York, February 24.—Robert Adamson, Fire er, has made another appeal for funds to the New York fire-alarm system, in view me fact that the underwriters have promised a reinsurance rates as soon as the system is The Commissioner has asked the Board nate to appropriate $1,000,000 for the pur-

mber Mr. Adamson appealed to the Fire In Exchange to aid him in his effort to secure opriation by guaranteeing a reduction in insurims in consideration of the construction of ew system. At the last meeting of the Exthe committee reported in favor of a reducof 1 per cent. in the rates existing at the time the em is completed, provided it is constructed The total reduction will amount to about 100 a year for the entire city, and about $160,000 anhattan Borough alone. / The reduction, Com-mer Adamson points out, exceeds the interest sinking fund charges on the sum necessary to the new system.

The Commissioner's request is now before the corte stock committee of the Board of Estimate, and re comments on the large number of fire-alarm emporarily out of commission from circuit Life Assurance Company at par. bles, and says that a new fire-alarm telegraph em should be installed. The resolution of the ince Exchange follows:

That although in the recurring hope that the city completed by May 1. without delay, remove the serious danger creatby the existing decrepit fire-alarm telegraph sysrating schedules in use by the New York Fire nce Exchange have, through all these years, ued to give credit for the existing fire-alarm ph system as though it were satisfactory.

WAR RISK RATES HIGHER

New York, February 24.—Trans-Atlantic war risk rates have shown a stiffening this week. Under-writers have raised the rate on coverage to London from 1 to 11/2 per cent. , and to Liverpool from 7/8 and I per cent. to 11/4 per cent. Higher rates are looked for before the end of the week. It is also thought that coverage on American vessels will be advanced.
