You are wanted to examine and price the beautiful furs at H. H. Arnold's; you will find their values and quality nowhere excelled.

In addition to those mentioned last week, Mrs. (Dr.) Lillie, Mr. F. Sheldon and Mr. Wm. Gibson went to New York on the excursion last week.

Mrs. A. G. Wiltse of Gananoque has been spending a few days in Athens, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wiltse. Mrs. Wiltse was one of the successful exhibitors at Delta Fair, showing some extra fine painting on china, etc.

A public meeting in the interests of the Lord's Day Alliance will be held in the high school hall on Tuesday evening next. Addresses are to be delivered and a good musical programme is being arranged. The general public cordially invited.

At the meeting of West Leeds Teachers' Institute, held at Newboro last week, Mr. Wm. Johnston, M.A., I.P.S., delivered an interesting and instructive address on nature study, its objects and ideals. At the evening meeting he gave a lecture on "The Grave of Shakespeare," in which the life and works of England's great author, poet and dramatist were presented most ably.

A very large audience assembled in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, many driving to Athens from the surrounding country, to hear a sermon by Rev. W. W. Giles of Summit, N. J. He was introduced to the congregation and assisted in the service by the pastor, Rev. S. J. Hughes, M.A. Mr. Giles took for his text the latter part of the 38th verse of the 2nd chapter of Acts—"and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." His closely reasoned, eloquent discourse dealt first with the work of the Holy Spirit and closed with an exaltation of the Spirit's operation and power, and for an hour he held the undivided attention of the large audience. At the conclusion of service, Mr. Giles announced that, all being well, he would deliver a sermon on Sunday evening next in the same church on "The Immortality of the Soul." The people of Athens fully appreciate the sacrifice of holiday relaxation that Rev. Mr. Giles makes annually in their behalf, and welcome in no uncertain way his educative, inspiring sermons.

Mr. John R. Reid of Ottawa was a visitor in Athens over Sunday.

A matched race for a purse of $50 will take place between Marcus Pointer of Athens and Funny Bane of Delta on Tuesday, Oct. 18, on the Delta race track, commencing at 2.30 p.m. These horses finished the racing season about even, and this competition should prove close and exciting. Admission, 25c.

For several years Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hunter (nee Miss Mabel Manhardt) have been residents of Canton, S. D., and from a recent copy of the Farmers Leader published at that place we learn that Mr. Hunter is now secretary of the Canton Milling Co., one of the chief industries of the town.

At Smith's Falls, on Oct. 4, Mr. Lewis S. Knowlton and Miss Ella May Clark were married by the Rev. A. N. Frith. In concluding a lengthy report of this interesting event, the Rideau Record says: Mr. Knowlton has only been a resident of Smith's Falls for a short time, coming here from Syracuse a couple of years ago, but he is already looked upon as one of the successful business men of the town. The young couple start out in life with every prospect of a happy married life.

Brockville Presbytery

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Brockville Presbytery held in Brockville last week. Highly satisfactory reports were presented by all committees; that on home missions showed that there was but one local mission field and it was recommended that North Augusta, Fairfield and Stone's Corners be raised to the status of an augmented charge.

Rev. Mr. Daly of Lyn was appointed moderator for the current year.

Rev. L. N. Beckstedt was elected a member of the standing committee on S.S. work and Mr. Joseph Thompson a member of the Foreign Missions committee.

Keeping right in line with the most advanced ideas respecting department store management, Messrs. Robert Wright & Co., Brockville, held a series of evening promenade concerts in their store last week, at which the public had the privilege of inspecting the firm's great stock of new fall and winter goods and of hearing a fine musical programme rendered by the opera house orchestra. The store was crowded each evening.

And the people haven't yet got over talking of the success and merits of Delta Fair. The fact that there was not a single gambling device of any kind on the ground is highly creditable to the management, and the members generally should be proud of the fact that of the five or six thousand people present not one showed evidence of having used intoxicating liquor. Delta Fair managers are demonstrating the fact that it is still possible to attract, entertain and instruct through the medium of an exhibition without admitting anything having a demoralizing tendency.

