

travelling from place to place and appealing to the various Charitable Societies with plausible stories which it is impossible to disprove—and they would suggest for the consideration of their successors in office whether some means cannot be devised to lessen this evil.

The whole respectfully submitted.

ALEXANDER POPE,

Secretary.

Quebec, 5th January, 1877.

HENRY J. PRATTEN,

2nd Vice President.

ST

Th
as fo

Re

comj

woma

Tb

is $64

31)

c

4 p

4

5

20

1

1

2

52

120 pe