

BILL.

An Act to provide for the Administration of the Oath of Office to persons appointed to be Justices of the Peace, in this Province.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the Administration of the Oath of Office to persons appointed to the Office of Justices of the Peace, in this Province: Be it therefore enacted, etc.

Probably

That hereafter it shall and may be lawful, in all cases, for the Clerk of the Peace, in the several Counties and Cities in this Province, as well as such other person or persons as shall or may be specially appointed for that purpose by Dedimus potestatem, to administer the Oath of Office to all persons who shall or may hereafter be appointed to the Office of Justice of the Peace, in this Province.

Who may administer the Oath of Office to Justices of the Peace.