We fit testh with out plates and if you desire, we can by a new method, do this work with out resorting to the use of gold crown or unsightly gold bands about the necks of the teeth. No cutting off the network of the teeth. No cutting off the No cut teeth off the teeth. No cut teeth. No	 tragedy of the divided life. When Farwould destroy a man it first separate his forces! It drives him to think on way and act another; it encourag him to seek through outward stimulit tion—whether drink, or riches, or fan—a deceptive and unworthy satisfat tion in place of that true contentme which comes only from unity within No man can be two men successfully. So we sat and said nothing. Whindeed can any man say to another u der such circumstances? As Bobt Burns remarks out of the depths his own experience: "What's done we partly may compute But know not what's resisted." Tve always felt that the best this one man can give another is the wath hand of understanding. And yet which that I should also say something. So ing two men struggling shall I not sist the better?
