

The International Joint Commission

H. A. Powell of St. John Present at Hearing in Helena, Montana—Interesting Account Taken from Helena Paper.

H. A. Powell and Mrs. Powell of St. John are the Hotel Cassor, Helena, Montana, and the following article from the Helena Daily Independent is of interest to all Canadians. H. A. Powell is a member of the international joint commission on waterways.

"The international joint commission, the tribunal which under a treaty between the United States and Canada decides all boundary questions, will conduct a hearing in this city this afternoon. Those who appear before the commission will be asked to give information which will aid the commission in determining the answer to these two questions:

Purpose of Hearing.
The international joint commission is coming to Montana especially to determine what traffic for a St. Lawrence deep channel this state would have to offer, both incoming and outgoing. Under instructions from the United States and Canadian governments it also will determine approximately what stimulus to the joining of the Great Lakes and the ocean would have upon the development of Montana's resources, commerce and industry. Those who appear before the commission will be asked to give information which will aid the commission in determining the answer to these two questions.

The late Governor R. B. Glenn, a member of the commission, who died in Winnipeg while en route to Montana, declared at the beginning of the St. Lawrence hearings that the project is the greatest movement for the development of the United States and Canada that has ever been undertaken.

The Great Lake-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association. Composed of 14 states, whose commerce would naturally flow through the Great Lakes if the lakes were connected by a deep channel to the sea, is assisting the international joint commission in obtaining the data the two governments have asked it to collect. Charles P. Craig, executive director of this association, is accompanying the commission on its tour.

Present in Five Parts.
In order to put the evidence before the commission in a logical manner, the evidence offered by the tide water association in favor of the St. Lawrence development is being offered in five parts or stories. These "stories" are: First, the story of the west; second, the story of the gateways; third, the story of shipping; fourth, the national consequences in "white coal" power production; and fifth, the national summing up of all of the evidence for the project.

"The story of the west and its needs for better, quicker, cheaper, more certain transportation for its exports will be brought out in the hearings in Montana, the Dakotas, Idaho, Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming and Iowa," Mr. Craig says, "we expect to present here the broad picture of transportation shortage, undeveloped resources, retarded settlement and occupation, delayed credit settlements, hampered production, due to excessive costs of transportation, ill-adjusted rate structures, inability to compete in world markets, depression of local prices because of the handicap against the movement of surplus."

"We expect to show that great as the benefits of the lake system of communication have been to the country, its value will be doubled when the lakes become an arm of the ocean. We intend to show that the benefits of the improvements in the St. Lawrence will be as great as the benefits of the improvements at the Sault. The Sault canal paid for itself five times over in the season of 1918. It saved more than $30,000,000 in freight and the cost for the canal and river channel was but $32,000,000.

The Real Benefit.
"The real benefit, however, is not what this waterway leaves, but what it makes. We have no way of measuring that. The nearest way we can come to measuring it is to guess what the loss would be if the Great Lakes system is blotted out."

"We shall show that an open sea-way will go a long way towards solving the national transportation problem. A quick way of getting some idea of how it will work is by imagining what would happen to the railroad system of the United States if the Great Lakes went out of business. The railroads would be crushed by the load just as they are broken down now by the load which falls upon them for want of the water connection between the lakes and the ocean."

"When practically all of the commerce of Montana eastward will end its rail journey at Duluth, there will be plenty of box cars coming back to Montana from Duluth to handle the Montana commerce, no matter how great its expansion."

RHINELAND STAFF RETURNING TO U. S.

Commissioner P. B. Noyes Has Been Ordered Home—Will Leave in About a Week.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public-Ledger Company.)
Coblenz, June 2.—The American section of the Rhineland High Commission, with Pierrepoint B. Noyes as chief is packing his baggage for return to America, under instructions from the State Department. The decision has caused surprise and some consternation among the Allies, particularly the British. For them it forebodes the return of all the American forces on the Rhine. Mr. Noyes, in answer to questions, said:

"It is true I am going home, and shall probably be gone within a week, but this depends on how long it takes to wind up the affairs of the American department of the Rhineland High Commission. There will be no one behind to take my place. I prefer to give no further statement until General Allen returns to Coblenz, for it will be up to him to establish such relations with the High Commission as are necessary in the interests of the American army zone."

The remainder of the story is that for some time past Mr. Noyes has been asking to be allowed to return to Washington, as he already has exceeded the time he proposed to remain here, but the sudden orders to close the commission came as a great surprise, as apparently no real reason was given.

