THE STANDARD ST. JOHN. N. B., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1914

ELECTRIC STARTING Sydney Oxberry Traces History and Tells of Events Leading Up to Machine Now in Use-Is Direct Outcome of Cleanliness and Handiness of Electric Light.

EXPERIDENCE WITH PROBLEM

e actuating mechanism nected to the starting motor starts with a to of the pedal or other states of the pedal or other equally certain that a large number of the starts with a to of the pedal or other states of starts to be ar-the motor slowly at mo-mentary disconnection. The problem will appear more clear the insertion of a re-states of a pplying the engine include chain to crankshaft. In these istance is required. To provide for the cir-ne starter remaining the statter termaining the fitting the hencord firing the fitting the index will be the total by inclose the single attached to the engine, the whole to the endice overs which to taily inclose the single attached to the engine, the whole to the siderable as is shown by the existence the motor would be rorough the starter the arbiting of such a shape that it can be readily at attached to the engine, the whole to the machine, and with a magnet casing attached to the engine, the whole to the siderable as possible. All this can be done well by the manifacturer whole the machine, and with a magnet casing attached to the engine, the whole to the siderable as possible. All this can be done well by the manifacturer whole to the main the main the main the main the main the starter the single unit ma-the main the single unit ma-the main the starter the single unit ma-the main the starter the single unit ma-the main the space furnished with attached to the engine, the whole to the side as the number of the single as its the main the main the main the space furnished with attached to the engine, the whole to the be done well by the manifacturer whole be done well by the manifacturer whole attached to the engine, the whole to the space of the single as its the space of the single as the probabile with the main the space of the single as the probabile with the main the space of the single as the space of the single as the space of the single as the Last Horse Driven Bus A Larger Percentage of Vanishes from Streets of Crude Oil Becomes Gas Paris-Street Cars Losing than ever before - Heat Trade. and Compression.

the last week of January, the horse omnibus was taken off the ts of Paris, in favor of motor-in buses, of which the operating

At the same time, a review of the ber of buses in London showed more than 1,000 had been added tu 1912, and that the total figures y very, very close to the 5,000 mark By comparison with the elec street cars, the bus service is a ing rapidly as to income as well numbers, while its competitor is k ing steadily. This would seen to General Supposition that Canadians do not Drive in Winter, Exploded -Cold Not Effective.

is surprising, during the cold to note how many motor cars rucks are hurrying about the city

(By Dr. Leonard Keene Hirsh the oMtor Magazine.)

Automobilists

Take Notice

All Automobile Owners in New Brunswick should become members of the N. B. A. A.

Owners protested against unjust or unreasonable legislation.

Promote and encourage construction and maintenance of good roads.

Promote a fraternal spirit among users of motor vehicles.

T. P. REGAN, President.

Everybody Go to the Motor Show has had no connection mobile industry. But th points in design to be at

FEWER CHANGES IN AUTOMOBILES NOW

Gradually Growing Smaller Year by Year as Perfection is Being Reached-Latest Product Credit to Manufacturers.

The Motor Magazine says: from coal have generally been heavy and it has been found necessary to modify the proportions of fuel and air secondity by the solution of fuel and air opment of a such as the moto on fire values. CARBURATION

uffier on and a back rated 27.2 h.p. with evented) the power

pronto.

This Week NEW ARMOURIES 2 p. m. to 10.30 p. m.

A comprehensive display of 1914 models.

First public opening of the Armouries, the finest building of its kind in Canada.

Grand Military Night Tonight

Musical recitals by talented artists every afternoon. Orchestra every evening.

New Brunswick Automobile Association

ADMISSION 25 CENTS