THIS PAPER may be found on file at Geo. P. Rowell & Co's Newspaper Advertising Bureau (10 Spruce St.) where advertising contracts may be made for it in NEW YORK.

LORD & THOMAS, NEWSPAPER Advertising, 45 to 49 Randolph St., Chicago, keep this paper on file and are authorized to make contracts with ADVERTISERS.

THE GLEANER will receive at very low rates all small and transient advertisements such as Houses to Let, or for Sale, Houses Wanted, Situations Vacant or Wanted, For Sale or Exchange, Notices of meetings, Births, Marriages, Deaths and Funeral Notices, etc. For these and many others it will prove a medium of general benefit to everyone residing in the city, Marysville, St. Mary's, Gibson, and Nashwaaksis, who may profit by our low rates and large circulation. For funeral notices it will prove the cheapest, quickest and most reliable means of disseminating the desired information. We have thus more confidence in asking the public to patronize us in this manner because we have the largest circulation of any paper published in York.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1887.

THE MEETING TO-NIGHT.

The public meeting in the City Hall this evening to be addressed by Dr Stockton, of St. John, and Hon. Attorney General Blair should be well attended. Conservatives as well as liberals are invited.

A FEW QUERIES.

In 1878 the tories claimed that $22,500,000 were sufficient to met the ordinary expenditure of the Dominion. In the previous year the liberals had expended $23,503,158 and the tories insisted that this was a million dollars too much and they promised to do with the smaller sum if they were entrusted with power. If they had done so their total expenditure on what is usually called revenue account, from the time they took office in 1878 until June 30th, 1886, would have been eight times $22,500,000 or $180,000,000. The following table shows what they did expend:—

1878-79	$24,455,381
1879-80	24,850,634
1880-81	25,502,654
1881-82	27,067,654
1882-83	28,720,157
1883-84	31,107,706
1884-85	35,037,060
1885-86	39,000,000
Total	$235,751,046
Promised expenditure in eight years	$180,000,000
Actual expenditure in eight years	235,751,046
Excessive expenditure	$55,751,046

But say the tories in excuse we have built the Canada Pacific Railway. True you did; but you did not pay for it out of this excessive expenditure of nearly $56,000,000. You borrowed the money to pay for the railway. Then they said we spent it in developing the northwest. No you did not. But if you did what have you to show for it? There are two hundred graves on the banks of the Saskatchewan, on every headstone of which should be the words "A victim of cruel and callous neglect." Eight millions of money were spent in the rebellion. What about the remaining $47,751,046? You cannot claim that a dollar of it went for interest for you say that the interest charge has not increased. Your claim is not a valid one, but you make it and are bound by it. Come Messrs. W. Grant Gaunce, E. L. Wetmore and J. D. Hazen, oh yes, we forgot, and Mr. Temple,—we believe he is running this election,—what did your party do with this $47,751,046 of money which you spent, though you saidyou did not want it? Did it cost this to misgovern the northwest, in addition to the $8,000,000 and the two hundred lives spent in overcoming the consequences of your misgovernment?

The tories claimed in 1878 that the debt ought not to be further increased; that the expenditure ought to be kept at $22,500,000 and that the Canada Pacific railway would be built without costing the county a dollar. But the expenditure has been increased since 1878 in all, $55,751,046, and so far from the Canada Pacific not costing a dollar, it and other outlays have increased the public debt more than $150,000,000. That is to say the difference between tory promise and tory performance in the last eight years has been over $205,000,000 in hard cash.

But, says Mr. Foster, what if this country does owe $293,000,000? You never will have to pay the debt. Never pay the debt indeed! Well, that is worse and worse. If we could pay it and get rid of it there would be something to look forward to, but we will never pay it. What does this mean. It means that the pockets of the people are being drained every year to send money out of the country for interest, and as the interest all goes out of the country, we lose the use and benefit of it. If it remained in the country, the people would have the advantage. We send away the interest every year, and we lose the interest on that interest, which we would have if the money were not sent away. And this in interest and in the loss of the use of the money sent out to pay such interest, the debt costs us so much annually that in eighteen years we will have paid a sum equivalent to the whole principal, and still the principal will be due. If the money which is sent out of Canada to pay interest in the public debt were kept in the country and invested at four per cent, we would in eighteen years accumulate $300,000,000, and yet Mr. Foster claims that the debt is a mere bagatelle, really hardly worth thinking about, because we will never pay the principal. Why, before Mr. Foster is gathered to his fathers, if he lives to be as old as Sir John Macdonald, the present debt of Canada will have cost this country $600,000,000, and still the principal will be unpaid.

ABOUT PRICES.

