

SESSIONAL PAPER No. 13

- Jesuits Estates, concerning disposal of, note 1, p. 857; suggestion to apply the revenues to the various branches of education, 908; referred to, 919.
- Johnson, Col. Gray, signs petition on behalf of Loyalists, 777.
- Johnson, Sir John, references to, 731, 773, 806, 809, 816, 854, 867, 870, 871, 937, 939, 942, 945.
- Johnson, Sir John, his petition to the King, 773; certifies as to the losses of the Mohawks during the war, 806; his opinion with respect to the settlement of Crown lands, 939; letter from magistrates of Cataraqui concerning trade and land tenure in their district, 942; letter from the magistrates of Oswegatchie, re population, agriculture and the settlement of Crown lands, 945.
- Johnson, Sir William, referred to, sketch of, note 1, p. 662.
- Johnston, Captain Alexander, in command of troops at Trois Rivières, 88.
- Johnston, Alexander, member of legislative council, 697.
- Johnston, James, foreman of the grand jury at Quebec, 214, 215, 909.
- Johnstone, George, Governor of West Florida, 148, 159, 170.
- Johnstone, Sir James, favours establishment of House of Assembly, note, 1, p. 955.
- Jolliffe, W., member of the Board of Trade, note 1, p. 594, 704.
- Journals of Council, list of those used by Carleton in his report, 865.
- Judges, to be appointed by the governor, 177; re the appointment, or removal of, 188, 770, 822; should understand the French language, 246; one of the judges should be versed in French customs and usages and general rules of practice, 246; those of Inferior Court, to be instructed to adhere to the Custom of Paris, 269; arbitrary powers held by French judges, 270; number of seigniorial judges in Quebec at time of conquest, 299; to be appointed with advice and consent of the majority of members of council, 308; additional appointment for Court of Common Pleas at Montreal, 400; may order the satisfaction of judgments by instalments, 413; suggestions by Marriott re limitation of jurisdiction, 463; instructions to Carleton (1775) to regulate appointment of, 602; by ordinance of 1777, decision of judges to be final in matters under value of £10, 680; suggestions for regulating appointments, 745; referred to, 756, 760; investigation into charges against the judges of Common Pleas does not establish corruption on their part, note 2, p. 874; powers of the first judge appointed for the district of Hesse, 963; doubts as to expediency of appointments during good behaviour, 981; power of the King to appoint, 1001, 1016.
- Judicature, System of, proposed by Board of Trade, 245; Privy Council's resolution requiring report on defects in the state of, 286, 287; Governor to report on the condition of the judicature in Quebec, 287; referred to, 386; alleged defects to be reported on, 289; Governor in Council given power to constitute courts of, 307; Masere's suggestion for establishment of three Royal Courts of, 355, 373; suggestions for reform in execution of law, 431; plan of British government for system of, 637. See also Jurisdiction.
- Juries, Canadians given right to act as jurors, note 5, p. 206 (see pp. 214, 218, 222, 329, 382); dissatisfaction of British traders with permission given to Canadians to act as jurors, note 5, p. 206; Murray recommends that Canadians act as jurors, 231; ordinance granting Canadians right to act as jurors on civil and criminal cases, 249, 382 (see p. 252); ordinance relating to composition of, in civil matters, 249 (see 252); suggestion that verdict be carried by majority of jury, 358; suggestions for forming a panel in criminal cases, 386; suggestions by Board of Trade re juries in criminal cases, 386; Marriott's remarks on juries in criminal cases, 463; English inhabitants' protest against being deprived by the Quebec Act of trial by jury, 589, 591, 593; proposal to decide cases by two-thirds majority, 646-7; petition that optional juries be granted on all trials in courts of original jurisdiction, that they be balloted for and a panel formed as in England, 744; objections to proposed optional juries on trials in courts of original jurisdiction, 756, 759; clause amending the Quebec Act, providing for trial by jury in civil cases when desired, 772; regulations for forming a panel, 785; ordinance of 1787 provides that where there is no jury the fact be inserted in the record of the cause so that in event of appeal the case may be tried in the superior tribunal as fully as before the Common Pleas, 858; Quebec merchants advise that juries be granted in all courts having original jurisdiction, 903; objections to system, 981.
- Jurisdiction, Civil, suggested that Indian lands be included under civil jurisdiction, 148; Court of Common Pleas at Montreal constituted an independent court with original jurisdiction, 404; in Illinois, Detroit, St. Vincenne, Gaspé and Michillimackinac, 607; commission for court of, 674; ordinance of 1777 confirms judgments of civil courts, 681. See also Judicature.
- Jurisdiction, Criminal, An Ordinance of 1787 to explain and amend an ordinance for establishing courts of, 862. See also Judicature.
- Jurisdiction, Ecclesiastical, Carleton's instructions of 1775 on the regulation of, 602-606.
- Jurors, protest of French jurors in reference to the "Presentments of the grand jury of Quebec," 216, 219; methods suggested in selection of, 357; suggestions for a double panel, 361 (see p. 470); concerning qualifications of, 785, 845, 888; list of jurors in town of Quebec in support of the objections to trial by jury in civil causes, 891; qualifications of, in the five new districts, 963.
- Jury, Trial by, right of, granted in Court of Common Pleas, 206, 330; Board of Trade recommends that in cases between old and