CONDENSED NEWS

LOCAL AND GENERAL. Knights of Pythias Memorial Day is Thursday, August 24, not Thursday of this week as erroneously published.

A writ has been issued in the supreme court in the case of the Northern Assurance Company vs. Victoria Steamship Company, the latter claiming $5,000 under an insurance policy.

Harry G. Weeks is suffering from injuries received in a fall at Advocate (N.S.), on Saturday, by stepping through an unprotected doorway in the darkness, a distance of fifteen feet. He fractured two ribs and his collar bone.

The young ladies at Victoria wharf held a very enjoyable shadow sale on Friday evening, Aug. 5, at the residence of S. J. Chisholm, at which the sum of $9 was taken in aid of the soldiers' comforts, and which has been forwarded to the Khaki Club through Mrs. A. G. Brown. The young ladies in charge were Miss Annie Fitt, Miss Essie Drillon, Miss Florence McAvity.

That the automobile that killed little Edith Nelson on the highway road in front of her own home at Boletown, New Brunswick, on Sunday evening, was an unlicensed car and was driven by an unlicensed chauffeur at a dangerous rate of speed, was the finding of the jury at Boletown on Monday. The jury further recommended that the speed limit in villages in Northumberland county be reduced to eight miles per hour.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dykeman, upon their recent return from Cincinnati found a letter awaiting them from their son, Ewart, who is now with the 665 Co. M. F. A. S. 13th Corps Troop, 3rd Army B. E. F.—the first letter he had received from their son since the beginning of the great drive. He is an ambulance driver, and the first day of the drive kept him at the wheel of his ambulance for forty consecutive hours with only 60 minutes of sleep. The wounded were so numerous at the front that they were piled up by hundreds waiting for the cars, which could carry only eight at a time, to take them back to the dressing bases.

Brief Despatches

London, Aug. 8.—(Toronto Globe cable) An exchange telegram was held at the bank of the 14th Battalion, which was along with my fellow citizens in Canada, look forward with unshaken confidence to victory and a lasting peace.

London, Aug. 7, 4:40 p.m.—The arrival of Dr. Ernest Meyer, editor of the Vorwarts, is reported in a telegram received at Amsterdam from Berlin. The paper is the leading Socialist paper of Berlin, and its editor has been confined previously with the German authorities for his writings.

London, Aug. 8.—Arthur Henderson, president of the board of education in the British cabinet, has resigned his portfolio. Mr. Henderson recently had been strongly criticised, both in parliament and by the newspapers, much dissatisfaction being expressed over his administration of the education department, in which he was declared to have failed to meet the present demand for a reform of the nation's educational system.

London, Aug. 8.—Normal service of the most important surface street car lines in Manhattan and the Bronx was resumed today after having been partially interrupted by strikes of motor-men and conductors beginning about two weeks ago, and culminating Friday night last in a walkout of the men employed by the New York Railway Company. About 7,000 employees of the company and of the Third Avenue Railway system are affected by the settlement agreed upon yesterday by the directors and officials of the two companies after conferences with Mayor Mitchell.

London, Aug. 8.—The right of the employees to organise is conceded and the two companies promised to treat with committees of their employees in considering grievances.

Does a Cow Credit?

Of what use is it if your cows furnish extra cream milk if you lose the cream in separation?

There is absolutely no need for this waste—for it certainly does not pay to feed cream to pigs and calves in the skim milk. Invest in a SUPERIOR SEPARATOR and you will gain in two ways. First you will reduce the work of separation—and of cleaning up afterwards. Secondly, you will get ALL the cream—all the time!

Write for the big free book, showing the various models of Superior Separators and how and why they excel machines costing almost double. The book is free. Write for it to-day!

stream of water on it, so that the building was saved.

The burnie embers carried to the roof of A. B. Marshall's store down town, and also to W. W. Clarke's residence.

At one time the whole town was thought to be in danger, but the steady, plucky fight of every man and woman alone saved it.

The loss of the Bear River hotel will be largely felt by the traveling public, the hotel having been one of the most popular in the town, and Mrs. Jones a central and kindly hostess.

M. C. Harris, who was manager of the Bear River stables, lost eight horses, a cow, all carriages, harnesses, robes and a large amount of hay and grain.

Mrs. Milbury lost almost all the furniture in her house. There was a first insurance of $500 on the residence.

Those who fought the fire are grateful to the management of the Commercial house and Mrs. E. E. Rice for sending out gallons of coffee to cheer the tired workers.
