OCTOBER.—We have often remarked on the importance of a rotation of crops, and the cessation of cropping for a season, in order that land may maintain its strength and continue profitable. In 1562, Thomas Tusser published his five hundred points of husbandry, and in quaint spelling expressed his mind on the subject to which we again refer, thus :

" Otes, rie, or else barlee, and wheet that is gray,
Brings land out of comfort, and soone to decay ;
One after another, no comfort betweene
Is crop upon crop, as will quickly be seene.
Still crop upon crop, many farmers do take
And reap little profit for greediness sake."
