

Published under the direction of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference of Eastern British America.

VOLUME XIII. No. 4.

HALIFAX, N. S., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1861.

Beligious Intelligence.

WHOLE NO. 602.

Religious Miscellanp.

Forgiveness. Man hath two attendant angels

Ever waiting at his side,

With him wheresoe'er he wander

Wheresoe'er his feet abide ;

"One to warn him when he idleth, dy Bible, 8 vo., maps, index, fance-Turkey m rocco laster's Family Bible, up to Devotingal Famile Bible Devotional Family Bible, taries of Henry and Sco t, quarto rich Turkey Morocco, protrated, with best French quite new, Porter's large Pulpet Bible, 95s 0d rotional Bible-2 vols, mo-

15s Od

Pocket Bibles,

CHEAP

A LARGE STOCK

DEPOSITORY

at very Low Prices. ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THE

bles-quarto-col'd engrav-

arkey moroeco, gilt extra

Bible, 1000 illustrations, Forter's Plain Family Bido extra gilt, do 8 vo., elegant, antique, bevelled edges, llen's do do from

TEEN PENCE each to TEN DOLLARS, vant, morocco, velvet, papier machine ish gilt rems, and clasps, and shields,

AND WELL-SELECTED ASSORTMENT ived, and for sale at the lowest prices. ogues of a very large Stock of Christ-New Year's Gifts, very shortly. 66 ARGYLE STREET-HALIFAX.

AYER'S saparilla

PURIFYING THE BLOOD. speedy cars of the following complaints: and Scrofulous Affectious, such ors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, , Pustules, Blotches, Boils, and all Skin Disenses.

and all Main Discusses. OastAXD, Ind., 6th June, 1859 4. Co. Gents': I feel it my duty to no-that your Sursuparilla has done for mo-tical a Scrofichus infection, i have suffered rious ways for years. Sometimes it burst so m my hands and arms; somatimes it, u and distressed me at the sto msch. Two wake out on my head and covered my scalp-rone sore, which was painful and loathsome rious. It ried many medicines and several without much relief from your reputs-tion worse. At length I was reporced (Saraparillis), for I knew from your reputs-ting the main made in the store of the distribution of the two for a store to distribution of a temporoliul over a sed almost face bottles. New and healthy will be form under the seak, which after a we amoust tree tolties. New and healthy gan to form onder the seab, which sfree My skin is now clear, and I know free a bed denses has gone from my system. You to that I feel what I am saying when I tell hill you to be one of the apostles of the age, means fully gratefully. Yours, ALFRED B. TALLEY.

ALFRED B. TALLET. iny's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, and Saik Rheum, Scald Head, orm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy. M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y. 12th that, he has cured an inveterate case of h threatened to terminate fatally, by the threatened to terminate fatally, I e of our Sarsayarilla, and also a dath mipelas by large doses of the same amon Eraptions by it constantly. cele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

ursaparilla cured me from a Goi're - a hid-on the neck, which I had suffered from es or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, hanning, of New York City, writes, comply with the request of your agent found your Sarsaparilla a most excelle • found your Sar-aparilla a most excellent the numericus complaints for which we a remody, but especially in Panale Disease toos diathesis. I have cured many inveter-encerrices by it, and some where the com-used by ulcration of the uterna. The ulcra-ssion cared, Nothing within my Knowl-for these female derangements." Marrow, of Newbury, Ala, writes, "A dan-a theore on one of the females in my family,

And rebuke him if he stray; One to leave him to his nature, And so let him go his way. Two recording spirits, reading All his life's minutest part, Looking in his soul, and listening To the beatings of his heart ; and would not hearken to Him. Each with pen of fire electric, Writes the good or evil wrought ;

Writes with truth that adds not. errs not. Purpose, action, word and thought. One, the teacher and reprover, Marks each heaven-deserving deed Graves it with the lightning vigor, Seals it with the lightning's speed. For the good that man achieveth-Good beyond an angel's doubt-Such remains for aye and ever, And can not be blotted out.

One, severe and silent Watcher ! Noteth every crime and guile. Writes it with a holy duty, Seals it not, but waits awhile If the evil-doer cry not-"God forgive me!" ere he sleeps Then the sad, stern Spirit seals it, And the gentle spirit weeps.

To the sinner, if Repentance Cometh soon, with healing wings, Then each dark account is cancelled And each joyful angel sings; Whilst the erring one perceiveth-Now his troublous hour is o'er-Music, fragrance, wafted to him From a vet untrodden shore.

