A PLACE FOR THE TOURIST.

The Nova Scotia Central Runs Through a Magnificent Piece of Country and is a Fine Road.

A well known manufacturer of this city who has recently returned from a trip through Nova Scotia speaks in the highest terms of some of the places which he visited. Of the Nova Scotia Central railroad he has many good words to say. This road is thoroughly equipped, with steel rails, steel bridges, safety switches, and a number of magnificent travelling cars. The road is well ballasted and the stations are excellent in every respect, having in most cases solid granite and cement walls. In some places piers have been built under the projecting roof which exhibit the many varities of native rock.

The cars on the N. S. Central are beautifully fitted up and are supplied with every convenience and comfort for the passenger. At Bridgewater, besides an elegant station, are situated the machine shops, the tank house and the coal sheds. The locomotives used on the railway are of the Rodgers manufacture, and of the best quality. It is the intention of the company to extend their road from Middleton to the Bay of Fundy. It passes close to the celebrated Nictau mines now being operated by the Londonderry Iron Works, and, after being taken to the Bay of Fundy will be connected with St. John, Parrsboro and Londonderry. Such connections would not only be conducive to trade, but would greatly facilitate the mining operations along the route.

The gentleman who gives the GAZETTE this interesting information was shown through the premises at Bridgewater by Mr. C. O. Foss, superintendent of the road, and Mr. Geo. W. Bedford, general manager, and he speaks highly of the treatment he received at the hands of these officials. It is to their intelligent management, and that of Mr. Wade, another official, that the road owes much of its prosperity.

The N. S. Central runs through the beautiful little town of Lunenburg, which will compare most favorably with any of the New England towns. It contains fine buildings, churches and schools, and has a fleet of vessels equal to any on the continent for fishing on the banks of Newfoundland. Indeed Lunenburg bids fair to surpass even Gloucester of the United States.

Bridgewater, also, has a water terminus and is a magnificent spot for tourists, and the view from Doyle's hotel is the finest view in Nova Scotia. The LaHave river in this section is a great salmon spot, and hundreds of Americans visit there annually.

Without a doubt a couple of months trip through this part of Nova Scotia would prove a most enjoyable one, for the scenery is grand, the climate excellent, and the chances for fishing and shooting good.

The Coming Dramatic Attraction.

Mr. W. S. Harkins has surrounded himself with a capable company, for his season of a week in St. John. Some of them are from the Madison Square Theatre, one from Daly's Theatre, and others out of companies that have been playing standard attractions the past season. The leading lady is Miss Grace Huntington, a handsome and talented actress, who was a member of the company in support of Wilson Barrett and Miss Eastlake; Miss Jessie West, sonbrette, Miss Helen Creswick, Miss May Pierce, and the child actress, Marguerite Fields, a prominent member of Daly's Theatre New York, also Mrs. W. S. Harkins. Then the gentlemen are, Messrs. W. S. Harkins, W. T. Melville (comedian), Chas. G. Greene, H.B. Bradley, Lindsay Hurst, Norman Campbell, E. L. Snader, Walter Hale.

The opening play will be the great drama "The Golden Giant," with which Mr. Harkins and several of the company are familiar as they supported Mrs. McKee Rankin recently in it. The piece is by Clay M. Greene and is a very strong one, with a splendid comedy element. This is to be the attraction for Monday and Tuesday. The two following nights will be devoted to Sir Wm. Young's great production, "Jim the Penman," and it is safe to say that no stronger play has been written of late years; there is not a weak spot in the whole dialogue and a good proof of its popularity is found in the fact that it occupied the stage at the Madison square theatre, New York for six months. Friday and Saturday, "Unknown" (a companion play to "Passion's Slave" given here by Mr. Harkin's four years ago) is to be presented. These dramas are new to St. John and Mr. Harkins has purchased the right to use them from the owners. The season will consist of seven performances, including a matinee on the holiday.

A Climax Reached.

Mr. B. H. Appleby removed all his ice loading apparatus from Rodney wharf, this morning to Sand Point, Carleton, where he will in future load vessels. Arrangements have been made with the New Brunswick Railway for the loading of the ice, and work will likely be started on Friday on the first vessel. Mr. Appleby is determined not to pay the top wharfage, which the lessee of Rodney wharf, Mr. Samuel Wilson, wishes to charge. He is of the opiniou that as he brings so much business to the city and to Mr. Wilson, that side wharfage is sufficient, and now, under the circumstances unless a commission is given him by Mr. Wilson on the side wharfage he will not come to any terms.

Mr. Appleby at present has several vessels, lying at different wharves in the harbor, waiting for their cargoes.

