

students and the singing of the National Anthem. It is to be hoped that in the future the Students' Confederation may be again brought together with yet stronger and closer ties.

L. KINGAN, T., '16.

C. O. T. C.

The reorganization of the Officers' Training Corps, for the session 1915-16 has thus far proved a great success.

The following officers are in charge:—
Commanding

Officer.....	Major Harrison
Platoon	{ Prov. Lt. N. Shaw
Commanders.	{ Prov. Lt. S. Laird
	{ Prov. Lt. P. A. Boving
	{ R. Summerby
Platoon	{ H. S. Hammond
Sergeants....	{ H. Barton
	{ H. S. Cunningham

JONES AND SPENDLOVE. Somewhere in Belgium.

The obtaining of the long promised uniforms seems to have stirred up a new interest among the fellows, and each man has taken a more serious view of the present situation, realizing the country's need of trained men.

Section	{ S. R. N. Hodgins
	{ R. H. D. Todd
	{ R. A. Derick
Commanders.	{ G. D. Matthews
	{ J. Carl Fraser
	{ J. D. Sutherland