Mild and mighty is forgiveness, Meekly worn if meekly won ; Let our hearts go forth to seek it. Ere the setting of the sun. Angels wait and long to hear us Ask, if ere the time be flown ; Let us give and then receive it,

Ere the midnight cometh down. A Story of the Irish Revival:

OR, SALVATION FOR THE CHIEF OF SINNERS, garden of an acquaintance at a short distance once. Several friends made intercession for me; strained in the pulpit.

The Revival in Ulster has been well and frefrom the town. Here I sat down, and took out out I found no consolation. Having returned Specimens of his style, and the topics he de-During the days of this arduous week, I was The Revival in Ulster has been well and free from the town. Here I sat down, and took out out I found no consolation. Having returned quently described, chiefly by visiters. Ministers from my pocket the book, which I found to my own house, my son pleaded to God on my lights to dwell on, with his mode of treating and other agents in the different localities which be a Church of England Prayer-Book. It open- behalf, and repeated the promises of God to the behalf, and repeated the promises of God to the the many be seen in his "Autobiography of a Churches, and I had an expecially cheering" a decided expression of opinion on the question were the principal scenes of this blessed visitaed at the fifty-second Psalm. I began to read ssionary," a book that will amply Churches; and I had an especially cheering backslider. I went alone to my chamit, without any particular interest; but God was ber, and wrestling with God, prayed that He pay perusal. Let it be bought and read. He private discussion of matters with Principal Cun-Divine grace which they witnessed can never be forgotten. Twelve months have elapsed since the Holy derstanding, and to display to me, in its full understanding and heart Jesus Christ. I prayed referred to by subsequent historians as a stand- Provost, Dr. Candlish, &c.; and also again with pleased at this hour to open the eyes of my un- would grant me His Holy Spirit to reveal to my wrote the "History of New Brunswick," a work ningham, of the Free Church College, the Lord Ghost, with influence and majesty indescribable, "fell" upon thousands in Coleraine and its vicini-"fell" upon thousands in Coleraine and its vicinity. While some, who then made a good profes-sion, have turned back again to the world, it is matter of devout thanksgiving that many are still " kept by the power of God through faith thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the of Righteousness arose 'with healing in His stationed. He is a thorough sound hearted Wes-The following simple and unreserved narrative living,' it seemed as if the words had been writ-wings,' and poured light into every corner of my leyan-an ardent admirer of our laws and usages ness of the principles of our Society; their im-intended as one illustration of the remarkable grace and power of God experienced at that heart. I knew that such a judgment as this sin no more,' spoke comfort to me. Sorrow had and only needs to be known in order to be loved. heast of their advocacy, when the Home and For-Many who love the Lord Jesus Christ would be just. I shut the book, and said to endured through the night; but joy came with Though literary and oratoricol, his pulpit ministime. Many who love the Lord Jesus Christ will doubtless, pray that the subject of it may be preserved from the power of temptation, and myself, 'All is lost; there is no way of escape, the morning. I felt that sin no longer had the trations are often distinguished by great simpli- evilously enlarging in every direction. by an humble walk and godly conversation show forth the praises of Him who hath call-bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the bin the seenes to be; is habitually anxious for the seenes to be; is habitually anxi ed him "out of darkness into His marvellous prosperity of his charge; and to the extent of the Free College; and in Dr. Peddie's noble his abilities faithful in the performance of his pas-United Presbyterian Church, in Bristol-street, seemed so to pervade my whole being, that the sgreed to. remains but the vintage of wrath ? I have grievmouth of the Lord had spoken it. ed and guenched the Spirit of God : and what is "Great numbers of God's people hastened to GEORGE VANCE. congratulate me : among the rest came Dr. toral duties. Dr. Cooney may be about 60 years and in Nicholson square ; in each of which the veil separating the two worlds seemed well nigh Colonel Walker, who had also accomp left but weeping and gnashing of teeth?" "Having come to this conclusion, I determin-Colcraine, Jnne, 1860. I came to Coleraine in 1832, the year of the ed to drink until I should kill myself; and, re-M'Caldin, who brought me a little book, entitled of age ; perhaps not so much.