Rev. Hamilton Wigle In Carleton Church

Principal of Mount Allison Ladies' College Preached Eloquent Sermons at Both Services in Carleton Methodist Yesterday.

The pulpit of Carleton Methodist church was occupied yesterday by Rev. Hamilton Wigle, D. D., principal of Mount Allison Ladies' College, at both services and delighted the large congregations present.

In the morning he spoke on the 23rd Psalm and gave an interpretation of it in the light of David's life and experience. The speaker, who has visited the Holy Land and seen the site where the Psalm is supposed to have been written, the Pool of Solomon, explained the references in the text and then applied it, so far as the interpretation would allow, to modern times.

At the evening service his subject was "Love." He referred to different civilizations of the world, Greek, Roman and British, and stated that Christianity, or Love as taught by Christ, was the crown of all civilizations. He applied it to home, society, church, political and labor difficulties of the times, stating that the application of the Golden Rule, which was only the expression of the teaching of Christ, was the only thing which could bring about a settlement of labor and social difficulties existing today and manifested in the various strikes all over the world.

Collision On Thorne Avenue

East St. John Street Car Collided With Wagon Opposite Thorne Lodge Hall—R. G. Goldsworthy Removed to the Hospital.

A collision last night about 10:30 between an electric car and express wagon, on Thorne avenue, resulted in the demolition of the wagon and a shaking up for the occupants, R. S. Goldsworthy and family. Mr. Goldsworthy was the most severely hurt, but at the General Public Hospital, where he was taken, it was said no bones were broken and he would probably be able to return to his home some time today.

Mr. Goldsworthy, his wife and children also a neighbor, Miss Kerr, had been spending the day at their summer home, Black River Road, and were returning to their city home, 2 White street. When just about opposite Thorne Lodge Hall, Thorne avenue, the bolt holding the shafts dropped out and they dropped to the ground. Mr. Goldsworthy stopped the horse and got out of the wagon, which had come to a stand on the street track, to put the bolt back in place. The East St. John car, in charge of Motorman John Walker and Conductor J. W. Gold, coming over the hill, struck the wagon, knocking down Mr. Goldsworthy and bruising him considerably. Some of the children were thrown by the shock, but fortunately escaped without injury. The ambulance was summoned and Mr. Goldsworthy taken to the hospital, where an examination revealed that no bones were broken.

The spot at which the accident occurred is very dark and the motorman of the car says that he did not see the wagon until too late to avoid striking the vehicle, although he applied the brakes just as soon as he saw it was not moving.

THE YACHT CLUB CRUISE CLOSED

Ten Yachts of the R. K. Y. C. Had Fine Weather During the Cruise Which Finished at Crystal Beach Yesterday.

What was declared to be one of the best if not the very best, of the twenty-four "Happy Days" cruises held by the Royal Kennebec Yacht Club, was brought to a close yesterday.

Ten boats made the cruise, the Louisa, Vagabond, Canada, Roma, Wanderer, Canaan, Anzac, Villan, Grace M., and these under the command of Vice-Commodore Walter Logan, and the main river, starting on Saturday, August 9. Fine weather was enjoyed for the entire cruise and this added much to the pleasure of the event.

Yesterday at Crystal Beach Mr. Savin made a number of films of the boats and the officers in command of the cruise and these will help to make the name of St. John and its famous river better known to the world at large.

Rev. McLeod Harvey At Knox Church

Washington Clergyman Last Evening Told the Great Opportunity the War Has Brought to the Christian Church.

The war has brought to the Christian Church the greatest opportunity in all its history, an unexampled opportunity for extending its mission in the world, and demonstrating its power to help humanity solve its difficulties, said Rev. McLeod Harvey, of Washington, D. C., in the course of an interesting sermon delivered in the Knox Presbyterian Church last evening before a fair midsummer congregation. The speaker said the question now was whether the church would consecrate itself to the war effort, and develop the sources of income, and the spirit of consecration to service which were essential to the many works necessary, while the world was in this state of confusion.

The preacher spoke of the need of Christian effort in India, and said that it was a land of appalling vice, many of which were indicated by the religions of the land. He went on to speak of the Christian virtues as brought out by the war, and the readiness with which the people of all the Allied countries at the call to arms consecrated themselves to war effort, the young men going with high heart to fight the Hun, the others lending money or devoting themselves to the many works necessary, while the women saved food, so that it could be sold to the nations of Europe. On all sides the war had brought out unparalleled effort, and things which before the war would have been regarded as impossible were done as a matter of course.

The preacher in the achievements of the people during the war that they would be competent to carry on the work which lies ready to the hand of the church if they make up their minds to do so, and develop the right spirit of Christian consecration.

