On February 28, Canada's largest dance company will be in Fredericton at the Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne. The Toronto Theatre has a various repertoire ranging from new classic to theatrical and appeals to everyone from the novice to the expert.

The Toronto Dance Theatre has been touring Canada and the United States for almost two decades and Christopher House, the first resident choreographer, has won several awards including the Jean A. Chalmers Award and the Clifford E. Lee and Dora Mavor Moore Award, both highly coveted awards.

The colorful show features highly energetic acts with rather unconventional costumes such as shower curtains or super heroes outfits. The choreography is all from the Toronto Dance Theatre which means it is quite original. Reviews acclaim the seeming spontaneity and control that exudes.

Don't miss this quality show on Saturday, February 28 at the Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne. Tickets are available there and are $10 each for students and $15 each for adults.
