, a colored resident of Sheffield street was before the court charged with selling liquor on her premises on Friday night last without a license. Geo. A. Henderson conducted the case for the prosecution and Daniel Mullin, K. C., appeared for the defense. Thomas Featon, arrested for being drunk in Sheffield street on the night in question testified that he went into a store in Sheffield street and purchased some beer. He could not identify the defendant as the woman who gave him the beer, but stated that a colored woman served him. He could not swear that it was the defendant's house he was in, but had only been in the one house.

Policeman Ross told of seeing Featon in Mrs. Hodges' house on the night in question and told of making the arrest. The defendant went to the stand and denied the charge. She stated that she had no beer license but sold beer. No liquor was on her premises at all, and she never saw Featon in her house on Friday night. The case was adjourned until this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

TRAIN ARRANGEMENTS

Through Trains Will Stop at Rothesay, Anagance and Penobscuit Stations for Those Wishing to Attend Liberal Convention at Sussex

For the information of those who propose to attend the Liberal convention for Kings-Albert at Sussex Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m., it may be stated that the arrangements have been made for the Atlantic express (commonly called the C. F. Express) to stop at Rothesay station on that day, and also for the Pacific express coming west to stop at Anagance and Penobscuit stations. Those attending the convention and living near the smaller stations between St. John and Hampton, can take the suburban train that leaves St. John at 12:15 and go as far as Hampton, where they can board the Atlantic express for Sussex. Returning from Sussex, those attending the convention can take the Halifax day train for St. John at 7:40 and the Montreal express for the east at 7:57 p.m.

STONE THROWING IN WATERLOO STREET

A resident of Waterloo street, who was returning from church last evening, together with other members of the congregation, was struck by a stone thrown by a group of young men who had assembled at the corner of Brindley and Waterloo streets. He was struck in the mouth and quite painfully injured.

Enquiries instituted by The Times today show that for some time past it has been the custom of these young fellows to gather at this spot and to throw stones at passersby. In many cases the offenders are exceedingly dangerous that the police shall give the locality strict attention, day and night, for a reasonable period.

Persons who may be subjected to any further nuisance are requested to report the facts at once.

RETURNS TO PROVINCE TO FOUND HOSPITAL

James Dunn, a former New Brunswicker, but now of London, Tag, arrived in the city on today's Boston train. Mr. Dunn is one of the many natives of this province who have made a success abroad.

He is a member of the banking house of Dunn, Fisher & Co., and is en route to Bathurst, his former home, where he will open a hospital that has been built through his generosity. He had little of this world's goods when he left his North shore home many years ago, but with abundance of ability he has accumulated considerable money, largely it is said through transactions in Argentine lands.

CITY DEPARTMENT DOES GOOD WORK IN COUNTY

The West side fire department was called out this morning about 9:30 o'clock for a fire in the house of Mrs. Major on the Woodville Road. The house is situated in the county, but the firemen went to work and did very effective work. It required twenty joints of hose to reach from the hydrant to the house. The fire was contained by the city of the house, it being
