NARROW ESCAPE OF FIRE VICTIMS

Three families homeless after Sunday afternoon blaze.

Three families were rendered homeless by a fire yesterday afternoon in what is known as "Mildred Terrace" in Rockland road. Several people had to be assisted from the building by members of the Salvage Corps and firemen; several lives were endangered when two chimneys fell to the street which was crowded with spectators, and W. I. McLean, a fireman, residing in City road had his hand badly torn on a hook. The blaze was discovered by children of John McIvor shortly before seven o'clock and the alarm given at once from Box 318. The flames spread rapidly and the fire lasted about two hours. The upper portion of the house was completely destroyed. The damage to the building was said to have been covered by insurance. The building situated near the corner of Crane avenue, consisted of three semi-detached houses, one owned and occupied by B. V. Millidge, and another owned by Miss Louise C. Brown and occupied by the family of Frank C. Cooper and the third owned by Rev. A. J. Millidge and occupied by John McIvor. Mrs. Frank Cooper, who had been ill recently, was affected by the excitement and had to be removed to her neighbor's house. E. T. P. Sheehan, formerly resident engineer for the public works department, who resided with his son-in-law, B. V. Millidge, also was assisted to the house of a neighbor.
