

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report

SUMMARY NEWS.

A steel ferry costing $11,960 is to be built in Glasgow for the Halifax and Dartmouth service.

The corner stone of the new Methodist church at Parravon was laid Tuesday with appropriate ceremonies.

James D. Legg, under arrest at Halifax, will be held on the charge of firing the Richmond freight shed and wharves.

At Amherst, Thursday, Judge Morse sentenced F. Moore to two years in Dorchester for stealing jewelry at Springhill.

The more card system of judging will be carried out at the St. John Exhibition in every class that it is possible to manage in that way.

Thursday afternoon, at St. Stephen, a young daughter of Frank Russell was accidentally burned to death.

An extra official Gazette was issued on Tuesday with a proclamation warning Canadians against fitting out a military expedition to aid the Cubans.

Li Hung Chang sailed from Vancouver homeward bound on Monday. He was given a great send-off by his fellow countrymen.

The corner stone of the new St. Dunstan's R. C. Cathedral, Charlottetown, was laid Tuesday by Bishop McDonald.

READ THIS.—Remember our Maritime headquarters, Baptist Book Room, Halifax. All renewals and new orders for the Baptist Union should be sent in.

At Ortonville, Victoria Co., Tuesday, a man named Bean, hired to work by G. Hitehook, Jr., attacked and beat Deputy Sheriff Kupper.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stone celebrated their silver wedding, and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harding the golden wedding.

Mr. Geo. E. Foster's escape from injury at Ottawa the other day was quite narrow. He was riding up town on his wheel and got jammed in between a heavily laden dray and an electric car.

It is said in Montreal that the Grand Trunk Railway has closed a contract with the Allan and Dominion steamship lines to run from Liverpool to Portland, Me.

Mr. Justice Burbridge, in the Exchequer Court, has given a decision in favor of the Canada Sugar Refining Co., by which the government will raise $45,000.

When the tariff on sugar was altered in 1895 the company had a cargo on its way to Montreal.

In securing special attractions for their show, the public is assured that the St. John Exhibition Association has been most careful to select only those to which no possible moral objections can be made.

Parents can send their children to take in every detail of the show without feeling any alarm as to their being anything indecent or improper for them to see.

The whole idea of the exhibition is for instruction and amusement. These elements will be there in large quantities for the appreciative mind.

Correspondence of the Morning Times: Mrs. J. A. Warren, of Koina River, appears to be having a very singular experience.

Some months ago she had her upper teeth extracted for the purpose of having a plate of artificial teeth replace them. Some time after the teeth were extracted she was attacked with what appeared to be neuralgia in the face.

However, it has turned out that nature, jealous of the success of the dentist, had undertaken to beat him out of at least one customer and is providing the lady with a brand new set of natural teeth.

While it is not uncommon to hear of old people cutting more or less of a thatched roof, that of Mrs. Warman is only twenty years of age gives her case a position of great interest.

The Republican plurality in Maine was 48,241.

Francis J. Child, of Cambridge, professor of English literature at Harvard College, one of the most famous instructors of the university, died on Friday, aged 71.

The American Literary Exchange.

This enterprise, recently started in New York will interest a vast number of readers. It undertakes to place, at the nominal cost of one cent to three cents a day, better reading facilities within reach of every home, anywhere in the United States.
