Arthur Rank Hamilton
 1st July 1909.
 The Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, M. P.
 Doctor of Philosophy, Harvard,
 &c. &c. &c.

"Still they come", to cover you
 With well-won glories and glory!
 Soon there will be over you
 No one, young or hoary:
 You'll be King, alike in name
 And all that royal rank can claim.
 I hope I'll be alive to bow
 To Doctor King "four years from now."
 If not, from some high-up elevation
 I'll watch with joy and jubilation
 That grand and sunny celebration.

Warm as ever,
 W. Murray.