-St. Cath. Pap. cholera. It seemed as if God were pouring out turning to town, I knocked up a tavern-keeper "Come to Jesus :' and told me the following cir-.... His judgments upon the people ; and many, fearcumstance respecting it :- The Rev. William most marked and encouraging. at four o'clock, and drank, all alone, until reason The Love of God. ing His rightcous indignation, were turned from Richey, his pastor, had bean seized with a danand thought were again drowned, and conscience the error of their ways. To some, the impression was once more completely silenced. I was then TWO SONNETTS. gerous illness from the effects of overwork during then made became the occasion of new and spiri-taken home, and lay till I got sober; and again the first extraordinary excitement of the revivaltual life; but when the Almighty's arm was stay-repeated the dose, and did the same on Saturmovement. Mr. Richey would still speak kind- Love Thee! O Thou, the world's eternal Sire ed, and the fear of immediate punishment for day. In the evening I endeavoured to dissuade ly to me in passing, and yet I hated him, and Whose place is in the vast infinity. their sins had passed away, many returned to three young men from attendance upon the him as an instrument to impress me still further often called him an hypocrite; but God used Time, space, height, depth, O God! are full of Thee. me, although I had been formally connected with the third yielded, and we went to a public-house, means of grace. Two withstood my efforts ; but with a sense of His goodness, and to humble And sun-eyed seraphs tremble and admire a body of Christians, and had been a Sunday- and sat smoking, drinking, and engaged in wickthe Sustentation Committee of the Free Church, scene. my haughty spirit. On the previous Thursday Love Thee! but Thou art girt with vengeful fire Dr. Candlish in the chair; and had the honour morning, Mr. Richey, then, to all appearance, at And mountains quake, and banded nations flee, ed conversation until eleven o clock at ingine "My first great error was to abscond from the This being the hour of closing, we were requesto receive a vote of confidence in, and commenthe point of death, and expecting only to live a And terror shakes the wide unfathom'd sea, person to whom I was apprenticed. I went to ed to leave; but a little persuasion obtained for few hours, took from under his pillow a small When the heavens rock with thy tempestu lation for, our Society; and a request that Belfast; but the Society there, to which I most us the indulgence of remaining. We were too should renew my labours soon in Scotland. This I presume there was not one in the house whose inconsistently sought admission, properly refused good customers to lose at any time, but particuire. which he directed to be delivered to me, with O Thou, too vast for thought to comprehend to admit me as a member until I should return any new when men were giving up drinking as his Christian love and prayers, that God would That wast ere time, shalt be when time is o'er Committee appointed on Monday night has un- in continuation of that solemn hymn : and serve out my time. I refused to do so; and, being left to myself, I was soon led into sin, satisfied, that is, made beasts of ourselves, we lertaken to arrange for two or three weeks work. and to meet all local expenses of meetings, &c. and fell, gradually, but certainly, until at length I became completely under the dominion of the I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the good man's heart, I became to the first forty verses of the first forty verses o world, the flesh, and the devil. I went, alas! from step to step, neither slowly, nor caring but I had drunk, as I trust, the terrible poison of that special prayer was offered for me at the which an earnest request was made for a Sunadore. day's preaching in three churches on the subject. where my feet might fall; but blindly, madly, sin for the last time. God now called me again prayer-meeeting of the Young Men's Christian beadlong; caring, fearing, and hoping for noth to His service. My wife and daughter begged Association, of which my son was a member; Love Inee: on, clad in human lowiness, In whom each heart its mortal kindred knows; Love Thee ! oh, clad in human lowliness. ing. From the counsel of the ungodly, I soon me to stay with them, and go to the Wesleyan and that on the Sunday evening of my conver-Our flesh, our form, our tears, our pains, our found myself in 'the way of sinners ;' and from chapel as the new Preacher had come into the sion, several friends seeing me enter the chapel woes. thence to 'the seat of the scorner' was an easy Circuit. They used strong persuasion. They had breathed a secret request that God would A fellow-wanderer o'er earth's wilderness ! stage. I quickly outstripped my companions, lovingly coaxed, and promised me anything in give me to see the error of my ways. in a very satisfactory state, under the energetic merry." Love Thee! whose every word but breathes and became a leader in debauchery. reason, if I would but stay at home one Saba It is now ten months since I knew Jesus and judicious care of Mr. Hay and his esteemed "Returning to Coleraine, after a time, I man-bath, and be social. They had ceased to ask me 'the Way, the Truth, and the Life.' Every day Through Thee, from long seal'd lips glad colleagues, showing increased spirituality, toaged to secure a good business, and married; to attend a place of worship; but my wife felt so He becomes more precious to my soul. I feel ward which the gracious labours of Dr. and and