LOVE'S SANCTUARY.

I opened the door of my heart
And said to my love: Come in,
And here shall be your sanctuary
No matter how grave your sin.

For the ships that sail the sea,
Each have their haven of rest;
And my love will be your anchorage
From a rude world's angry guest.

And straight from my heart's rich bounty,
My kisses will be your fare,
And I shall be yours for ever
With Love as our only care!

Roddie McDonald Lost In Halifax

Mike McTague of New York Trimmed the Glace Bay Fighter in Real Style Last Night—Took Count of Nine Three Times in Second Round.

Halifax, Feb. 17.—(By Canadian Press)—Roddie McDonald of Glace Bay came near being knocked out for the first time in his life by Mike McTague, of New York, at the War Veterans' tournament tonight. He took the count of nine three times in the second round, but was saved by the gong. McTague outpointed him in every round to the eighth, when he sent him to the floor with a right to the jaw. Three times again he took the count of nine, and once more the gong saved him. McTague was tired by his exertions while McDonald staged a wonderful come back, mixing it up again with his opponent. In the eleventh he struck McTague so low as to double him up, though the referee did not believe it was intentional. McTague could not continue, and he was awarded the fight on the foul.

Scott, a featherweight overseas champion, and Blatkie, formerly U. S. N., fought four hard rounds, both going through the ropes to the floor and both had to be carried to their dressing rooms.