The high commissioner declares there is no question of any disagreement with the French, but that America will recall the commission which with America still in a state of war with Germany, has been invaluable in keeping the State Department in touch with German affairs, in remarkable Mr. Noyes appears to be as mystified as those about him.

VIGOROUS PROTEST.

Mobile, Ala., June 2.—An Eastern Shore produce trucker has registered his disapproval of low prices for vegetables by dumping his cargo of snap beans into Mobile Bay rather than sell them into Mobile Bay rather than sell a bushel.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM CURED BY B. B. B.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, caused by the uric acid in the blood. It manifests itself by pain and lameness attacking the muscles and joints of the body, which often swell and become hot and inflamed. Anyone who has suffered month after month, and perhaps year after year, with rheumatism, and who has tried remedy after remedy in the hope of relief, and without success, should not give up hope. Burdock Blood Bitters, by invigorating the digestive organs and eliminating the uric acid from the system, will give prompt and permanent relief. Mrs. D. Barry, Parbrooks, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know of the great benefit my husband derived from using your Burdock Blood Bitters. He had been suffering for the past two years with inflammatory Rheumatism. He tried many medicines, but got no better. A friend advised him to take B. B. B. He did so, and after taking five bottles he felt like a new man, and was able to go to work the same as ever." Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. M. Barron Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again. One day while lying in bed, I read about "Fruit-a-tives" the great fruit medicine, and I seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it.

The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me."

No Opposition In By-Election

Supporters of Opposition Decide That Owing to Short Time Before General Election It is Hardly Worth While Opposing Dr. Roberts.

In response to a call for a Convention of supporters of the party opposed to the present Provincial Government, a large and representative gathering assembled in the Seaman's Institute last night to consider the question of putting up a candidate to oppose Dr. Roberts, the new Minister of Health in the by-election fixed for the 14th inst. The general feeling of the meeting was very apparent, that in view of the short time that must elapse before a general election becomes due, it would hardly be worth while to run a candidate on the present occasion. A motion to this effect was carried unanimously. Excellent speeches were delivered by La. Col. Harrison, Major Bartram Smith, whose name had been suggested as a candidate and who was prepared to run. Dr. J. R. Campbell, M. L. A., and T. B. Carson, M. L. A., who endorsed the decision arrived at.

SOME JEWEL COLLECTOR.

Osting, N. Y., June 2.—"They say a good wife is a rare jewel. I have been a collector of jewels," writes C. E. Wilson, who is serving a term in Sing Sing for marrying seven wives. This admission is contained in an article which he wrote for the prison paper. The title is "How I came to marry seven wives and land in prison."

THE SINN FEIN VIEWPOINT OF IRISH OUTRAGES

"All information from Ireland suggests that the Bolshevik movement of the Irish Labor party will deal a mortal blow to the Sinn Fein. It is in the nature of every revolution that an extreme movement is devoured by one more extreme, as the Jacobins destroyed the Girondins. It was all very well to take land from the landlords. There was unanimity about that, but the farmers and their sons will show fight in earnest before they lose what they hold. The labor agitation in Ireland seems certain to lead by degrees to a great Nationalist split and to a revival of moderate influence outside Ulster."

"For the rest, the Irish police of late have shown a firm intention to hold their own. If the Government push on with their bill and stick to their new policy of suppressing outrages while in Ireland, but leaving unlimited impunity to meet the opinion, they will reap their reward."

Why Castoria?

YEARS ago Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups were the remedies in common use for Infants and Children; Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing Opium in one form or another, but so disguised as to make them pleasant to the taste, yet really to stupefy the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.

It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, received the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.

A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy that she would use for herself without consulting a physician.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Have You Tried It?

Everybody has read the above headline; how many believe it? Have you a little one in the home, and has that dear little mite when its stomach was not just right felt the comforts that come with the use of Fletcher's Castoria? You have heard the cry of pain. Have you heard them cry for Fletcher's Castoria? Try it.

Just help baby out of its trouble tomorrow with a taste of Castoria. Watch the difference in the tone of the cry, the look in the eye, the wiggle in the tiny fingers. The transformation is complete from pain to pleasure. Try it.

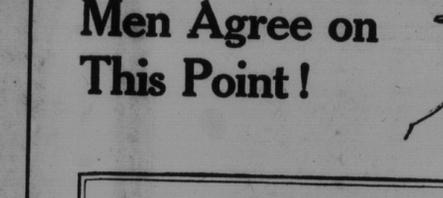

You'll find a wonderful lot of information about Baby in the booklet that is wrapped around every bottle of Fletcher's Castoria.