Illustrating the wonderful ways of the Almighty, he told a story of a young soldier who was condemned to be shot for desertion. While he was in the guard room the deserter prayed that he be spared the ignominy of being shot at a deserter and be given a chance to die for his King and Country. The Lord heard his prayer, and the Germans sent over a shell that killed the guard, blew the door off his cell, and left him unharmed. Because he went to the front where a battle was raging and saw the Germans advancing in a trench where his own company were caught without ammunition, and were unable to defend themselves or retreat. Then he saw a machine gun, the crew of which had all been killed, and he rushed to the machine gun and turned it on the advancing Germans and mowed them down like corn. He saved his company, but when company of Highlanders came up with ammunition and his comrades went over to thank the man who had saved them they found the deserter beside the machine gun with a bullet through his brain.

Service Between Canada and Levant

Reported - Furness - Withy Company Propose to Establish the New Service—Object is to Develop Steady Canadian Trade.

In connection with the taking over of the William Thomson and Co.'s shipping agencies in the Levant, the Withy Company interest attaches to a report from England that the big British shipping company proposes to establish a new service between Canada and the Levant. The report says that the new line would not be in connection with the transport of goods to Greece and Roumania, but the account of the Canadian government contracts with those countries, but would make calls at ports in the Levant generally with the object of developing a steady Canadian trade. At present it is said the demand for Canadian products would assure good cargoes from Canada, but the prospects for return cargoes in the near future are not considered very bright.

is enrolled the union will ask the city for certain rights. It is stated upon good authority that at a recent meeting it was decided to request the city to allow each man one day leave out of every week and also to give an increase of salaries all round. It had been pointed out that at present the permanent men have to put in long hours of duty. Only three times in the twenty-four hour day are they allowed to leave their stations and that is for meals, and even then should they be asked to leave and the fire alarm sounds the men are obliged to leave and hasten to the station. They are also allowed one and a half hours on Sunday for the purpose of attending church. The men claim that these hours are too long and they intend to ask for a change. It could not be learned what the demands will be made to the Common Council, but it is possible some day this week.

No Reduction In Price of Shoes

While Embargo Placed on Export of Hides Forces Down Price of Leather Manufacturers Hold No Hope of Decline in Prices of Shoes.

While the embargo placed upon the export of hides by the government is forcing down the price of leather in Canada, shoe manufacturers hold out no hope of a decline in the price of shoes, which is probably something they don't hope for anyway. Now they are saying that 60 per cent. of the leather used in Canadian shoe factories must be imported from the States, and they point out that if the Washington government retaliates by placing an embargo on the export of hides to Canada, then the shoe will be the other foot, so to speak, or full realization of the price of leather in Canada will not be able to have shoes, except of very poor quality. The manufacturers say that the Canadian leather is of poor quality, as this being a dairy country, calves are killed very young, and the calf skin is only suitable for the side pieces of shoes. It is admitted that the reduction in the price of leather ought to mean cheaper shoes of the lower grades worn by workmen, but women are advised not to look for lower prices for kid shoes, as all the kids come from the United States. One manufacturer says it is impossible to manufacture sole leather from Canadian hides, but where the paper soles are made is not revealed.

Prince Pictures At Unique Today

All May See the Parade and Prince of Wales at the Unique, Beginning Today's Matinee—First Showing in America.

Movies of Last Week's Big Events

Telegram from New York Says Imperial's Special Pictures of Joy Day and Prince's Visit Are Wonderful—Will Be Shown Today

The British Government official cinematograph (known as kinograms on this side of the Atlantic) depicting the joyous scenes in St. John last Thursday—Soldiers' Joy Day—and the great outburst of patriotism for the Prince of Wales upon his historic landing, have been sent out to be splendid pictures in spite of the rather cloudy weather and latterly the drizzling rain.

Frank Fitzgerald of Imperial Theatre stated he was sent a special messenger to New York with the undeveloped film on Friday night's train, wires that he saw the complete pictures at a private screening in F. Keltie's Palace Theatre, Broadway, Saturday night and that they are wonderfully good. They take in all the big events of the day.

The Kinograph people, who are represented in this territory by H. H. McArthur of the General Program Film Agency, have the film with the aid of a black "changing bag" at 6:35, Friday after they were rushed at great speed from Governor Pugsley's reception.

Mr. Fitzgerald had all his costumes papers ready and on arriving in New York before 5 p. m. Saturday was speeded by taxi to the Kinogram laboratories where the pictures were developed, printed and screened before 9:30 that evening. Fitzgerald hopped the midnight to Boston and arrives today in time for the Imperial's matinee.

The pictures to be shown at the Imperial are to be accepted as official records for Buckingham Palace, the British and New Brunswick governments.
