REFUSE TO LEVY RATES; WILL GO TO JAIL FIRST

A Spirited Demonstration Against Certain Taxes in Poplar District of London.

London, Aug. 29.—(Canadian Press)—Labor leaders comprising a majority of the municipal council of Poplar, one of the boroughs of Metropolitan London, recently refused to levy certain rates and in a high court judgment delivered against them it was indicated that unless they reconsidered their decision they would be imprisoned. Yesterday there was a great demonstration near the Tower of London in which all the east end boroughs participated in support of the Poplar members' decision not to levy the rates. The huge procession was headed with a banner inscribed "Poplar councillors are determined to go to prison to secure equalization of rates for the poorer boroughs." Speakers urged the east end people to begin a huge no rent, no rates, no taxes strike. They said the movement was the laborer's highest victory ever won by the cause. The councillors re-emphasized that they would not levy the rates and would cheerfully go to prison. It is expected that they will be re-arrested this week.

AMERICAN TRADE WITH THE TROPICS

A Remarkable Increase Since the Year 1914, Both in Exports and Imports.

Increasing popularity of United States manufacturers in the tropics is a striking characteristic of world trade development in recent years. The value of our exports to the tropics, according to the National City Bank, jumped from $380,000,000 in the year before the war, to $1,010,000,000 in the fiscal year just ended. Exports to the tropics in the 1914-1921 period increased 300 per cent. While those to the other parts of the world increased only 150 per cent. in the same period.

"This big gain in our exports to the tropics," adds the bank's statement, "is especially interesting in view of the fact that the bulk of the tropical imports consists of the class of goods which we especially desire to sell."

The tropical world went limited quantities of meats and four and coal, fully three-fourths of their imports from the United States consist of manufactures, a large part of which they formerly drew from Europe.

"That this big increase has come to stay is evidenced by a close analysis of our official trade figures of the period 1914-1921. The tropical world consists, stated in very round terms, of all North America south of the United States; all South America except Argentina and limited areas of Chile; all Asia except China, Japan and Siberia (and in fact a part of China is sub-tropical); all of Oceania except New Zealand and the southern part of Australia and all of the continent of Africa. To the areas thus roughly outlined, we sent in 1914 only 15 per cent. of our exports and in 1921 about 25 per cent. of the greatly increased total, while, as above indicated, the actual value of the merchandise sent to the tropics increased 300 per cent. and that to the temperate zone was increasing but 150 per cent."

"On the import side the figures are equally striking. Our total imports from the tropical world, as above roughly outlined, grew from $620,000,000 in 1914 to $1,010,000,000 in 1921, an increase of 160 per cent. while our imports from the other parts of the world increased less than 60 per cent. in the same period. Merchandise from the tropics formed 32 per cent. of our imports in 1914 and 46 per cent. in 1921. The grand total of our trade with the tropics, including both imports and exports to that area, showed an increase of 233 per cent. in the 1914-1921 period, while that with the non-tropical world increased but 110 per cent."

Insurance for THE PARCEL POST

Insurance of parcel post packages mailed in Canada for delivery in the United States is possible on and after Oct. 1, 1921, according to an announcement in the Post Office Weekly Bulletin of August 27. The new system is being inaugurated in order to relieve the congestion in the registration system and to facilitate the handling of registered letter mail and, consequently, the registration of parcel post packages will be discontinued on the same date in the United States.

Parcels conforming to the postal regulations may be insured up to $100 against loss, theft or damage while in the custody of the Canadian postal service. The fee for insurance fees will be as follows: Three cents for insurance not exceeding $5; six cents for insurance exceeding $5 and not exceeding $25; twelve cents for insurance exceeding $25 and not exceeding $50; thirty cents for insurance exceeding $50 and not exceeding $100.

Parcels for insurance must be handed in at a post office or given to a rural mail carrier. A receipt will be given the sender, which must be produced in case a claim is made later. Claims must be made by the sender to the postmaster at the office of mailing within six months of the date of posting of the parcel.

Indemnity will not be given for a parcel containing eggs, fish, fruit, meat, vegetables, glass, liquids, etc., or any article of an exceptionally fragile nature. Indemnity will not be given for loss of coin or bank notes nor for damage to articles of a fragile nature unless the parcel is conspicuously marked with the words "Fragile with care."

IMMIGRATION INTO CANADA

Improvement of 27 per cent Over the Year's Figures to April, 1920.

The August issue of Commerce Monthly, published by the National Bank of Commerce in New York, says that a recovery of immigration into Canada amounting to twenty-seven per cent. over the previous year occurred in the year ended March 30, 1921. Of a total of 148,000 immigrants 74,000 were British, 48,000 came from the United States and 26,000 from other countries.

Emigration from the United States to Canada increased steadily from 2,400 in 1917 to the high point of 139,000 in 1919. The flow was checked at the outbreak of the war by the prospect of conscription and heavy war taxation, and later by the increased prosperity of the United States. An even greater reduction followed the armistice and the present recovery is but a small advance toward resumption of the pre-war movement.

American immigrants are eminently desirable, not only because they are assimilated without difficulty, but because they are so much alike in the two countries, but because they are on the average wealthier than the settlers from any other country. It is estimated by the Department of Immigration and Colonization that the American settlers in 1920 brought with them wealth averaging $372 per capita. It is estimated that the British immigrants before the recent emigration brought with them an average of $100.

WHAT SCHOOL BOOKS COST THE PUPILS

The advance in the price of school books is a practical demonstration to the public of the heavy expense which the provincial government incurred during the last two years in an endeavor to keep down the cost to the public of the books by the public. In other words the government had to pay $15,000 deficit for school books. This year the cost of the books has increased and the government has arranged to sell the school books at cost price, exactly.

The actual figures of the increased cost to the public are given in the following table, and the percentage of the increase.

Books—	Percentage increase	Cost to pupil, 1921, as compared with 1920.
First Primer	13	7c.

The cost of books for the pupils as they enter each grade is not so alarming as the whole list might indicate and, where there are several children in the family and school books are handed on to the child next in age, one set of books is sufficient for the family unless the children are somewhat hard on books and the family is an extensive one.

The whole cost of books needed from grade one to grade eight is $10.08.