for some time maintained an outward show powerfully constrained to do so this morning, that He is able to sustain me; and I retain a The blind their eyes, that laugh with light, u of morality. At length I began to long for the that to urge me, she even put her back to the consciousness of pardon and acceptance. Christ pleasures of sin, and went into company. And street-door, until I promised to go. I went, but is 'my All;' and, by the help of God's Spirit, I And babes, unchid, Thy garment's hem caress the work of God in the city. in consequence of evil companionship, I was I cannot say I was more impressed than usual. have been enabled to crucify the flesh and its I see thee, doomed by bitterest pangs to die, On Thursday. I had the great privilege of witled to actions, the very memory of which makes I knew my lost state, but had not the ability to lusts, and to sacrifice the vain things that charm-Up the sad hill with willing footsteps move, me shudder. I became noted as a drunkard ; and, amend it. I had often desperately formed good ed me most; though, when I would do good, I With scourge, and taunt, and wanton agony, not satisfied with drinking to a disgraceful excess resolutions, and as often had I failed to keep have to contend against the evil that is often While the cross nods in hideous gloom above in the daytime, I took to having it, at last, at my them. After service I returned home, took a present with me. and it was a most stirring sight to see the bus-taneously to their feet. bedside during the night. Modesty shunned my little drink, and went to the Workhouse to see "May the God of all grace and might, Author Speechless I gaze, and my whole soul is love. Though all, e'en there, be radiant Deity ; neighbourhood, and blasphemy was the ordinary an old servant, who was at the point of death. and Giver of all good things, graft in my heart -Rev. H. Milman. I was strangely induced to say a few words to an increasing love of His name; nourish in me language of my tongue. "I seemed to have been given over to a repro- her about salvation, and the efficacy of Christ's true religion, and of His great mercy and good-FOUR GOOD HARDERS.—There were four good habits a wise man earnestly recommended in his counsels, and which he considered to be essen-tially necessary for the management of temporal bate mind. The Sabbath was to me not a day atonement ; about God's love, and the truth of ness keep me in the same, until life's latest hour, of holy rest; but to desecrate it, and to set the His word. I was surprised at myself, as were through Jesus Christ my Saviour. world at defiance, was my delight. The recol- others who were present, to hear one like me 'O' to grace how great a debtor lection of the sins of some of my Sabbath- talk upon such subjects. Blessed be God, the tially necessary for the management of temporal concerns, and these are—punctuality, accuracy, steadiness, and despatch. Without the first of these, time is wasted; without the second, mis-takes the most hurtful to our own credit and in-terest and that of others may be committed: the second mis-terest and that of others may be committed: Daily I'm constrained to be days, although God has blotted them out of His demoniac who thus spake was on the eve of trans-Let Thy grace, Lord, like a fetter, book of remembrance, is to me a cause of deep formation to rightness of mind. The old wo-Bind my wandering soul to Thee humiliation. I have often turned out my wife man asked me if I had undergone the change ; and children at night undressed, and have viol- but, shaking my head, I said, it was too late for Beware of sloth in secret duties, and of pride terest and that of others may be committed ; the assurance of their determination to act upon heat being so great. Los A. the chinese force occupying our position, while seekers to the communion-rail, which was quick- the Chinese force occupying our position, while ently destroyed valuable furniture, and burned me. On my way home, I met three old comin public duties; of envy in adversity, and of quantities of wearing-apparel. Several times, panious, who gave me a pressing invitation to self-consequence in prosperity ; of self-confidence when intoxicated or under the influence of deliri- join them over a 'social cup.' Formerly it re-in labouring for God, and of self-complacence without the fourth, opportunities of great adum fremeus, I endangered their lives, till they quired no asking; but, unaccountably to my-were obliged to leave the house for safety. I self, on this occasion I refused; and, though I vantage are lost, which it is impossible to recall. a new kind of Systematic Beneficence, a congrewhen your labor is crowned with a blessing. SFLF-HELP. -" Though thou hast never so gational meeting of the ladies of Nicholson- others were taken to the upper vestry. thank God, I never succeeded in inflicting any had formed no resolution to do good, I found As there are many doublings in the human find out the whole of serious injury upon them. While separated in milicting any had formed no resolution to do good, I found from them, I persecuted them in every way that I went again to the house of God with my wife a man's real character at once.

