Nothing startling to write about these days—unless we say more about the weather or the progress of the war. On the former we dare not say what we think, and the war will progress just as favorably without our comment.

Those Divisional Concerts are proving popular in the extreme. Some excellent talent has been disclosed and we will venture to say that few professional companies could put up entertainments the same grade as those presented by our own boys in uniform. Here's hoping they may be continued to the end of the war and then some.

Our brass band is gaining quite a reputation in this district. This is as it should be. The lads are working hard and Bandmaster Williams is bringing out the best there is in them.

This thing of having three weeks between pay days is all right—but it has its drawbacks. The greatest trouble is that money is just about as scarce as hen's teeth before the new pay and no end of confusion, mental of course, disturbs the minds of the lads in the mean time.
