Wild as the theory may seem, it is by no means improbable that individuals who have incurred the ban of foreign coln. Governments or secret organizations who have sought shelter in the metropolis have been kidnapped practically in open daylight in London and "suitably dealt with," says London Answers. Only a few years ago Dr. Sun-Yet-Sen. a prominent member of the now powerfur "Young China" party, was seized in broad daylight in Portland Place by two of his compatriots and hustled into the Chinese Embassy. He had incurred the enmity of the Empress. He had been kidnapped according to her instructions and conveyed to the Embassy, with the being served by others. A second edition was at once ordered, but before it could be printed a mysterious burglary occurred at Messrs. Ward & Downey's, the publishers.. Why Princes of India are Safe in Oifering Jewels to British Officers.

There is a curious custom at the courts of the Indian princes. When a British officer or a physician calls upon a rajah he is shown into the recepah surrounded by the great state officers.