The change which was made this morning, will affect Mr. Wilson rather badly, as he will not only lose top wharfage but side wharfage as well.

Among the Shipping.

Ship John Harvey at Philadelphia from Barbadoes, reports on May 6, in lat. 34.23, lon. 73.31, was struck by a whirlwind which carried away mizzenmast with all yards and sails attached. All the yards on the mainmast, but mainyards and sails, were also carried away; also lost two boats and sustained deck damages.

Bark Emilie, was wrecked at New Zealand, on March 26., Capt. Small, of Maine, and seven men were lost and four men saved. The captain and seven men were drowned by the swamping of a boat. The captain went down with £900 in his pocket. The survivors declare that the vessel was unseaworthy, as on the voyage from San Francisco to Melbourne the crew were at the pumps all the time.

Schooner Maggie J. Chadwick started to load piling at Rodney slip, Carleton this morning. Several other vessels have just finished loading.

PELEE ISLAND CO.'s Grape Juice is invaluable for sickness and as a tonic is unequalled. It is recommended by Physicians, being pure, unadulterated juice of the grape. Our agent, E. G. Scovil, Tea importer, No. 13 North Wharf, can supply our Brands of Grape Juices by the case of one dozen.

Provincial Points.

A large exodus is in progress from Newfoundland to Canada.

Few of the Carleton Co. farmers have commenced spring operations.

The Lunenburg Argus will be published daily until the local election takes place.

The S. P. C. has sent a Springhill woman to jail for two months for neglect of her children.

N. Doherty, of the Mansard House, Petitcodiac, is to go to jail for a third violation of the Scott Act.

The sch. J. Tilton from Charlottetown arrived at Arichat yesterday with her cargo of hay on fire. The vessel will be a total loss.

The Norwegian bark Esra, from Buenos Ayres has arrived at in charge of the mate, Captain Neilson and one man having died of smallpox during the voyage.

The case of John Bartlett, a magistrate of Terrence Bay, Halifax Co., charged with forgery and immoral conduct, is under investigation by a commission.

A young man named O'Hara was drowned in the mill pond at St. Martins yesterday morning. He was employed in Nugent's mill and the sole support of his mother.

There are many complaints within the the last few days from shopkeepers and others who have had Bank of Prince Edward Island, and Acadia Bank (of Liverpool) bills passed on them for good currency.—Halifax Herald.

Says the Truro Headlight: A little child, daughter of the late J. J. Blackburn, aged three years, ate some matches last Monday week at its home, Upper Brunswick street, while the mother was absent and died on Thursday.

The Queen Hotel's express waggon went over Corbett's wharf at 10.30 this morning, dragging the horse and driver, Wm. Goldenstein, with it. Goldenstein was rescued with much difficulty; and it required nearly an hour to get the horse and waggon on terra firma.—Acadian Recorder.

A despatch from St. Pierre, Miq., May 10, reports that Capt Herman Chetwynd, of sch. H. S. Woodruff of that port had been knocked overboard and drowned. He sailed from Gloucester for several years, and was at one time master of schr. Nellie M. Davis. He belonged at Woods Harbor, N. S.

The School Trustees.

The Board of School Trustees met last evening. The application of Miss H. M. Clark to be placed on the staff of teachers was noted. The report on teachers and schools was submitted and adopted. It recommended that after the current year the grading examinations be held in April and the transfers made May 1st; that Misses M. B. Shaw. M. Wilson and B. G. Thompson be appointed assistants in overcrowded departments in Leinster street, Victoria and Charlotte street schools; that pupils of standard 1, 2 and 3 be not detained for purposes of punishment, and pupils of other standards for not more than 30 minutes after the close of school for the day, and that in future no general notice of close of contract be sent to teachers at end of term.

The report of the committee on real estate and buildings making the following recommendations was also submitted and adopted:—That a telephone be placed in the office of the school board; that the committee be empowered to make whatever repairs may be deemed necessary [illegible] be erected on the Richmond side of the Centennial school similar to the one erected on the Brussels street.

The board will commence an official visit to the schools on Tuesday, 20th inst.

Notice to Mariners.

New Bedford, Mass, May 12—The Vineyard Sound lightship drifted from her moorings on Saturday at 12.30 p. m. the cause being the breaking of a shackle pin in the anchor chain. The vessel was put under sail, headed for this port and arrived without accident off Clark's Point, where she anchored. Sunday morning Captain Thompson telegraphed for the government stmr Verbena to meet him at Sow and Pigs and started under sail for that point, which he will locate as nearly as possible, and wait the arrival of the supply steamer to put the vessel correctly on her moorings. The anchor has been reported to be caught under a rock all winter, and Captain Thompson has asked several times for an investigation, but for various reasons it was postponed.
