MELBOURNE

The W.M.S. of the Presbyterian church had a real treat Wednesday afternoon when over 40 gathered in the church to hear an address given by Miss McGregor, field secretary of the W.M.S. Miss McGregor spoke for about an hour and a half on the home mission work and the wonderful things that have been accomplished through the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian church. If any who heard her address were not in sympathy with mission work when going to church they certainly left with a very different impression, as the facts presented by the speaker were most convincing, and the results of the work most encouraging for every Christian worker to carry on the good work. At the close supper was served and a social time spent.