A favorite tory canvass is that if money is hard to get a dollar will go farther now than it ever would. Does it not sometimes strike these tory political economists that the very reason that a dollar will go so far is because it is so hard to get one. Money is scarce; therefore men will work more cheaply and sell the products of their industry more cheaply than ever. No farmer sells his oats cheap because he wants to. No workman prefers to work for low wages. The prices of labor and commodities are governed by the demand and the demand is governed by the amount of money in circulation. All the world over prices are low and the great question with economists is how to make them higher. When we hear that lumber, cotton, iron or any other staple has gone up is price we feel hopeful of better times. It was a part of the tory promise to make the price of farm produce higher. Now they boast that is lower. They blow hot and cold. We do not, however, charge the prevailing low prices upon the tories. The causes are far beyond the reach of our politics, or beyond the reach of the politics of any country. Canada's share of the trade of the world is only small, and the prices of the commodities which our people consume are influenced only in a very small degree by local causes. The tories boast that sugar is cheap. It is cheap; but if the duties were off it would be cheaper still. In groceries, in London, signs are displayed saying that "sugar is free"—that is it is actually given away to customers. So great an effort has been made to stimulate the production of sugar on the continent of Europe that the markets of the world are glutted with it. We do not know that cotton of equal grades would be any cheaper if the duties were removed, but there is no doubt that the country would be flooded with very cheap grades. It would be an excellent thing for Canada if cotton would go up. We could well afford to pay more for our cotton if the result would be to drive all our cotton mills to their full capacity. Wages are low because employment is scarce. High wages and plenty of work go together.

The tories promised the country a boom in trade, high prices for labor and produce and plenty of employment.

We have instead depression, low price and lack of employment.

And they have the audacity to claim credit for the low prices.

THE NORTH-WEST REBELLION.

In judging of the relative fitness of the two great Canadian parties to be intrusted with the administration of affairs let the electors of York County not forget that the "callous and cruel neglect" of the tories drove the metis into rebellion at a cost to this country of over $8,000,000 of money and two hundred valuable lives. Excepting so far as they volunteered to go to the front to aid in repressing this rebellion and having gone thither fought, and in too many instances, died in defence of the government, the liberals had no part in it. It originated in tory mismanagement and its leader was a tory. In all the records of Canada there cannot be found a line to justify the assertion which is being made throughout the length and breadth of York County, to-day that the liberals fomented and sympathized with this rebellion.

The charge is false and the men who make it know that it is false, and what is more it has been reserved for Mr. Temple's hired canvassers to set this vile slander afloat. They cannot point to a man in their party of any standing whatever, or to a tory journal of any repute which has ever asserted, as Mr. W. Grant Gaunce did, that the liberals played into the hands of the rebels, or as Mr. J. D. Hazen did that all these rebels were liberals. These are brand new slanders coined for the campaign by these gentlemen.

The causes of the rebellion were such as the liberals, being in opposition, could not remedy; but the danger of an outbreak was so apparent that two years and more before it occurred Mr. Blake in his place in parliament drew the attention of the government to it and asked that the papers relating to the claims of the half-breeds might be brought down. When the papers were brought down, which was not until after the rebellion, they showed that the missionaries and even the government officials in the northwest warned the ministry of the threatened danger, but that their warnings were unheeded. We are not discussing the case of the half-breeds. For argument's sake we will admit that there was not a shadow of right in it, and that their rebellion was absolutely without provocation. Such an admission does not help the case of the government one iota. Grant, if you wish, that Riel was a scoundrel of the deepest dye, whose only object was to make money, still the blood guiltiness of the government is not lessened. Suppose that word should come to you that a number of your household was about to murder your wife and children and destroy your property, would you sit idly down until the deed was done, and justify your inaction by saying, "The man was a villain and had no provocation." This is precisely the tory case in regard to this rebellion. They knew the half-savage blood of the Metis was inflamed; they knew that Riel had been sent for, but they folded their hands until blood was shed and the country was plunged into civil war. And their only excuse is that the Metis had no real grievances, and that Riel was a double-dyed scoundrel. Granted that he was, what shall be said of the ministry which allowed him to bring the people up to the fighting point? They could have prevented the rebellion had they made the slightest effort to do so. A word in season would have saved two hundred lives, but Sir John Macdonald would not speak it, although implored by his own officers to do so. The whole blood-guiltiness of the north-west rebellion lies at the door of the tory ministry. No man can escape the responsibility for an evil which he can prevent and does not prevent. He is equally guilty with the wrong-doer.

ABOUT PERSONALITIES.

THE GLEANER has no desire to introduce personalities into the present election campaign except so far as may be necessary in order to present the personal qualifications of the rival candidates. As far as we know Mr. Temple personally is conducting his canvass with perfect propriety in this regard; but he has hired a few persons who are going around York county maligning every person who is opposed to them. These men think they can best earn their $10 a day by stigmatizing the liberals as rebels. Now when we find them throwing these false charges broadcast, when we find Lieut. J. D. Hazen setting himself up to criticize other people's loyalty and arrogating to himself and his friends a monopoly of devotion to the country, we propose to show how ill such pretensions become him. If he does not want to hear anything more about that ride to Stanley let him cease his false charges of disloyalty against the liberals. As to the reference to Mr. W. Grant Gaunce, if the statement that he has taken to parting his name in the middle be an offensive personality, what must the act itself be. The reference to his employment as immigration agent, and Mr. Wetmore's expectancy of a judgeship are perfectly legitimate. The tories opened the campaign with abuse. We met them with ridicule. They don't like it. A friend of THE GLEANER who was present at their Tuesday night's meeting in their committee room, says the air was blue with indignation. We give these tory talkers fair warning. If they don't want to be held up to ridicule, then let them make no ridiculous pretensions; let them keep their mean and contemptible insinuations of disloyalty to themselves.

