WELSFORD

The ladies of the Women's Institute are actively getting ready their work (which includes fancy work, jellies and pickles) for the Fredericton exhibition.

The St. John road in the vicinity of Eagle Rock and towards Kings county line has received considerable attention this summer and is now in fine condition. A great deal of labor has been put on that section of the road. The road has been turpined from the Kings county line to Eagle Rock. At Eagle Rock a retaining wall has been built, the hill graded, the road wharfed and widened with the result that the present road is a good one.

It is rumored that as soon as the new bridge at Armstrong's Corner is complete and ready for the use of the public, a prominent man will be invited to come and perform the opening ceremony, and that a picnic will be held at the Corner, the proceeds to be devoted towards the Soldiers' Comfort Fund.

Her Majesty Queen Mary of England, who has always been admired for her good sound sense, has again set a noble example to the women of the Empire in this the greatest of wars. With her own hands Queen Mary has crocheted a number of petticoats which have been sent out to the Canadian Branch of Queen Mary's Needlework Guild. It has been decided to send one petticoat to each woman of the Dominion in the hope that each article will bring five hundred dollars with which to buy materials to make garments for the soldiers in the hospitals. Mrs. Josiah Wood, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor, has consented to direct this work in New Brunswick, and has sent 250 tickets to Mrs. Harry Woods to be disposed of at 25 cents each. As the number of tickets are limited, each lady desirous of being a possible possessor of the coveted garment, should better apply at once, as returns are to be made as soon as possible.

As the number of tickets are limited, each lady desirous of being a possible possessor of the coveted garment, should better apply at once, as returns are to be made as soon as possible.

Her Majesty Queen Mary of England, who has always been admired for her good sound sense, has again set a noble example to the women of the Empire in this the greatest of wars. With her own hands Queen Mary has crocheted a number of petticoats which have been sent out to the Canadian Branch of Queen Mary's Needlework Guild. It has been decided to send one petticoat to each woman of the Dominion in the hope that each article will bring five hundred dollars with which to buy materials to make garments for the soldiers in the hospitals. Mrs. Josiah Wood, wife of the Lieutenant-Governor, has consented to direct this work in New Brunswick, and has sent 250 tickets to Mrs. Harry Woods to be disposed of at 25 cents each. As the number of tickets are limited, each lady desirous of being a possible possessor of the coveted garment, should better apply at once, as returns are to be made as soon as possible.
