Over The Top

During the financial year ending May 31, 1918, The Guide eclipsed all former records for classified advertising. In the livestock section it carried 5,011 count lines, breaking the record for the previous year of 4,396 count lines. During the present year we hope to carry still more. The Guide is offering better service to its advertisers than ever before. Its circulation is now over 40,000 copies weekly, which is the largest circulation ever offered by any farm paper in Western Canada. Read what advertisers have written us recently regarding results from their advertising in The Guide:

Hayter, Alta.

In regard to our ad. for Hereford Bulls I must say we are quite satisfied with results. We received several offers of bulls and more are coming. Thanking you, and promising we will come again.

STANLEY MCINTYRE.

Rising Sun, Alta.

The only fault I find with your classified ads. is that I get too many replies. They keep coming after my cattle are sold and gone, for ever so long.

D. W. MacKENZIE.

Strathgibbon, Sask.

Regarding the ad. I put in The Guide on pigs, I must say that I have had wonderful results from same. Will sure use your paper again when wanting to advertise.

JOHN B. SLIMMON.

The Rate is economical—Five Cents a Word, Payable in Advance.
