

venue, who shall, in respect of such Duties and Drawbacks, manage and allow the same, as hath been, or is, or shall be by Law prescribed.

XV. And be it enacted, That all the Monies arising from the Duties by this Act imposed, after deduction made of the legal allowances in respect to the collection thereof, shall be remitted and paid into the Public Treasury of the Province, in Halifax, by quarterly payments, on, or as near as may be practicable, to the first day of every quarter, and shall be carried to the account of the Provincial Revenue, and be, and be deemed part of the Public Funds of this Province; and shall be paid, applied, and appropriated, to such purposes, and no others, as are or may be expressed or contained in the several Acts of the General Assembly of this Province from time to time in force.

XVI. And be it enacted, That all Monies arising from the said Colonial Duties, and paid into the Public Treasury, shall from time to time, be drawn by the Governor Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, pursuant to the instructions and directions of Her Majesty, and in payment and discharge of any Monies appropriated or to be appropriated by any Act or Acts of the General Assembly.

XVII. And be it enacted, That all Duties on Goods imported, or to be imported, before the coming of this Act into operation, and imposed by any Act or Acts of the General Assembly of this Province, passed for raising a Revenue, and which have expired, or shall expire, at or after the coming of this Act into operation, and all penalties and forfeitures incurred or inflicted under the provisions of such former Act or Acts, shall be collected, paid, raised, levied, recovered and enforced, according to the several and respective provisions of such former Act or Acts whereby such duties penalties and forfeitures were imposed, the expiration or repeal of such former Act or Acts, or any thing therein contained, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That all the said several Duties hereby imposed, and in the said first and second Columns of the said Table of Duties respectively mentioned and contained, shall be estimated, calculated and reduced into the Currency of this Province as follows, that is to say: All the several specific Duties imposed by the said Table of Duties in the first and second Columns thereof, respectively, upon any article or articles therein mentioned, according to the weight, measure or tale thereof, shall be considered and deemed to be imposed and charged in Sterling Money of Great Britain, and the same shall be reduced and converted into the Currency of this Province, by adding to the aggregate amount of the Duty or Duties, imposed and payable on any such article or articles, according to the rate of Duty charged and imposed thereon, in the said first and second Columns respectively mentioned, one fourth part of the said aggregate amount, and in calculating all Duties by the said Table imposed upon any article or articles according to the value thereof, One hundred pounds Sterling shall, in all cases be deemed and taken to represent and be equivalent to One hundred and twenty five pounds Currency of this Province.

XIX. And be it enacted, That all such Duties when so reduced, and converted into currency, shall and may be paid and received at the Provincial Treasury, or by, or to any Collector of the Colonial Revenue in Treasury Notes of this Province, at and after the rate of twenty shillings for each and every one pound currency, in Doubloons of full weight and fineness, at and after the rate of four pounds currency, and in British Sovereigns and British Silver Coins, at and after the rate of twenty-five shillings currency, for each Sovereign, and in the like proportion for such British Silver Coins; provided that no greater sum than fifty shillings currency shall be tendered or received or paid in such British Silver Coins at any one time in discharge of such Duties as aforesaid.

XX. And be it enacted, That so long as the said Imperial Duties by the said Act of the Imperial Parliament, or by any Act or Acts in amendment or alteration thereof, imposed upon wheat, flour, molasses and butter, not being of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or some of the British Possessions, shall continue and remain in force then and in such case whenever it shall be shewn to the Collector or other proper officer of the Colonial Revenue, that such Imperial Duties, shall have been actually paid at some port or place within this Province, either by the production of a certificate from the Collector of Her Majesty's Customs, or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the said Collector, or
