5. All persons to whom the Acts relating to superannuation hereby repealed are by some other Act not repealed declared to apply.

Conditions
and rates of allowance.

2. The Governor in Council may grant to any person having served in an established capacity in the Civil Service for ten years or upwards, and having attained the age of sixty years, or being incapacitated by bodily infirmity from properly performing his duties, a superannuation allowance calculated on his average yearly salary during the then last three years, and not exceeding the following rates, that is to say:—If he has served for ten years, but less than eleven years, an allowance of ten-fiftieths of such average salary, and if for eleven years and under twelve years an annual allowance of eleven-fiftieths thereof, and in like manner a further addition of one-fiftieth of such average salary for each additional year of service up to thirty-five years, when an annual allowance of thirty-five fiftieths may be granted, but no addition shall be made for any service beyond thirty-five years; if the service has not been continuous, the period or periods during which such service has been interrupted shall not be counted, and the Order in Council made in such case shall be laid before Parliament at its then or then next Session.

Maximum
rate, for 35
years.

Breaks in service not to count.

Governor in Council may add to service
of persons
appointed on account of special qualifications.

3. The Governor in Council may, in the case of any person who entered the Civil Service after the age of thirty years, as being possessed of some peculiar professional or other qualifications or attainments required for the office to which he was appointed, and not ordinarily to be acquired in the public service, add to the actual number of years service of such person, such further number not exceeding ten, as may be considered equitable, for reasons stated in the Order in Council made in the case; and such additional number of years shall be taken as part of the term of service on which the superannuation allowance of such person shall be computed,—the Order in Council in any such case being laid before Parliament, at its then or then next Session.

Preliminary inquiry by Treasury
Board on certain points
made requisite.

4. The superannuation of any civil servant shall be preceded by an enquiry by the Treasury Board,—

- (a) Whether the person it is proposed to superannuate is eligible within the meaning of this Act; and—
- (b) Whether his superannuation will result in benefit to the service, and is therefore in the public interest; or—
- (c) Whether it has become necessary in consequence of his mental or physical infirmity:
