Honored By Class.

Class of Mrs. Augustin from the Zion Evangelical Sunday-school had a surprise at the home of Mrs. H.
Raddatz. A beautiful jardiner was presented as a remembrance. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Address was delivered as follows:

Dear Mrs. Raddatz: It is with great pleasure we, your classmates, take this opportunity to convey to you our congratulations and best wishes for your future welfare and happiness. We hope this will ever remind you of the happy hours spent together in the class.

An Unusual Occurrence.

An unusual occurrence is reported to the Record by Mr. Harry Enschel.
An instance which rats gnawed and cut through a lead hot water pipe was brought to the representatives' attention.

Mrs. Knechtel while at plumbing work in a residence on Victoria street found pipe which was almost cut into two parts. Upon examination he found that rats had been gnawing at the pipe.

NUPTIAL EVENTS

Stuart-Kramp

The Hanover Post says:—The marriage took place on Tuesday of this week at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kramp when their second daughter, Madeline, was united in marriage to Mr. Harold Stuart of Kitchener. Rev. H. Twietmeyer officiating. The bride looked charming in a dress of brown tulle silk with georgette and wore a very picturesque hat to match and also a handsome plush and velvet gown.

She was assisted by her sister, Miss Mable Kramp, who wore a blue silk crepe-de-chene dress. Mr.
Garfield Davis supported the groom.
After the ceremony, the happy young couple, amidst the immediate relatives, sat down to a sumptuous dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. Stuart left for Toronto and other points on the 3.20 train amidst showers of confetti and after their return they will reside in Kitchener where the groom has a lucrative position. The many and useful presents which were received showed the high esteem in which they are held.

Candidate to Begin His Cam- paign To-day.

Dr. Hugh A. Stevenson, ex-mayor of London, was the unanimous selection of the Labor party at a convention in the Trades and Labor Council chamber last evening to represent them as candidate in London in the coming provincial election. Dr. Stevenson accepted the nomination and begins his campaign to-day.

The Belleville team promised that if a third game was necessary it would agree to have it played in either Toronto or Hamilton and would not hold out for Belleville.
