

TWEED

Mrs. F. A. Bartlett is the guest of Mrs. McKinnon, Belleville.

Hogs reached the high water mark Tuesday, when Messrs. Coulter, Kerr & Ketcheson paid $16.50. They shipped out five carloads.

Mrs. Jas. Clare returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit with her son Rev. D. Clare, Warsaw.

Miss Irene Bartlett and Miss Elsie Aigel are at their respective homes. They have completed their year's course at the Faculty of Education, Toronto, and are now waiting the results of their recent examinations. We hope they have been successful.

Our townsman, Mr. F. J. T. Maines B.A., has been elected a resident fellow of the Royal Colonial Institute. We don't know exactly what this election may mean, but we heartily congratulate our friend Fred just the same.

Mr. Wilfred Turcott, teller of the Royal Bank branch at Port McNichol, spent a couple of days last week under the parental roof before leaving for Winnipeg, to which branch of the bank he has been promoted.

Mrs. S. Battams, of Toronto, is spending a few days in town. Mr. Battams has been confined to the hospital at Belleville for the past four or five weeks. He received a very serious cut in the head. We trust he will soon be restored to his usual good health.

The Red Cross Auxiliary has been reorganized for another year. They will meet as usual every Friday afternoon for work. The new president, Mrs. E. R. Huyck, urges every lady to come and do her bit in making comforts for the boys.

Mrs. Parlow went to the hospital, Belleville, on Sunday. On Tuesday she underwent a very critical operation. Her friends are pleased to learn that she rallied splendidly and all hope that it may result in a permanent restoration of health.

The many friends and acquaintances here of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burgoyne, of Sulphide, extend their sympathy to the latter in their hour of sorrow for the little one who was removed from father and mother's home here, to the Father's Home over yonder.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Grier received an official message from Ottawa Monday evening, telling them that their son, Pte. Archibald James Grier, was wounded May 4 and was admitted to General Hospital at Calais suffering from gunshot wound in the ankle. We hope Archie's injury will not prove permanent.

Mrs. Allan Hallstone, and two children, of Lakeside, Alta., arrived at the home of her uncle, Mr. Andrew Wilson, Friday evening. She is enroute to spend a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Thomasburg. Her father is ill and has been very low for some time. It is eight years since Mrs. Hallstone has been back home from the West. She reports seedling operations a little later than usual in her section. On Monday, the 7th inst., Mr. Hallstone disposed of 700 bushels of wheat at $3.95 per bushel.

Mr. John Sills was down home from Toronto for three or four days at the weekend. Mrs. Sills has been seriously ill for a few days but is much improved.

Mr. Sills is engaged with the Canadian Aeroplanes Ltd. The company have been making one complete machine a day. They have built an immense new factory and are now equipped to turn out five complete machines daily. The news.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES HANDS

Newspapers published in this Midland district will be interested in the announcement that the Oshawa Windicator has again changed hands, the present owners being Messrs. C. and E. J. Davidson, of Toronto, formerly of the Mail and Empire. Oshawa offers a good field for two live newspapers. Being a large industrial town, there is a large amount of commercial printing to be done. But for some reason Oshawa business men, as a class, are not as liberal advertisers as those of similar towns. Oshawa for instance. There must be a fair amount of good paying advertising placed in this competitive age, and it seems necessary to have an experienced advertising expert connected with every local paper to write up the advertising copy for the merchants, as business men in country towns seldom keep good advertisers. The Windicator has a strong rival to stimulate the new proprietors to do their best to publish a live and new paper. We wish them all the success they deserve. Bowmanville Statesman.

JUDGE DEROCHE WRITES ABOUT THE SUNNY SOUTH

Impressions of Florida—Its Delightful Climate—American Sentiment Towards the War—Sensations When Travelling in a Flying Machine.

At the request of the editor of The Ontario, Judge G. E. Deroche, who recently returned from an extended visit to Florida, has recorded his impressions in the following interesting letter:—

Editor Ontario.—

There are three questions I have been asked so often since my return from Florida that it occurred to me they might be of some general interest.

First, what of the climate? It is almost an ideal winter climate, and the residents claim they have practically the same climate in summer. The sun is a little hotter of course, but always a fine, cool breeze. The temperature was running about 78 in the shade when we reached Miami, the first of March, and about 82 when we left the middle of April. The humidity is very light. One misses gladly those close, oppressive days we often have in summer here. The great delight, however, is the refreshing ocean breeze, playing almost constantly day and night; sometimes gentle, sometimes stronger, rarely a gale, but practically always there. The night temperature does not differ materially from the day, except of course as the sun's rays. The very lightest summer clothing is the thing to wear steadily—not just an odd few days as we have it in July and August.

The lightest underwear, light "overwear", both in color and weight, light shoes and Panama hat—then one is comfortable morning, noon and night.

