HOW LT. JOHNSTON
LOST HIS LIFE

Flying Over Lines When At-tacked By Four Enemy Scouts and Shot Down — Particulars From Major Snow.

In a letter received from Major Wilfred R. Snow of No. 2 Squadron it was stated that Lieut. R. L. Johnston while working over the lines observing the fire of artillery was attacked by four enemy scouts and after a very stout fight on his part was shot down. The machine fell on the enemy side out of view of the ground observer. It is stated that those who saw the fight feel sure that the occupants of the machine were killed instantaneously. The officer also pays a fitting tribute to the young soldier, who was very popular with all who knew him.

Lieut. Johnston was twenty-nine years of age. He is survived by his parents, four brothers, C. Val, in Montreal A. Bruce, P. E. Island Pte. Keith W., with a forestry battalion overseas, and Roland G., now returning home after being wounded at Ypres while serving with the 6th C. M. R., also one sister, Miss Marjorie, at home.

He graduated from McGill University in 1911, after which he took up transportation work in the C. P. R., with which company he made rapid advancement. He crossed overseas with the 4th Siege Battery, in which unit he enlisted in October, 1915. Being wounded at Vimy Ridge, June 8, 1917, he returned to England, and while there passed the examinations for a commission in the royal air force and was gazetted in November, 1917.

ACADIAS DEFEATED
INDIANTOWN GIANTS

Hard Fought Six Innings Last Evening — The Score Was Six to Five.

The Acadias met the Indiantown Giants in a fast six inning game last evening. Moore, a left hander, started the game for the Giants but the Acadias soon got on to him and in the third had piled up five runs while all the Giants could muster off Chestnut's delivery was a lone tally. The Giants then held a conference and Alfie Gorham took up the task of baffling the Acadias. He was some wild at first but soon tightened up and for two innings succeeded in handing out goose eggs to the Frenchmen. In the meantime the Giants started a batting feast and tied the score at the first of the sixth.

In the last of the sixth Jacobson bungled, with one down, Ritchie sacrificed him to second and Chestnut won his own game by driving a double to second, sending "Jack" home with the winning tally.

MONTREAL PRICES
SOME STRONGER

Montreal, May 29.—Today's market was very quiet, but the prices generally firmer than yesterday. Iron sold as high as 59 and Steel of Canada up to 63 and closed fractionally easier.

There was some demand for Asbestos Pld., and after selling at 45, the next sale was at 48. These are the first transactions for some time. Car Pld. was fractionally better at 77. The New York exchange will be closed tomorrow and unless we get some good news from France, it looks as if there would be little doing in this market.

A "LITTLE GRAY HOME" BEHIND THE FIRING LINE.

A "LITTLE GRAY HOME IN THE WEST" ON A ROAD IN NORTHERN FRANCE. The familiar London 'buses' used by the army autohaviour, which was hit by a torpedo from a German submarine gray—a fact which calls forth the above inscription on the side of the conveyance. "The Little Gray Home in the West" is a song that has become popular with English audiences, both in Great Britain and in the western fighting line in France.

MANY JURYMEN WERE SUMMONED
IN COUNTY COURT

In Addition to Regular Panel Over Sixty-Five Men Called — Case of Whitman and Webber Charged With Receiving Stolen Goods Is Being Tried.

Practically the entire sitting of the county court was taken up yesterday in selecting a jury to hear the case of the King vs. Maurice Whitman and Max Webber, who are charged with receiving stolen goods, the property of W.H. Thorne & Company, knowing the same to have been stolen. In addition to the regular panel of twenty-one over sixty-five other jurymen were summoned. Owing to sickness and other reasons quite a large number did not respond. It was found necessary about 4.30 in the afternoon to have a deputy sheriff and a constable go after two men to complete the jury.

The defence exhausted its peremptory challenges and also challenged several for cause.

Owing to the additional list of jurors not having been given over to the defence before the court resumed yesterday, D. Mullin, K. C., on behalf of the defence took objection and asked that the court give the defence time to look over the list. This was granted. Shortly after 5 o'clock G. H. V. Belyea outlined the charges in the indictment for the prosecution. The first witness called by the crown was Alexander Crawford, inspector for the city and county of St. John under the prohibition act. He said that on April 11th he saw Webber at the dock where the Digby boat lands. He was there through information received to search for liquor. The grip from which the liquor was taken was identified by the witness. He said that he found in the suitcase twenty-six bottles of liquor, fourteen knives. He also opened some parcels and found therein some spark plugs, cigarettes and fishing lines. There were also some loose spark plugs in the parcels, but witness could not state how many.

The pipes produced in court resembled the ones seen by the witness at the dock. The witness said that the took charge of the defendant and the parcels and took Webber to the police station. He said that the defendant stated to him that he procured the spark plugs from the same place he got the cigarettes, the store of Maurice Whitman on Union street. The witness said that he held a charge against the defendant for having liquor or other than in his private dwelling.

The witness said that he saw the other defendant, Whitman, on the same morning walking by his store on Union street. He was in the store searching for liquor and was accompanied by Inspector J. H. Ross. He said that two other gentlemen, Mr. Moore and Mr. Day followed him into another room. He said that he picked up a parcel which he thought contained liquor but it contained silver spoons. He identified the spoons produced by the prosecution as the ones he picked up in the store, as