a satanic ingenuity could devise: I affronted and children. The Preacher was a very young Rev. Robert Cooney, D. D. them in the public streets ; and following them man, and this was his first Sabbath in his first them in the public streets; and ronowing them man, and this was instrict Gaboard in in The following biographical sketch from an ex-streets; and my next neighbour had given no-tice of his intention to leave his house, as he could not bear the annoyance caused by my outrageous language and conduct. And yet, dur- eternity. As he spoke of 'the wrath to come,' in song. He is a true representative Irishman. and of their results so far as they can be expec. all the publications of the Society, --- "Gold and tract the services beyond half-past ten. Since upon me; but, submitting to be blinded by Sa- to come "-a shivering seized me, and big tears strongly marked features which make up the of those present, including the Ministers themtan, I was stiff-necked, wicked, and rebellious, started to my eyes. I seemed to see vividly before me 'the lake of fire and brimstone.' It a fine developed head, partially bald, and skirted, termination at once to adopt our system of giving, three months.

Sunday previous to my conversion, to go to me, and i let as it were singing. I covered he is. He is extra neat and clerical in his dress St. Mary's, to a large meeting of the church which the Rev. G. D. Cullen undertook to be the of the fact that religion has been long in a low was nrst awakened to a sense of shame at see-ing myself alone (a nominal Protestant) in a car-riage full of Roman Catholics. When the revi-ting myself alone (a nominal Protestant) in a car-informed not to let my though vivacious, is very genteel in his manners. In the full of the bump of order; and though vivacious, is very genteel in his manners. In the full of the bump of order is a gentral commuter of a gent was first awakened to a sense of shame at seeval which was then going on was mentioned, I me laugh at the influence of that Spirit who was Dr. Cooney is a trophy won from the Church he Church and then try to get all simultaneous- cellent lady (wife of a Free Church Minister, and say "Amen" to any petition, however fervent mocked at it, and joined with its enemies in now working in me, I opened the pew-door, in- of Rome, within the pale of which he was brought ly to raise their scale of giving to an average sister of the Duchess of _____,) has consented These are the Lord's doings, and marvellous in swearing it to be a delusion and 'humbug.' I tending to go out; but my limbs would not sus- up, and for the priesthood of which he was edu- tenth at least. had, indeed, gone on a previous evening to a tain my weight: I was chained there, and my cated, being before his conversion actually in mi- On Wednesday, the 12th, I went to Stirling, gregation by my blasphemy and disorderly be- mind was dreadful. Remorse for the past, and the late Rt. Rev. Dr. Doyle, formerly titular Bish- Dr. Beith (Free Church.) Rev. Mr. Alexander. haviour. I returned home quite drunk from fear for the future, gave me some foretaste op of Kildare and Leighlin, and "Episcopus in (Established,) Rev. J. Palmer, (Wesleyan,) and voured at it with the presence and counsels of and Amen. Portrush, to frighten, annoy, and keep my wife. of the terrible distress of eternity. Partibus." He had tempting offers to enter the the Rev. A. Cameron, Editor both of the Famministry of the Church of England; but having ily Treasury and British Messenger, and the in- and successful Secretary of the Free Church Suswho had long been a Christian woman, from public worship. The following week I actually was ' Depth of mercy, can there be Mercy still reserved for me? Can my God His wrath forbear Me, the chief of sinners, spare bad enough to spend ten pounds in intoxicating drink, and in striving to drown some good feel-I have long withstood His grace, Long provoked Him to His face Would not hearken to His calls; Grieved him by a thousand falls. ings, that at this extraordinary season had begun to arise within me ; partly from the circumstance of my son being under conviction of sin, and partly from afterwards hearing him pray earn-in his lot with that people, and entered upon his on stated his convictions to me that our's was a itinerancy about thirty years ago. Since then most important movement, to which he will be of the busy people of this great city. he has filled some of the best stations in the four glad to, lend his influence, and that Mr. Arthur's provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Can- Lecture is, he thinks, the ablest argument ever opportunity of addressing three great churches penned or uttered in favour of the duty of givada East, and Canada West, The subject of this notice received a thorough ing away a stated proportion of our income.

I stood up, and was holding on by the pew estly and perseveringly for my conversion. I but at the second line I was prostrated, and lay was, however, strange to say, now several times with my head reclining on my wife's knee, quite gree of Master of Arts, from the Wesleyan Uniinduced to take part in family-worship; though insensible to everything around me for two versity, Middletown, Connecticut; and subse- citizens present, including Gen. Anderson, and still generally under the influence of drink, and hours. A dreadful darkness overhung me, and quently, that of Doctor in Divinity, from New- Sheriff Cleghorn, &c.

lending myself to ridicule and mislead those who a crushing sensation rested upon my breast and ton University, Baltimore, Maryland. He fre- On Friday, the 14th, I spent several hours in were inclined to become serious and 'escape heart. I can give no idea of the agony I endur- quently quotes Latin, and makes liberal use of close and earnest conference with Mr. Burton, out of the snare of the devil,' until the most god- ed, or of the kind of pain which I suffered. By classical allusions. No one can be more droll or and the Leaders of Nicholson-square Church degrees I returned to ordinary consciousness, witty when he likes; and indeed, he is often ne- the result of which was their unamimous decisless became ashamed of me. monstration

