

Bengals finish off game PCOs

By IAN HUTCHINSON
Times staff writer

Mississauga PCO goaltender Tony Ramsay showed why he's an all-star Thursday in a 13-8 loss to Hamilton Bengals, which eliminated PCOs from the Ontario Lacrosse Association Junior A quarter-finals 4-3.

Ramsay, who was named to the all-star team last week, made several spectacular saves, crunched Hamilton forward Paul Weller with a bodycheck (Ramsay was called for tripping) and topped things off with the final goal of the season for the PCOs.

"That was a nice check he made," said teammate Chris Jarman. "A goal, a good check, what can I say? He's been winning games for us all year. It's good to see him go out that way."

Ramsay saved the first period for PCOs, who were lucky to escape trailing 5-1. The team played seven minutes shorthanded because of a call against Rob Hughston, who was nailed for high sticking, fighting and had a 10-minute misconduct tacked on.

Hamilton scored only once during the penalty to make it 2-1. Ramsay's goaltending was excellent during the penalties as Hamilton caught the PCO defence flatfooted several times with a fast-break play.

"Tony played brilliantly tonight," said PCO coach Jerry Jarman. "He's really important to this team."

The penalty wore out PCO penalty-killers, Jarman said. "That first period really hurt us," he said. "I was happy to escape with only one goal scored against us."

It looked like PCOs might come back in the second period as they stayed even in the goal-scoring department. In the third period, Mississauga scored first but Hamilton came back with another goal. Then, a rash of penalties put a nail in the PCO coffin as Warren DiMarco, Steve Maddick, and Tony Ramsay, twice, were sent to the box for minor infractions.

Hamilton scored three power-play goals.

One of Ramsay's infractions was the check on Weller. "I think if it had happened a little earlier in the game, it might have picked us up," said Jarman.

Ramsay, an Erindale Secondary School student who has accepted a 1,000 wrestling scholarship at Simon Fraser University, didn't like the lighting at the Mountain Arena.

"In the first period, the lights were flickering," said Ramsay. "It's been like this all through the series. I had trouble seeing it come toward me."