Miami, by the way, is almost as far south as Jerusalem, and the plant growth is much the same as we read of in the Good Book.

Second, how do the people there feel about the war? The mass of the people were opposed to entering the war. They had the idea that it was only the moneyed interests, that hoped to profit by the war, who were arguing the President to fight. I am satisfied from talks with Democrats, Republicans and Rooseveltians, that President Wilson has all along during the past two years been reading his people aright. I am also satisfied he chose the psychological moment to take his stand for war. He has carried his people with him. He is stronger today than ever before. I heard money men, who opposed him in both his elections, say they would support him next time. They seem to agree with the statement, "He has stumbled many times, but has usually stumbled forward."

I think we may expect great things from the United States. One thing that pleased me very much was the manner in which everyone spoke of Canada. As soon as a man learned I was from Canada almost invariably his first words were "You have reason to be proud of your country in this war. Your soldiers have done magnificently, and your gifts in money and comforts have been splendid."

Third, were you scared when flying through the air? Not the slightest. We went up in a seaplane, starting on the water and landing on the water. The sensation was exceedingly pleasant, whether skimming over the water or rising to a thousand feet, or sailing along at that height for fifteen minutes and descending again to the water. There is no scare anywhere, but all delightful. The view over the ocean, over the city and over the bay was most interesting. It looked like a toy city, toy railway, toy streets, toy automobiles and tiny dots for men.

The young man with whom we flew has been in Toronto instructing our air men. He says our aeroplane just cost us one dollar a minute to fly, so we did not remain up over night.

(Sgd.) G. E. Deroche.

EVERY MAN A COMMITTEE

Renfrew Town Council, composed of nine members, has put into operation their proposal of one man committees, giving each member of the Council, including the Mayor, a certain amount of town work to look after. In minor matters the Mayor is consulted, but the larger matters, after all information is obtained, is obtained. It is considered by the Council. This system of handling town affairs will be watched with interest. There are scores of small matters in connection with town affairs that do not need the attention of three or four men.

WHILE WAITING FOR THE TELEPHONE

There's a boob on a cigar store wire and nineteen men are waiting. This is what they hear: "Lo, Mayme!" "Yep, this's me." "Sure thing, you know, sweet heart. Oh, yes I did; I called up three times."

"I didn't take no other girl." "Honest, there ain't no other." "Surest thing you know."

"Only you, sweetheart."

"Honest, there ain't no other."

"Yep, I got two seats."

"Goin' to take you, or course."

"No, I ain't got no use for her."

"Surest thing you know."

"Just thought I'd call y'up."

"Who was the gink on the car with you?"

"Oh, I don't believe you."

"Aw, don't get sore now."

"I don't love anybody else."

"What's that? Surest thing you know."

"Aw, you know better."

"Just thought I'd call y'up."

"G'bye, Mayme."

"Surest thing you know."

"Get it?"

"No? Here's a louder one."

"Get that?"

"Aw right."

"Surest thing you know."

"G'bye, Brooklyn Eagle."

EGGS DROPPED IN PRICE TODAY

Butter Was Also Easier—Meats Still Higher—Grain Lower

Belleville market today showed a few higher prices. Eggs tip-toed up to 45 cents on the start and citizens held back. Eggs declined to 42 cents and at 40c were offered towards the close of the market. Butter was easier at 48 cents. Chickens sold at 76c to $1.50 per bird.

Hogs remained steady at $16.25 per cwt. liveweight.

Beef is higher, hindquarters bringing 16c to 18c per pound wholesale. Wheat is quite a bit easier. Hides remain unchanged.

Hay is scarce today, not a load offering.

Potatoes sell at $4.00 to $4.50 per bag in shops. On the market $3.00 per peck is asked.

GEN. HEMMING GETS EARNED LEAVE

Brig.-Gen. T. D. R. Hemming, officer commanding the 3rd military district, left Thursday on a week's leave of absence. General Hemming has been constantly at his duties since the war broke out and during that time has not had a day's leave. Since the outbreak of the war General Hemming has been busy in his district and has not been out of the district. Few commanding officers of districts have such a record, and it is one which well deserves a leave of absence. General Hemming will spend the next week at his home in Compton, near Sherbrooke, Que., where his mother resides. During his absence Col. G. Hunter Ogilvie will have command of the district.

A FAMILY OF TEN YOUNG FOXES

Mr. Wilfred Ketcheson is now the owner of ten young foxes which he is endeavoring to raise. One day this week he saw one fox enter a hole in the ground and he took some water to the place, which he poured into the cavity. Out came ten little foxes about the size of young dogs which he took charge of.

HILDA CRADDOCK

Hilda Craddock, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craddock, Blocker Ave., died this morning.
