SOCIAL POSITION

Makes no Difference. Women are All Alike. No Matter What Their Station in Life May Be. All Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If she is one of the favored daughters of wealth,—if she belongs even to the realm of the "well-to-do,"—or—if she belongs to the unnumbered thousands who must work in order to live—the story is just the same; all suffer from about the same cause, and in this suffering "peculiar to women," all reach the same level, and all are of the

When a woman is nervous and irritable, head and back ache, feels tired all the time, loses sleep and appetite, has pains in groins, bearing down sensation, whites and irregularities, she is not "worn out," but

Such symptoms tell her that a womb trouble is imminent, and she cannot act too promptly if she values her future comfort and happiness.

The experience and testimony of some of the most noted women of America go to prove, beyond a question, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all such trouble at once by removing the cause and restoring the organs to a healthy and normal condition. If in doubt, write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., as thousands do.

Mrs. Pinkham Tells Mrs. Scott How to be Cured.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: — I have been for some years a great sufferer and thought I would write and explain my case to you as you had helped so many others. Menstruation is irregular and very painful. I have suffered with painful periods for ten years but the pains grow worse as I grow older.

"I suffer most with my back, lower part of abdomen and left side. I have been flowing all the month and a part of August, not constantly, but will stop for two or three days and then begin again.

"The doctor says I have misplacement of the womb. I have bearing down pains when passing urine, and my abdomen is very badly swollen and sore. Please advise me at your earliest convenience." — Mrs. A. V. Scott, 21 Page St., Vingston, Pa. (Sept. 30, 1900.)

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: — When I wrote to you asking advice no one could describe my suffering. The doctors said I could not be relieved unless I had an operation performed, but thanks to you and your medicine I got along without having the dreaded operation. I have taken ten bottles of your medicine and am once more well and happy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a fine medicine and a God-send to suffering women. I trust my letter may be the means of bringing many of my suffering sisters to accept your kind aid." — Mrs. A. V. Scott, 21 Page St., Kingston, Pa. (Jan. 30, 1901.) Yingston, Pa. (Sept. 30, 1900.)

Remember Mrs. Pinkham's advice is free, and all sick women are foolish if they do not ask for it. No other person has such vast experience, and has helped so many women.

A NOVEL STEAMBOAT.

fow You May Make One That Will Go Without Wheels or Screws. You never heard of a steamboat without paddle wheels or screws to make it move through the water, did you? Well, it is not so hard or won derful as you imagine, and this is how you may provide yourself with one:

In figure and fastened to the sides of the boat like hooks have to carry an empty eggshell, the contents of which

PLAN OF STEAMBOAT you have sucked out, leaving a little hele on one side as shown in figure. The shell is filled with water up to the little hole and represents the boiler, placed on the two pieces of wire with the hole to the rear somewhat above the rear wall of the boat. To heat the boiler, with a small piece of cotton in the center. Pour some alcohol on the cotton and set a match to it. The water will begin to boil in a few moments and a fine stream of steam will leave the hole in the eggshell. The pressure of the steam on the air will move the little boat in the opposite directionthat is, forward-and we have a steamboat steaming without wheels or screws.-New York Herald.

A Queer Neighbor.

Prissy had just moved into a new house, and now she was trying to get acquainted with her neighbors. Little Milly Mint, who lived next door, had made her a visit and asked Prissy to come to see her the next day. So Prissy braided her hair very neatly and walked slowly over to Mr. Mint's, with her head down and feeling very strange and shy indeed. But, oh, dear, how her heart did beat when she stood at the door and heard a queer, gruff voice calling out: "Go home! Go home! Go straight home!"

So she turned right around and hurried out at the gate, with a very pink face and hanging her poor little head still lower than before. Such queer neighbors! She was sure she would never go to that house again! But she did, though. When Milly found out what the matter was, she laughed and promised to show Prissy her rude neighbor. Soon she came funning in with a big cage in which sat a green Poll parrot. It was naughty Polly that had given poor shy Prissy such a fright. The little girls were good friends from that day, and now Prissy only smiles when inhospitable Polly tries to send her home.-Youth's

"Often an old doll with a cracked head and a sweet smile is more beloved than a new doll with a sour face. "It is a bad plan for dolls to be stretched out on the floor, as people may trend on them, and a doll that is trod on is sure to go into a decline." Madge was reading these rules to her dolly with a very sober face. Then she laughed. "Dolly," she said, "it's funny, but I really believe these rules are more for me than they are for you."-Sunday School Advocate.

Word Guessing. This game, which may be played by any number of children, begins by choosing a word and then guessing what word has been chosen in the fol-lowing manner: One of the children or the mother thinks of a word and describes it by saying, for example: "I have a word of five letters. The first is g and the last is s." The players are at liberty to begin any time and all at once if they choose, and they may ask any number of ques-tions about the word, which the leader is obliged to answer as truthfully as possible without telling the word. The player guessing the word first has the privilege of announcing the next one.

A Match Trick. Put a few matches on the surface of water in a basin in such a way that they will form a star, with their heads toward the center. Thrust a piece of soap pointed at the end into the water at the center of the star, and you will find that the matches will begin to giove away as if they were afraid of the soap. You can coax them back by putting a piece of sugar at the center.—American Boy.

A LIFE IN PERIL

STORY OF A GIRL SAVED BY NEWSPAPER ARTICLE.

Suffered from Headaches, Dizzi Friends Feared She was Going into Consumption.

Among the thousands of young girls who bless Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for safely carrying them through that most perilous period of their lives when they step from girlhood into the broader realm of womanhood, there is none more enthusiastic than Miss Gabrielle Thomas, a young lady known to most of the residents of St. Jerome, Que., and greatly esteemed by all her acquaintances. To a reporter of L'Avenir du Nord, Miss Thomas said: "From the time I was fourteen until I was eighteen years of age my health was very bad. I was very health was very bad. From L'Avenir, St. Jerome, Que. ter of L'Avenir du Nord, Miss Thomas said: "From the time I was fourteen until I was eighteen years of age my health was very bad. I was very weak, had no appetite and could do no work. At night I perspired greatly and frequently slept but little. I suffered from headaches, dizziness and could scarcely move about without becoming breathless, and I finally reached a stage when my friends feared I was going into consumption. I was under the care of doctors, but their treatment did not help me. I then tried several advertised medicines, but tried several advertised medicines, but with the same poor results and I had come to think I could not get better. One day I read in a newspaper the statement of a young girl whose symp-toms were almost identical with my own, who was cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I then decided to try this medicine and have reason to bless the day I did so. I had only used the pills a few weeks when I began to get better, and in a couple of months every symptom of my trouble had disappeared and I was as strong and healthy as any girl of my age. I have since always enjoyed the best of health and I shall be glad indeed if my experience proves helpful to some other suffering girl."

The happiness of health for both men and women lies in the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which act as a nerve tonic and supply new blood to enfeebled systems, They have cured many thousands of cases of anaemia, decline, consumption, pains anaemia, decline, consumption, pairs in the back, neuralgia, depression of spirits, heart palpitation, indigestion, rheumatism, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance and partial paralysis.