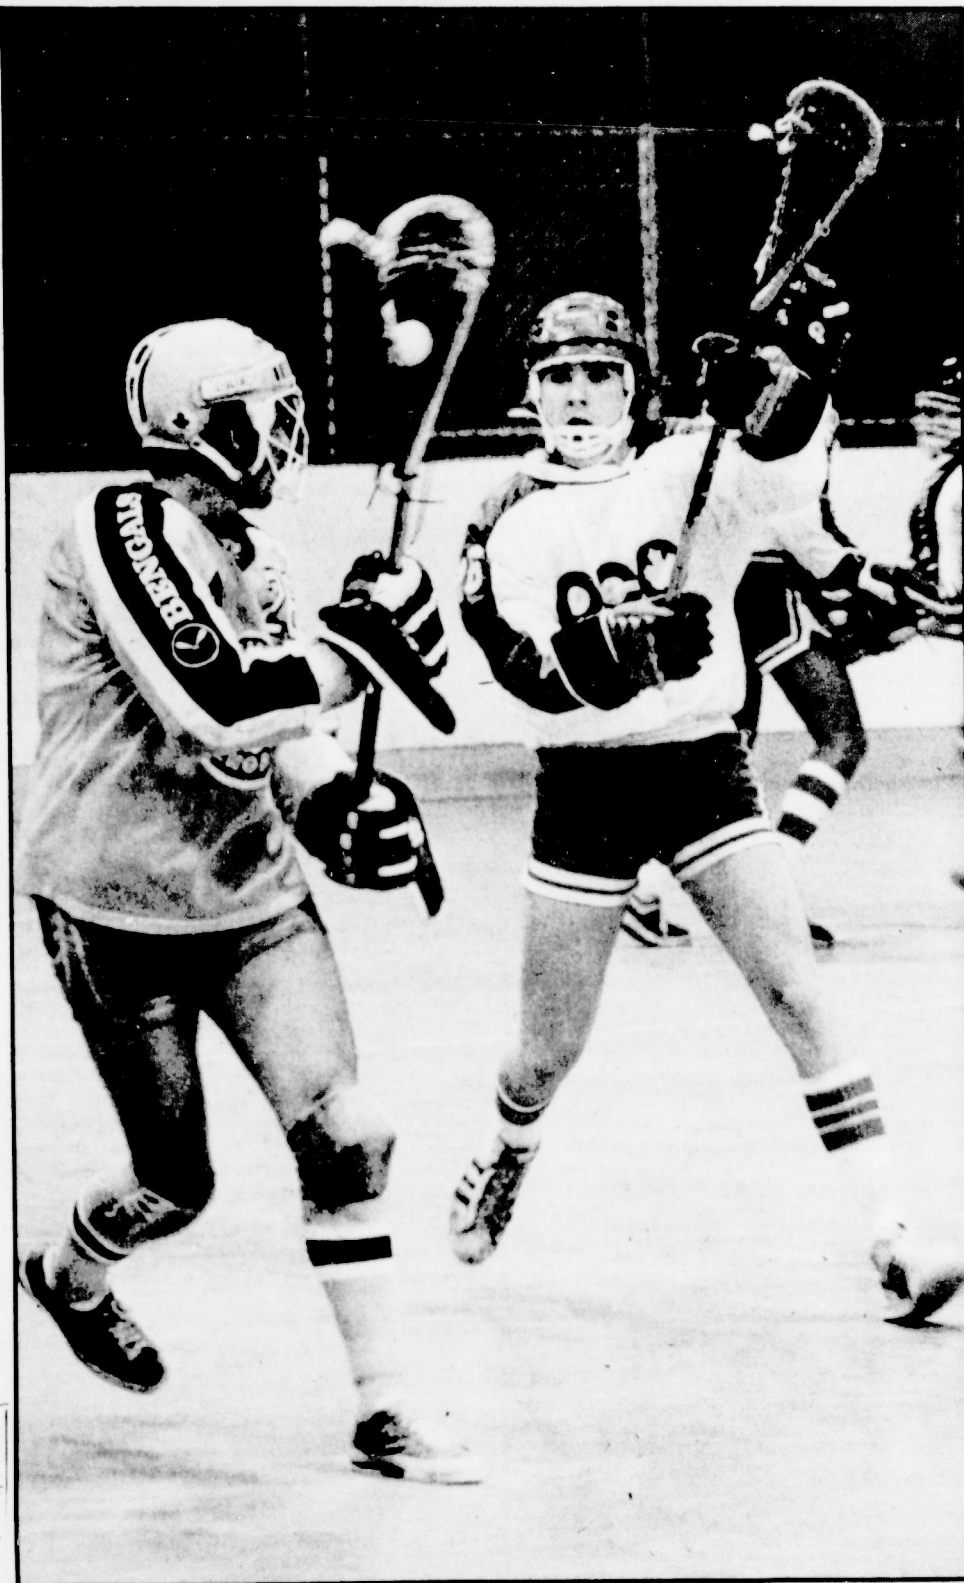

Jarman said after the game that he didn't think the loss was caused by overconfidence after a 23-10 blasting of the Bengals the night before at Huron Park.

"The players knew they had a tough game coming," said Jarman. "They weren't overconfident." Owen Ivey, Craig Laughton, with two, Chris Jarman, Daryl Clancy, Paul Layne, Brian Hall and Ramsay scored Thursday.

Brian Hall led the way Wednesday with six goals followed by Clancy with four. Maddick, Layne, and Mark Bishop picked up hat-tricks and Ken Gillies scored twice. Laughton and Steve Dodds added singles.

Ivey added five assists and Ramsay three.

The fifth game of the series saw Bengals edge PCOs 18-17. Randy Dupre, missing from Thursday's game, scored seven goals, and Maddick five.