The Bishop's Visit

Churchmen were not alone in looking forward with pleasure to the visit of his Lordship Bishop Mills to this Parish, and so the large congregation that assembled in Christ Church on Thursday evening included prominent members of all denominations in the village. In the ritualistic part of the Evensong the Rev. Mr. Smith of Lyn and the rector, Rev. R. B. Patterson, took part, and a full choir rendered in pleasing volume and with expressive modulations a beautiful song service. His Lordship took for his text the latter part of verse 28 of Matthew 21—"So, go work to day in my vineyard."

Preceding direct reference to his text, His Lordship recited and described in beautifully simple language the portentous events leading up to the relation of the parable in which this mandate occurs. The speaker emphasized the command to immediate service contained in the text, and very forcefully brought home to all the command to labor, pointing out as fields for effort the heart, the home, the workshop, the church, the Sabbath-school. The sermon was a simple, earnest, truly eloquent presentation of divine truth, and those who had the pleasure of hearing it could not help but feel that they were sitting in the presence of one who was himself intensely spiritual and who had full personal knowledge of the great truths he enunciated.

L. AND G. O. B. A.

Perhaps no county in Ontario has greater reason to be proud of her sons than Leeds county. In the learned professions, in trade, commerce and finance they have achieved distinction. In nearly every important business centre on the continent Leeds County is worthily represented. And, best of all, these men, young and old, who have sought fame and fortune far afield never forget the old home and its environments. In Toronto, many citizens of Leeds have made their home, some temporarily, others permanently. A few years ago, "Leeds and Grenville Old Boys' Association" was formed in that city, and from its inception it has proved, socially and in other respects, of great benefit to the members. The roll of 240 members includes a surprisingly large number from Athens district. The president of the association this year is an Athens boy, Mr. J. G. Howorth, and Mr. A. E. Donoyan is one of the executive committee. Recently in writing to a friend in Athens, President Howorth, in speaking of this association, said: "I am always at the service of any one from Leeds and Grenville visiting our city for the first time, and will be glad to assist students to select boarding houses, etc." This gives a hint of the society's usefulness in one respect, but in a hundred other ways its members are enabled to get good and do good.

TAYLOR-FRANKLIN

The Crystal City (Man.) Courier of Sept. 29 says—

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. H. J. Taylor, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, when her niece, Miss Minnie Franklin, of Junetown, Ont., was united in marriage to Mr. George Redmond Taylor. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives by the Rev. F. W. Locke.

The bride was becomingly attired in her travelling dress of blue broadcloth with a bodice of white netting silk trimmed with silk lace insertion and carried a handkerchief of real lace, the gift of her friend, Miss Grace Rappell. She was given away by Mr. J. J. Ring and was unattended.

After the ceremony the guests partook of a daintily served wedding dinner. The table was nicely decorated with smilax and white flowers. The arch under which the ceremony took place, was of smilax looped with bows of white ribbon.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. and D. J. Taylor, of Winnipeg, and Miss Grace Rappell, of Athens, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left on the 12 o'clock train for St. Louis, where they will spend a couple of weeks.

Under the auspices of St. Luke's Church, Ballynane, an entertainment is to be held in Beaver Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 14. Messrs John Culbert, D. Derbyshire, A. E. Donovan, M. J. Connolly, and J. Franklin have been invited to deliver addresses, and there will be a good musical programme. Tickets, 25c.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia for years, and tried every remedy I heard of, but never got anything that gave me relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. I cannot praise this medicine too highly for the good it has done me. I always take it in the spring and fall and would not be without it." W. A. Nussler, Belleville, Ont.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Strengthens and tones the stomach and the whole digestive system.

ACCURACY

Absolute accuracy in dispensing your Physician's Prescription is of the first importance.

We appreciate this fully and consequently a duly qualified and experienced Chemist is always in charge of our dispensing department. No prescription leaves our store without being thoroughly checked by him. Likewise the drugs prescribed are always of the best, in fact of standard quality and purity. Greater care, better drugs, more skilled knowledge could not possibly be employed.

This, no doubt, accounts for the large increase in our Prescription Department, and the confidence which the public place in us.
