Waiter's Daughter Will Wed a Duke

Mlle. Arlette Dorgere

Paris, April 1.—Or course all the beauties on the Paris stage can't have kingly pouting rich treasures of precious stones at their daily fee. There doesn't seem to be enough kings to go round, being as there are so many fairies and but a limited supply of divine lighters.

So Mlle. Arlette Dorgere, from the very front ranks of the real beauties had to content herself with a mere grand duke. But she is somewhat contented by the knowledge that Grand Duke Boris may succeed to the throne if his father and the little son of the czar shuffle off first.

Arlette was the daughter of a waiter in a low Parisian restaurant. At 12 she went on the stage and is now a star of the first magnitude and the idol of a grand duke.

ROYAL ALBERT HALL--CHRISTIAN MASS MEETING

Which is the True Gospel and What Must Our Creeds Sacrifice in Order to Christian Union? Sermon by Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle

London, April 2.—Pastor Russell addressed the huge Convention at Royal Albert Hall tonight. Few preachers are so well known in Great Britain as he. Many of the leading newspapers, both here and in America, publish his weekly discourses. He took for his text, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ" (Romans 1, 16). He said— Let us approach our subject reverently! With reverence, because many of our creeds are white with centuries. They were the creeds of our fathers and mothers. They must not be handled ruthlessly, unkindly. But we must approach the subject with courage because it is a Christian duty. For long centuries God's people have been divided into sects and parties, separated by creedal fences. At one time they gloried in their differences and destroyed one another in their zeal for what they believed to be the Truth. Now we see more clearly that none of our creeds are without flaw. Now we are willing—yes, glad, to take the truth wherever we find it and to acknowledge the error, though it be our own. The oneness of the Church requires that we should have this courage! The interests of the world demand it! We have come here realizing that the time for covering errors, which we are ashamed, is past; that the time for reverencing God and His Word has come. Whoever thus approaches the subject cannot fail of a blessing from God, in harmony with the Master's prayer: "Sanctify them through Thy Truth; Thy Word is Truth" (John xvii, 17).

Are We Not All Christians? Our topic must be, What is the Gospel of which St. Paul was not ashamed?—the faith once delivered unto the saints—"one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism" (Ephesians iv, 5). The speaker showed that the Roman Catholic Church, in order to unite with others, would need to cut out of her creed everything not found in the Bible—prayers to saints, homage to pictures and images, the sacrifice of the mass, holy candles, holy water, Purgatory, the infallibility of the Pope and the general theory that the clergy alone are the Church and brethren of Christ, and the laity are merely the children of the Church. He acknowledged that so great concession could scarcely be expected at once; that the study of the Bible must precede the attempt to accept it as the only standard of the "faith once delivered to the saints."

The Protestant Episcopal creed next had attention. Little that was objectionable was found. One point alone could cause any hesitancy, he was sure—Apostolic Succession. He urged that Scripture could be found sustaining this theory in clear terms. On the contrary, he gave numerous citations in proof that the twelve Apostles only possessed plenary inspiration and were direct under Divine control—St. Paul taking the place of Judas. These are the twelve foundation stones of the New Testament and the foundation of the holy temple mentioned by St. Peter, the twelve authorized by the Master to bind or to loose from doctrines and practices (Matt. xviii, 18-20).

Election—Foreordination—Predestination. The Westminster Confession, the foundation of the majority of Protestant creeds, distinctly emphasizes the teachings of Brother John Calvin. In all we agree that the words election, predestinated and fore-ordained are Scriptural terms and that a truth must underlie and pervade them. But it will give none of us any pain to repudiate entirely the peculiar definitions attached to these words by Brother Calvin. Surely we are all prepared to deny that a God of Justice, Wisdom, Love and Power fore-ordained and predestined from before the foundation of the world, should elect the "elect" to eternal torment! If we cannot all agree as to what these terms mean, we can unite in denying the atrocious doctrines of the past which so greatly dishonored our Creator and ourselves and which have driven so many honest minds away from God and from His Book.

Realizing Wesley's Ideal. Brother John Wesley lived in a time when practically all Christians had accepted Brother Calvin's theory that God had fore-ordained the great mass of humanity to eternal misery. Brother Wesley's heart was tender and sympathetic. He could not believe that his gracious Creator and loving Redeemer could possibly have been guilty of originating and dishonoring such a theory. Wesley's heart and tongue rebelled. Let others preach foreordination to torment for unselected infants, as well as the great multitudes of men, he would not do so. He must preach a God of Love who would not condemn His creatures to torture—at least not without some opportunity to be saved. He could not respect the error respecting hell-poor Brother Wesley was in a sad dilemma. He knew not how any could get to the final place of eternal torment, according to their theory. He would not harmonize such Divine foreknowledge with Divine Love. Why should such creatures as Divine grace could not save from eternal torture be created at all?

Noble Calvin Brother, he preached to the best of his light. Now, with the clearer light upon God's Word, we can see that Brother Wesley and Brother Calvin both contended for Bible truths which they knew not how to harmonize. Now we see that this Gospel Age is the time in which God is calling and drawing and sealing with His Spirit and with the Truth His "very elect," the Bride of Christ, the members of the Body of Christ, the Royal Priesthood. Now we can see also that the free graces, which Brother Wesley realized, must be a part of the Divine Programme, belongs to the coming age. Then all the blind eyes shall be opened. Then all the deaf ears shall be unstopped. Then the knowledge of the Lord shall fill the whole earth as the waters cover the great deep. Then "whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely" (Rev. xxii, 17).

The Gospel Age Harvest. Pastor Russell declares that the signs of the times, in conjunction with the prophecies of the Scriptures, clearly indicate to him that we are living in the "harvest time" of this Age, which is drawing to a close—in the dawning time of the New Dispensation, which will soon be ushered in. He wished his hearers to clearly distinguish between this teaching and the usual custom that the establishment of