"One Thursday morning I got up from bed but remained under deep conviction of my un- cessarily so, whether he likes it or not. He can ion to adopt our scale of giving, and an arrange at three o'clock. This was a very rare occurrence done state, and of my need of pardon, with a hardly open his mouth without saying very un- ment that I should preach again on Sunday evewith me, as I generally slept half the day follow- desire to flee from the 'wrath to come' which usual things ; and can excite an audience, and be ning in Nicholson Square, and that there should ing, from the effect of drink the night before. had so impressed me, and a faint persuasion unconscious of the effect he has produced. As be a soirce of the whole congregation, at My brain was still reeling. Under some sort of that God would not cast me off. I was again a speaker, Dr. Cooney is distinguished for bril- which the proposal of the Leaders' Meeting unaccountable impulse, I took up a book, and put it in my pocket, but without any object or Lamb of God, who cared for me. I heard the billity is without let or hindrance; and his imag-ed as the basis of their Church contributions for purpose. Indeed, if I had noticed what it was, blessed words, 'Him that cometh unto Me, I ination is of the most gorgeous and discursive the time to come. I was qutite delighted with should most likely have thrown it aside. 1 will in no wise cast out,' and knew that through character. The boldness of its flights and gyra- the spirit and tone of the brethern present, and wandered out of the house somewhat in the state Him alone I could obtain peace with God. I tions are beyond descrption. They must be wit-

of a person that walks in his sleep; and, not knowing or caring whither I went, I came to the and uncleanness; but could not hope in Christ at hath much and oft refreshed my spirit."

cordially agreed to co-operate with their Minis- sought obtained. The work seemed to be only ters and Leaders. in working the charities of bounded by our want of room to meet the emer-Christianity by system and proportion and con- gency, and laborers to point them to Christ, the crowd being so dense as to render it seemingly science, as we advise.

On the same day, at one o'clock, we had a impossible to converse with all the seekers. W meeting of our Committee, and the Rev. G. D. Cul- need scarcely tell you of the difficulty in bring-MY DEAR SIRS, -This is my last day in Scot- len consented to act as Convener, and Mr. Handy- ing the services to a close-but many had come rageous language and conduct. And yet, dur-ing twenty years of servitude to the powers of hell, God had suffered me to prosper in my tem-poral concerns; and knocked 'at the door' of my heart by presenting good opportunities of reformation, and by very often laying His hand reformation, and by very often laying His hand and would not bearken to Him. "Upon entering the railway-carriage, on the Sunday previous to my conversion, to go to Sunday previous to my conversion to Sunday previous to my conversion to the prayer from being uttered that involuntarily and person; exhibits in all his movements a members, and their excellent Minister has since convener of a general committee of ladies, to se- state in Stroud, and throughout the circuit. our eves. "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, to be the Secretary.

Turning darkness into day-Ye who weep for Jesu's sake, He will wipe your tears away

On Saturday afternoon, we had a meeting in who only doeth wondrous works; and blessed meeting in the fair-hill, and disturbed the con-Merchant's Hall, on Monday ; and we were fa: the whole earth be filled with his glory." Amen PHOERE PALMER. Hugh Handyside, Esq., of Edinburgh, the able London, October 27th, 1860.

Glasgow to assist me in enlisting the sympathies Yesterday, Sabbath, the 23rd,-I had a noble

From the Guide toHoliness.

Letter from Mrs. Palmer.

LAND.

" Almighty Maker of my frame, Teach me the measure of my days,"

" A little point my life appears.

I am Gentlemen,

Mr. Consul Parkes was too busy to write down Glasgow: Dr. Buchanan's, (Free College the history of his captivity. Instead of it we Church,) Dr. Taylor's, (United Presbyterian,) have that of our Plenipotentiary's Private Se and Mr. Cochrane's, (Established ;) and in every cretary, Mr. Loch :-

case seemed to find a warm response. Camp before Pekin, Oct. 9, 1860 On Friday, at two o'clock, we held our Public Meeting in Merchant's Hall, at which Hugh Truant, Esq., a merchant prince presided, and able to do of the events that preceded our capthe proceedings of which four daily papers have ture, and of the subsequent occurrences : but undertaken to report, and thus sow broadcast as for the first twelve days we were separated, I

> Most respectfully and truly yours, the language. ROBERT G. CATHER.