THE OUTLOOK.

Good news comes from all parts of the dominion. Our friends in Ontario are very sanguine of success. We have reason to know that in well-informed official circles at Ottawa the loss of Ontario by the tories is conceded. Of course the ministerial organs continue to claim that they will have a majority, though a reduced one in that province. Mr. Blake expects to carry Ontario. He did not expect to in 1882. He warned his friends all over the dominion that he could not do so. It is not too much to say that the advent of Mercier to power has nearly paralyzed the tories in Quebec. Our contemporary, the Chronicle, is in quite a panic over the situation and laments the lack of organization bitterly. Tupper's advent to Nova Scotia has, of course, raised the hopes of the tories, but the liberals claim with confidence that they can carry at least fifteen seats, that is a majority of nine. In Prince Edward Island things look very favorable. We have no especial advices from Manitoba, the northwest, or British Columbia. In our province the outlook improves daily. The tories themselves admit that they cannot elect more than one man in St. John and do not very confidently claim even that small measure of success. In Albert the nomination of Dr. Weldon has made a break in the tory ranks, and Mr. Rogers, the liberal candidate, is almost assured of success. The situation in Westmorland is full of promise. Mr. Emmerson is developing surprising strength. Mr. Mitchell is gaining ground every day in Northumberland, and will in all likelihood be elected. In Victoria, Mr. Theriault will give the Hon. Mr. Costigan a hard race, with every prospect of success. In York all signs point to a liberal triumph.

The Farmer is very anxious to know why THE GLEANER omitted portions of Dr. Alward's speech. Well not to be contrary about so simple a matter we may frankly admit that we did so because we wanted to. We are conducting THE GLEANER ourselves and really have not time, at this busy season, to run down to the Farmer office and ask what we should publish and what we should omit.

The statement made by the Farmer that Mr. Gregory is opposed to the railway bridge across the St. John at Fredericton and attacks it in his campaign speeches, is an unqualified falsehood.

Joyful News.

It is certainly glad tidings to the poor invalid to be informed of a remedy that will give prompt and sure relief in case of painful suffering. Such a remedy is Hagyard's Yellow Oil, adapted for internal and external use in all aches, pains, soreness and soreness. It cures rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, croup and all inflammatory pains.

YORK COUNTY'S SHARE.

The population of the county of York is one one hundred and fortieth part of the population of the whole Dominion, consequently, the people of the county of York bear one 140 and 40th part of the debt of Canada and pay a similar share of the cost of government.

The debt is nearly $300,000,000, consequently, York county's share of the debt is over $2,000,000.

The people of York county are therefore paying interest on a debt of $2,000,000.

The interest on this, at four per cent. is $80,000 a year, which the people of York county pay, or nearly fifteen times as much as they pay for county taxes.

York county's share in the cost of the Canada Pacific railway is nearly $500,000.

York county's share of the cost of governing the dominion last year was $270,000. In the last year of Mr. Mackenzie's regime it was $167,000 or $103,000 less than during the last year of tory rule.

THE LIBERAL POLICY.

An independent commons.
An enlarged and simplified franchise.
An honest and efficient executive.
A check to the progress of monopoly.
Reform in the civil service.
Abolition of the present superannuation system.
The right to make our own commercial treaties.
Economy and retrenchment in the public expenditure.
A reduction of taxation, if possible, and a readjustment so as to reduce the cost of raw materials and prime necessaries.
An earnest effort to promote reciprocal trade.
Improved relations with the United States on all international questions.
A full recognition of the federal character of the union.
An end of disallowance for political reasons.
A full recognition of provincial rights.
The adjustment of provincial grievances.
Fair consideration of all the provinces in regard to railway expenditures.
The abolition of assisted immigration.
The extermination of bribery and corruption.
Race and religious union.
A continuous and sustained effort to elevate the moral condition of the people.

He Shook It.

"I was subject to ague for two or three seasons, which nothing would eradicate until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, since which time, four years, I have had no return of the disease." W. J. Jordon, Strange, Ont.

A Fair Proposition.

There could by no offer more fair than that of the proprietors of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, who have long offered to refund every cent expended for that remedy if it fails to give satisfaction on fair trial for rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat and all painful complaints.

The First Sign

Of failing health, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weariness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching, and vitalizing the blood.

Failing Health.

Ten years ago my health began to fail. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever.—Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alterative, and must say that I honestly believe it to be the best blood medicine ever compounded.—W. F. Fowler, D. D. S., M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

Dyspepsia Cured.

It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Headache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various physicians and tried a great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary relief. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for a short time, my headache disappeared, and my stomach performed its duties more perfectly. To-day my health is completely restored.—Mary Harley, Springfield, Mass.

I have been greatly benefited by the prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It tones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and vitalizes the blood. It is, without doubt, the most reliable blood purifier yet discovered.—H. D. Johnson, 333 Atlantic ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
