An accident which may be attested with serious results happened on the St. Marys Road near Stratford, on Sunday evening, when an automobile driven by Valentine Weitzel of Stratford crashed into a buggy containing Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Satchell and daughter, also of Stratford, with the result that Mrs. Satchell now lies in the hospital in a critical condition with a fractured skull, a broken collar bone besides other injuries.

Mr. Satchell escaped with minor injuries and the little girl was not hurt at all. The buggy, however, was badly smashed and the horse ran away. Mr. Weitzel appeared in Police Court on Monday morning charged with driving a car while in an intoxicated condition and also that he did by willful neglect cause injury to Mrs. Satchell. Mr. F. H. Thompson K. C. appeared for the accused and asked for an adjournment till

Friday stating that he had been informed that the steering gear of the car had been defective and wished to investigate. He asked for bail but was not allowed till the condition of the injured showed improvement. Later bail was allowed. Mr. Robert Moore, an occupant of the car, who is being held as a witness, was also granted bail.

In its "Birth" column last week, The Walkerton Telescope ran the slogan, "Boost the town you live in." It was a slip of the make-up man, and yet it was not too bad at that.—Hanover Post.

Two Japs at the opening baseball game stood uncovered during the playing of "How Dry I Am," thinking it was the American national anthem.—Portland Oregonian.

An Italian girl, of the Bronx, New York, helping her mother clean house, shook a rug out of an upper window. Later in the day it was discovered that the mother had hidden in the rug a roll of five thousand dollars, her life savings. Somebody picked it up and walked off with it. And the little girl wanted only to help!

It is estimated that as a result of the storm Saturday afternoon two-thirds of the fruit crop in Niagara section has been ruined. Seven inches of water fell inside of forty minutes. Two storms met here and a cloudburst resulted. A thunderstorm came up from the north-east and the wind veered and brought up a hailstorm from the east. Hailstones as large as walnuts fell, breaking windows and even making holes in wooden roofs.
