

stand so much in need of the magnificent achievements of a genius or the highly gifted few but rather of the patient faithfulness & watchfulness of the many,
at least so it seems to me & if the young men of Canada can only be brought to ^{see} accept their responsibilities to the State we ought with

Sept. 29th 1908
300 Drummond Street,
Montreal.

Dear Mr. Mackenzie King
It is a long time since I read anything in the newspapers which gave me so much pleasure as what ~~it~~ appeared last night as to the way in which you & your opponent