On the morning of the 17th September I accompanied Mr. Parkes, with your lordshin's sanction, to Tung-chow, 49 make arrangements for the moving of your Excellency's camp to that place, when the day was decided on for the sig ature of the convention.

We arrived at Tung-chow about ten a.m., and DEAR BROTHER .- The triumphs of the cross nearly the whole of that day was occupied by here are amazing. Yesterday was one of the discussions on various questions connected with days of the Son of man, to a very extraordinary the convention between the imperial commission degree. He who is the Lord of the Sabbath drew great multitudes together from near and board of war, and Mr. Parkes, endeavours be-obtained religion among the Methodists, he cast defatigable Mr. Peter Drummond. Mr. Camer- tentation Fund Committee, who came down to General Miscellann, Mr. Loch's Narrative.

My LORD .- Mr. Parkes will no doubt inform your lordship at greater length than I shall be our principles and prepare for still nobler de- send your lordship this short report of what came under my own observation, however imper fect it may be from my want of knowledge of

REVIVAL. STROUD. GLOUCESTERSHIRE. ENG-

need all the semicates we could employ, may no completely sured by your Extract of Sar-ar physician thought nothing bat estippa-pril relief, but he advised the trial of your is this hast resort before cutting, and it all, After faking your remedy eight weeks of the diames remains."

is and Mercurial Disense. NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859. ER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the re-

That Sir, I cheerfully comply with the re-gent, and report to you some of the effects i with your Sarsaparilla. I with it, in my practice, most of the comd with your Surseparilla.
d with it, in my practice, most of the com-sich if is recommended, and have found its underful in the cure of Fasereal and Mer.
One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers, which were consuming his paints and the outh. Your Faresparilla, steadily taken, here weeks. Another was attacked by sec-toms in his nose, and the ulceration had consisterable part of it, so that I believe the d soon reach lab brain and kill him. But it y administration of your Surseparills; the and he is well again, not of course without that he bit fore. A woman who had been to an ber house. They had become to sen-eather thation a daup day size suffering on in her houses. that on a dam in in her joints and hones. She, too, was t by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I formuls, which your agent gave me, that on from your laboratory must be a green equently, these truly remarkable result.

G. V. LARIMER, M. D. m, Gout, Liver Complaint, Shakes, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1850. Tex. Sir, I have been afflicted with a pairs termsofiem for a long time, which failed th ismed, and stuck to me in spite of all U, id find, until I tried your Samaparil is in two weeks, and restored any generic the that I am for begins them before I was J. FREAM stchell, of St. Lonis, writes 1 " I have been vars with an affection of the Liver, which health. I trief every thing, and every thing a me; and I have been a broken-down man from no other cause than derangement of eloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you you made was worth trying. By the bless is cured me, and has so purified my blood man of me. I feel young again. aid of you is not half good enough."

ancer Tumors, Enlargement,

9. At of cases have been reported to us where imidable complement have resulted from tennedy, but our space here will not admit if them may be found in our American h the agenth below named are pleased to o all who call for them.

Heart Disease, Fils, Epilep-Iclancholy, Neuralgia terance noisy. Neural gia. habs cures of these affections have been terative power of this medicine. It stimu-functions into vigorous action, and thus remedy has long been required by the ne-people, and we are confident that will that medicine can do.

Cherry Pectoral,

or the RAPID CURE OF olds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Fronchitis, Incipient Con-tion, and for the Relief Lonsumptive Patients advanced Stages of the Dispase, edy so universally known to surpass tree of throat and hang complaints, the to publish the evidence of its virtues. Hence for coughs and colds, and its to so f pulmonary disease, have made out the citized out intuities, or even the off is effects some personal experience of its effects, and phy in their midst of its fictory over the periods disorders of the throat and hours, denoted its fits of these disorders, and denoted its fits of the effect of the other off is the second , me effects of this remedy, we need not sure than that if has now all the vis-re when making the tures which have bon the confidence of

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass Wholensle by COGSWELL, Holis Street, Ha'liss I by all druggists in city and County

NCIAL WESLEYAN ED EVERY WEDNESDAY. in Conference Office and Book Boom. GYLE STREET, HALIFAX, N. S. n which this Paper is published are ngly low :- Ten Shillings yearly -half in advance.---VERTISEMENTS: VEBLEYAN, from its large, ral circulation, is an eligibl um for advertising. Persons will find age to advertise in this paper. TERMS:

and under, 1st insertion ve 12-(additional) one-fourth of the ab ents not limited will be continue d out and charged accordingly. JOB WORK, Job Work executed with new

le Har State Barto in congregation was dense, of your lordshin's delivering the letter of creand hundreds, I presume, went away for want of dence to the Emperor. Towards six o'clock, room, yet there was no confusion. however, in the afternoon Mr. Parkes thought

