

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM

Sept. Of Sunday School in Toronto Cured By "Fruit-Lives"

R. A. WAUGH, Esq.
TORONTO, ONT., Oct. 1st, 1915.
"For a long time, I have thought of writing you regarding what I term a most remarkable cure effected by your remedy 'Fruit-Lives'. I have lived in this city for more than 12 years and am well known. I suffered from Rheumatism especially in my hands. I have spent a lot of money without any good results. I have taken 'Fruit-Lives' for 18 months now and am pleased to tell you that I am cured. All the enlargement has not left my hands and perhaps never will, but the soreness is all gone and I can do any kind of work. I have gained 25 pounds in 18 months."

By some twist of the election an old negro had been elected to the office of the justice of the peace in a little backwoods district in Tennessee. His first case happened to be one in which the defendant asked for a trial by jury. When the testimony was all in, the lawyers waited for the judge to give his instructions to the jury. The first justice seemed embarrassed. Finally one of the lawyers whispered to him to charge the jury. He roared and one hand into the front of his coat, calmed his voice, and said:

"Gentlemen of the jury, since die am a putty small case, Ah! I only charge you a dolla han' a half apiece."

The teacher in elementary mathematics looked hopeful. "Now, children," she said, "think carefully before you answer. Which would you rather have, three bags with two apples in each bag, or two bags with three apples in each bag?"

"Three bags with two apples in each bag," said a boy in one of the last seats, while class still debated.

"Why, Paul?" asked the teacher. "Because there'd be one more bag to bust," announced the practical young mathematician.

Temperance in Maine.
For the purpose of stimulating discussion of the liquor traffic and its control, Hon. Horace Purinton, of Waterville, has offered $100 in prizes for four orations on the subject to be delivered by students in the colleges of the state. It is planned to have local contests at Bates, Bowdoin, Colby, and the University of Maine. The winners of these contests will compete in a State contest, one student to represent each of the four institutions. The prizes are: First, $50; second, $25; third, $15; and fourth, $10. In making the awards composition and general literary excellence will be taken into consideration, as well as the delivery of the individual orations.

Give Them Something To Do.
It is said that once when Sam Jones was conducting a meeting in a certain Southern city a prominent merchant came to him greatly concerned about the location of heaven. With a twinkle in his eye, the great evangelist said to him: "I understand that Mrs. —, one of your neighbors, and her little children, are suffering for want of food and clothing. When you get to your store in the morning, fill one of your wagons with groceries and other necessities and take them to her; and after you have delivered them, pray with her and speak a few gentle words of comfort and encouragement to her. When you have done that, I don't think you'll be bothered any more about where heaven is." Whether the merchant followed this wise counsel or not, we do not know. If, however, we would follow Jesus as "He went about doing good," many of the perplexing problems of life would be quickly solved. Doctor Green, of Calvary Baptist church, Washington, D. C., recently said: "Get the church centered on its great purpose—missions—and you settle a thousand difficulties and theological questions."

Helpful and Useful.

We want to commend to all, and especially to the boy, the following extract from an address in the Rochester Democrat:

The higher law of remembering the interests of others is quite as fruitful of good results in business as in politics. The boy who starts in life with a record behind him as having been helpful and unselfish in the home is pretty sure to win in his battle with the world. We cannot do for others without doing for ourselves, although it is not everyone who has the vision to grasp this fact. But it is the inevitable law of compensation.

There is perfectly sound doctrine. The rule of self-interest turns out a false destiny for individual, city or nation, if it could there would be no G. d. in Israel. And yet we all ignore the law all the time. We push and grab and trample over a brother as if that were the law of the falling stone, the white blossoms and the blue skies.

But the boy—notice that. If he is 'helpful and unselfish' at home, he is a winner in life; if he is not, he is a failure. Put that to a test in every family and see if it is not true as gospel. The great value of a family is to make the test—to see if a boy is a cloud or a spirit. It cannot be made too soon.

Peace Rests With the People.

Armies and navies are counters in the game of diplomacy. In the foreign offices which control them there is no force for peace. The impulse, for peace must come from the people, from their sense of common interest, from their growing hatred of the system which turns peaceful nations into military powers, from the needs of finance, from the paralysis of debt which already makes continued war all but impossible.

The average man has enough line in his system to whitewash a fence.

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

Makes It
THIS simple rule of health is daily called attention to by every doctor in the land, whose first question to the patient almost invariably is, "Are your bowels regular?" Yet there's not one person in fifty who takes proper care of the bowels. And the result of this foolish neglect is nine-tenths of all ill-health. If today you are unable to free your body of waste matter at the usual time, or if the act causes straining, pains and discomfort, don't let that condition occur again tomorrow. Unless your bowels can carry away the waste materials left after food is digested, decay sets in, the poisons of which, taken up by the blood, increase the risk of Typhoid Fever, Appendicitis, and many other serious diseases. In treating constipation, there is a right way and a wrong way. The wrong way is to take harsh purgatives which even though they do clear the bowels, cause griping and nausea, injure the delicate tissues, and so disturb the normal functions as to cause the return of constipation. The right way is to help Nature to produce normal movement, without pain or discomfort, by using
