

understanding and never in his life did he deliberately try to confuse a witness. He is always kind, patient and human."