High and Holy One seemed to be an outspoken a question he was not empowered to discuss, having no instructions on the subject, and that,

Would that I could with my pen give you a moreover, it was a question not included in the trating influences that pervaded the congrega- was not until this late hour that Mr. Parkes to sing, but I seemed so overawed with the and for opening markets for their supplies, and solemnity of God's presence, that I paused." sending carts for the conveyance of your lord-congregations were large and impressive, and uplifted. My spirit looked out on that vast con- Mr. Parkes to Tung-chow for the purpose of the interest with which they listened to our views course as standing upon the verge of eternity, examining the ground agreed on for the encampmany on slippery rocks, while fiery billows were ment of the troops, decided on starting early in

On Monday, the 17th, our noble Public Meeting took place in the Free Assembly Hall, with the fearful plunge. Truth appeared to be in- rival on the ground, and therefore, about half the Lord Provost in the chair, and all the de- vested with unwonted spirituality. I have never past five a.m. on the 18th, Mr. Parkes, Colonel nominations of the city well represented. Reso- regarded the tones of the organ as peculiarly Walker, and Mr. Morrison, with an escort of utions, approving of our principles and plans, desirable in revival services, but as its majestic five King's Dragoon Guards, and four sowars, were passed, and a Committee to correspond and tones, intermingling with the voices of the peo- started for this purpose, leaving the remainder o-operate with the Society were appointed. ple, went up as the sound of many waters, it of the party, which consisted of Mr. de Norman, On Tuesday, the 18th, I addressed by request only seemed to add to the solemn majesty of the Mr. Bowlby, and Mr. Andorson, who command ed the whole escort, and fifteen sowars, in Tungchow, to await our return, when we intended t As Dr. P. gave out the hymn, commencing : look for a suitable residence for your lordship. The yamun in which we were lodged was i the western suburb. The shortest way to gain I have consented to do next March; and the heart, if it had spoken out, would not have said the road to Maton was through the country, and not through Tung-chow, which road we had been brought in by the previous evening. We advanced at a quick trot, and as we approached

How frail at best is dying man, How vain are all his hopes and fears." Chan-kia-wang, we observed many detached Dr. P. then read the first forty verses of the parties of matchlock men and cavalry hurrying ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the wang the numbers increased, and became massed Son of man cometh." He then talked about as if being moved forward to take up certain On Wednesday evening, I had the pleasure of time as the dressing room for eternity; and the positions. Observing a large body of men to again addressing our spirited friends in Glasgow, importance of laying up treasure in heaven, if our right, I rode across a field, and found about at their Annual Social Meeting. Mr. Hay, Mr. we would not be hurried away, at an unlooked- five hundred cavalry dismounted in a dry water Robinson, Mr. Leathem, and Mr. Cuthbertson, for hour, from the shores of time-as the fool course. Being joined by Mr. Parkes, we pro (of Falkirk) were all there; snd the Society is who said to his soul, "Eat, drink, and be ceeded along their front until we came to a village, through which we passed, and suddenly found It is my belief that there was not an uncon- ourselves in the middle of a battery of twelve, victed sinner in the house; and Dr. P. desiring guns in position, and commanding the very that not one might be permitted to leave without ground on which it had been agreed the night Mrs. Palmer have much contributed, and enlarg-having an opportunity to strengthen their con-before that our troops were to encamp. Altho ed numbers and a hearty enterprise in extending victions by publicly acknowledging the work of somewhat surprised at our sudden appearance the Holy Spirit on their hearts, asked that all amongst them, they merely told us to go on to in the house who were resolved to seek the fa- the road, where we joined Colonel Walker and nessing and participating in the Tercentenary vour of God, and all who were enjoying his fa- the escort. We had now arrived on the ground of the Commemoration of the Reformation, by vour, would signify it by rising, when nearly all decided on for our camp. A narrow stream of the earnest and Protestant people of Edinburgh; the people in the gallery and below rose simul- water runs close up to the road from the eastward, an embankment or bund running at some iness of the capital suspended, its churches He then asked all those who were seeking ined with methods are granding to the left crowded, and the joy of holiday on so many solemn and manly faces. Dr Candlish's ser-help those seeking ones to the cross would mon, which I happened to hear, was worthy of himself and the occasion, and what more can be them. On Friday, at ten o'clock, we had the first of able to find a place to kneel. Two seats were General as early intimation as possible. Colonel

one sowar, was to remain on the embankment